RALEIGH. WEDNE4DAY, JUNE 7, 1854.

FOR GOVERNOR:

THOMAS BRAGG, OF NORTHAMPTON COUNTY.

nemocratic Republican Ticket for Wake.

FOR THE SENATE: GASTON H. WILDER.

FOR THE COMMONS: NATHANIEL G. RAND, ALSEY HUNTER, WILSON W. WHITAKER.

CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR. Messrs. Bragg and Dockery will address the peole at the following times and places:

Thursday, June 8, Greensborough, 9, Thomasville, Davidson, " 10, Lexington, Saturday, " 12, Winston, Forsyth, Monday, " 13, Mt. Airy, Tuesday, " 14, Yadkinville, Wednesday, " 15, Mocksville, Davie, Thursday, " 16, Williamsburg, Iredell, " 17, Statesville, Saturday,

" 19, Mt. Mourne, Monday, " 20, Salisbury, Tuesday, Some of the Whig papers, which are making efforts to manufacture political capital out of the subject of internal improvements, affect to doubt Mr. Bragg's soundness as an internal improvement man, and have asked why the Democrats did not run the Hon. Calvin Graves for Governor, whose casting vote sived the Central Railroad bill. The answer to all this is very easy and plain. Mr. Graves, we have reason to know, was decidedly averse to the use of his name in this connection; and when it was mentioned in caucus, a friend of his, who had the matter in special charge, rose and stated that he could not accept the nomination, if tendered. Mr. Graves, we know, is the warm and attached friend of Thomas Bragg-he has served with him on the Board of internal improvements-he has had opportunities for becoming thoroughly acquainted with Mr. Bragg's views; and he will not only vote for him himself, as far as it may be proper for him to do so, he will advise his friends and neighbors to do the same. The fame of Calvin Graves is forever identified-and proud and commanding fame it is !-with the North Carolina Railroad. In the years to be, as the becomotive goes thundering from the mountains to the sea, and as the State improves, and becomes strong, and great, and as the eyes of her sons, in whatever land, sparkle with exultation when she is named, CALVIN GRAVES, it will be said, was largely instrumental in producing these results-his casting vote gave existence to a work which was destined. with its tributaries and dependencies, to shed all

III It is rumored, and the rumor appears to be well-founded, that special Ministers will be sent by he President to Madrid, to make final settlement with Spain in relation to Cuba. The gentlemen poken of to fill this high commission, are Ex-Presient Tyler and Ex-Yice President Dallas. They will empowered, it is said, to offer Spain a certain sum for the island; and, after representing the condition feeling in this country on the subject, to present an alternative of a refusal to make the transfer he probability that it will be the duty of this govmment, out of regard to the safety and protection fits own people, their interests and institutions, to ake and hold the island—the sum offered, however, be paid to Spain in good faith whenever she will hesitate to commit this important work, together with the whole system of internal improvement, to the hands of Thomas Bragg; on the contrary, he

It is highly probable that events of importance in elation to Cuba will soon transpire. The latest iews, by the Asia, is that the Spanish government as refused the compensation demanded by the Uniod States for the detention of the Black Warrior, and will make no concession beyond remitting the enalty of six thousand dollars. We have the fullst confidence that President Pierce will take such deps as may be just and proper under the circumlances; and Congress, we have no doubt, will susin him. Spanish insults and Spanish arrogance will meet a stern rebuke—the day or rather night of Spanish rule in Cuba is drawing rapidly to a close.

The Register and Star are disposed to make he most out of the discussion here on Wednesday ast, but the Editors must feel, as the people generally of both parties feel, that Gen. D. lost by his peech and Mr. Bragg gained. The triumph was all or the latter; and Gen. D. would have had the symlathy even of Democrats but for his rude and coarse ttack on Mr. B. at the close of the discussion. There Fas another noticeable feature in the matter—the manner in which Gen. D. was treated by prominent Whigs. Some of them were present it is true, but they were here and there in the assemblage, and appeared to be uneasy and dissatisfied; while the Democats were crowded in the bar as well as throughout he room, and were in the best possible spirits. They tere proud of their candidate.

No SMALL Pox IN RALEIGH. There was some scitement here a few days since owing to a case of taioloid which occurred at the boarding house of Mr. lowland; but the person who had it was promptly removed from the City by the authorities, and is, we tarn, nearly if not quite restored. There is no small lox here, and no danger need be apprehended by ons coming to the City.

Warren Winslow, Esq., late bearer of desches to Madrid, passed through this City a few ays since, on his way to his home, Fayetteville. observe—the regular nominee having declined hat he is urged by friends in the Carolinian, for a tat in the Senate from Cumberland.

