at Home in a very few days bringing with him what's nice. EVANS & COOKE. Raleigh, March 17, 1854. JUST ARRIVED ATF. MAHLER'S & CO. 3 doz. Buffaloetongues—a fine article, 200 " Smoked Beef, 200 " Superior Gochen Cheese 60 boxes Layer and Bunch Raisins, in halfs, quarters and eights, 20 do. Currants, Lemons, Figs, Brandy Peaches, Pickles. 10 Packages Brown Stout, and Scotch Ale,

1 tierce new Rice, superior Vinegar-&c., &c. Call and see. Raleigh, Feb. 1, 1854. NOTICE TO CORN GROWERS.—THE SUB-scriber offers for sale a peculiar kind of Corn known as the Canada prolific Corn, which excels any grain ever be-fore offered to the Southern Planters, both for beauty and increase. It is a handsome white corn, and produces from three to eight stalks from each grain, each stalk bearing two to three ears of Corn—and the suckers are as prolific as the original stalk, bearing an equal number of ears. I procured a small quantity of this corn through the mail, and planted nine grains in a common sandy garden, that had never received any other manure than from the stable and barn yard, and the result was eighty-six silks and fifty-eight ears! Had not the drought come upon it at the time it did, several other ears would have matured. I will send packages of one hundred grains each, post-paid, for one dollar, to any one remitting me that sum; and I feel confident no man who invests this small sum for this Corn will regret the experiment. This is not the "Sucker Corn," that shoots at every joint—this species is as late as the common Indian corn and will grow as tall. All orders to be post-paid and addressed to ANTHONY DAVIS, Pink Hill P. O., Lenoir Co., N. C., or Williams & Haywood, T. M. 20 Raleigh. February 23d, 1854.

PACT VS. FICTION.—JUST PUBLISHED, THE OLD BREWERY, and the New Mission at the Five Points, By the Ladies of the Mission. The Publishers take pleasure in inviting the attention of the moral world to this charming production as one of the most remarkable ever offered to the public; and they confidently present it as one of the most touching and impressive volumes which have "Diary of a Physician." The papers composing this work are not mere fancy sketches, written for the purpose of a simple commercial speculation, but the written histories of fallen ones who have been reclaimed; of Idleness which has been led to Industry of Drunkayees which has the order to be the company of the company o try; of Drunkenness which has thrown away the Cup'; of Poverty which has put on the garb of Comfort; of Despair which has begun again to Hope; of Ignorance which has crept out of Darkness up to Light; and of Sinful Weakness which has thrown off Falsehood, Crime and Shame, and now walks firmly forth in all a Christian's stre gth. The volume overflows with incidents which are real; with nictures drawn not from force but force life, which pictures drawn, not from fancy, but from life—the whole invested with a freshness which can only come from the vital fount of truth. As a whole the publishers present it as one of the truthfulest mirrors of human weakness, infirmity and suffering, and of the most sublime and self-sacricing Christian faithfulness and heroism ever offered to the public.