We are indebted to Mr. Pomeroy for the te numbers of those valuable Magazines, Harper's donthly and Putnam's.

MESSRS. ROGERS AND PURYEAR.

No labored defence of the vote of these gentlemen against the Nebraska bill, will avail. The great fact that they voted without sufficient reason, as Mr. Badger himself declares, against a bill which forever obliterates the Missouri line and opens the commor territories to the slaveholders of the South as well as to the people of the North, stands out and towers above every thing else; the people will look at that, and though they may have excuses and explanations, they will still enquire how it was that Messrs. Rogers and Puryear were wiser than Messrs. Kerr and Badger-how it is, that a bill so bitterally opposed by Greely and Seward, and so howled at by the Abolitionists, and coted against by every Whig from the free States, is to be injurious, as Messrs. Puryear and Rogers would have it believed, to the interests and rights of the Southern States.

The Warrenton News takes the following forcible view of the matter:

"We notice that in the House, two of the members from North Carolina, Messrs. Puryear and Rogers, voted against the bill. What the views of Mr. Puryear's constituents may be on the subject we know not, but that this District was most wofully misrepresented, there cannot be the shadow of a doubt. Mr. Rogers is but the representative of a minority of the District at best; but we cannot believe that he uttered the voice of the Whigs even, in voting against the Nebraska bill. What excuse

he may render for this vote we cannot guess, nor have we any idea what defence will be made for him by the Whig papers that have heretofore been gloryfying him. We are sorry to see that there were as many as two citizens of North Carolina opposed to this great Constitutional measure. What will the Register and the Star say to Mr. Rogers for giving that vote ?-They cannot justify it without disparaging Mr. Badger and Kerr. Is there a man in the whole District whose views were reflected by that vote? and if not, what gort of Representative is he who votes contrary to the opinion of erery one of his constituents? Taking the best possible view of the matter, we consider Mr. Rogers as occupying an awkward po-

SURRENDER OF THE FUGITIVE.

The United States' Commissioner decided on the 2d to surrender to his master, Col. Suttle, the negro Burns recently arrested in Boston as a fugitive slave. He was escorted to the Steamer by twelve hundred troops, and embarked on the revenue cutter Morris for Norfolk. Many stores were closed for the day, and buildings were draped in mourning as tokens of sympathy for the slave. The United States' flag was seen in various quarters shrouded in black. Bells in the City and neighboring villages were tolled.

One of the deputy marshals, it is remembered, was killed by the mob, and it required effort on the part of the authorities to hold the fugitive during the hearing against the attempts to rescue him by citizens of law-abiding Boston. President Pierce gave at once the sternest orders to the United States' Marshal that the law must be enforced at all hazards; and the government troops were on the spot, under his orders, ready to sustain the officers of the

The law has at last triumphed in Boston; but it is evident that the people there, with some honorable exceptions, were either arrayed against it or indifferent as to the result. Indeed, portions of the people seem to be more deeply aroused than ever on the subject. The law has been enforced at the point of the bayonet-what is such a law worth to the slave-

Some of the Whig papers of the State have been falsely stating, for party effect, that Gen. Dockery once made a present of ten thousand dollars to Wake Forest College. One of these papers, the Milton Chronicle-whose Editor has never been excelled in the business of fibbing for party purposes -puts down the sum at twenty thousand dollars: and the prospect was that the amount would soon reach fifty or one hundred thousand dollars, together with a library and four or five endowments for Professorships, but for the following from the Milton Spectator, edited by N. J. Palmer, Esq., a member of the same church with the General, and fully and accurately informed as to the affairs of the College. The Spectator says:

"GENERAL DOCKERY AND WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, We would remark that while Gen. Dockery has ever been the firm and unwavering friend of Wake Forest College, and has been liberal in his subscriptions to it-neither he, nor any other individual has ever loaned or given the institution twenty thousand dollars, or any thing like that amount. The Trustees some years ago borrowed ten thousand dollars from the Literary Fund of the State by giving personal security worth more than five times that amount; most if not all of which they have paid back with interest. The State could not even afford to give them the interest, although it has done as much or more for the cause of Education in North Carolina as any other institution save our State University.

THE DISCUSSION AS PITTSBOROUGH. The last Register contains an account of the recent discussion at Pittsborough between Mr. Bragg and Gen. Dockery, which is intentionally and deliberately unfair towards the former. We give to-day a sketch of the same discussion, in which justice is done both gentlemen.

GOV. BRANCH. We were pleased to see in this City, on Friday last, on his return frem Commencement at Chapel Hill, the Hon. John Branch, formerly Governor of the State, Secretary of the Navy, &c. Time has dealt gently with him. He appears to be in fine health and spirits.

We are indebted to an esteemed friend for a highly interesting account of the recent Commencement at Chapel Hill, which will be found in another column. Every son of the Old State must be gratified at the prosperity and rapidly growing usefulness of our University.

The United States' Circuit Court is in session here this week, Judge Potter presiding. Mr. Dick, United States' Attorney, is present. There are several cases, but we do not know which of them or how many will be disposed of.

FARMER'S JOURNAL. The June number of this useful publication has been received. It contains, among other interesting matter, a list of articles with premiums to be awarded at the next State Fair, which we shall copy as soon as we can find space for it.

CONGRESSIONAL RECESS. The Senate have resolved to take a recess from July to October, but we trust the House will not agree to the proposition. Congress would never adjourn if permitted to take occasional respites of this sort, with an additional allowance for mileage. If members and Senators would set honestly to work, and suspend for a time their political intrigues, they might enact all necessary legislation in six weeks. The longer in Washing-Rich. Eng. on, the most mischief.

New ORLEANS, May 28. Much excitement prevails here in consequence of the failure of Messrs. Wright, Williams & Co., extensive cotton factors. Also, the house of Moses Greenwood & Co., forwarding merchants. Other cotton houses are expected to follow. The liabilitiess of Messrs. Wright, Williams & Co., are believed to be nearly or quite two millions of dollars. They had extensive business connections in the North and in England, who, it is feared, will also suffer.

LATEST FROM EUROPE. We have the latest intelligence from Europe by the steamer Asia. We give below such items as may be of interest to our readers:

SPAIN AND THE UNITED STATES-REFUSAL OF MR. Soule's Demands -- WAR EXPECTED, &c. The Span-Minister has refused the compensation demanded the United States for the detention of the Steam-Black Warrior, and will make no concession beyond remitting the penalty of six thousand dollars. ANOTHER TURKISH VICTORY, &c. Advices from Kalafat to the 6th of May, state that on the 4th, six squadrons of Turkish Cossacks, and five squadrons Hussars had an engagement with the Russians near Rudoran, which lasted three hours, and resulted in the total defeat of the latter, who retreated, with a loss of 128 killed and 12 wounded. The Turks also captured two guns, and escaped with a loss of but

10 killed and 2 wounded. The British fleet has captured a number of gun boats near Constadt. Two English officers have left Constantinople for Circassia, with a supply of arms for Schamyl, and assurances of British sympathy. Macedonia is invaded by 2,000 adventurers, headed by Chanis Kavatasso, and are committing every unheard of atrocity. The Yugsburg Gazette states that the last demonstration by Russia on the frontier of Trannsylvania was occasioned by an intimation from Austria that an advance towards the passes of Gallacia would be regarded as a cause of war. Russia responds by ordering 70,000 men to be stationed between the rivers Sereth and Pruth. Austria immediately distributed 90,000 troops in Transvlvania, Gallacia and Moravia.

Russia is making extraordinary levies for the army Rome, May 12. Cardinal Lambraschini died here vesterday. A general rising was expected in Montenegro in favor of Russia. Six hundred Montenegrins had made their way into Turkish Territory and killed a number of inhabitants.

Col. Solimen Bey had defeated the Russians at Kradova. The Vienna Gazette states that in consequence of the great concentration of troops on the northeastern ann eastern frontiers of Austria, 95,000 recruits had been raised. This measure was considered as a declaration of Austria not to be bullied by the Rus-

Austria. The position of Austria was decidedly hostile to Russia. She had called out 100,000 men to defend the f-ontier from the Russians.

MARKETS. Liverpool, May 20. The Cotton market has been dull at a decline of 1-16d. a 1d. in middling and lower grades. Sales of the week 45,000 bales, of which exporters took 4,000, and speculators 3,000 bales. Denniston quotes fair Orleans 61d., middling 51-16d., fair uplands 61d., middling 5d. Milligan quotes middling uplands 51d.

Episcopal Convention. This body adjourned this morning, after a most harmonious and agreeable session. On Saturday evening the holy rite of Confirmation was administered to twenty-eight persons. Yesterday morning, John Beckwith, Jr., of Washington, and Benjamin S. Bronson of Hertford were ordained Deacons.

A collection of $204 for the Educational Fund was taken up, after the morning's discourse: and at night after a sermon by Bishop Atkinson, an additional collection of $554 for the Missionary Fund was raised. We learned that the Convention decided that the Bishop's permanent residence should be at Raleigh; and measures were taken for the construction of a suitable residence for him in that City.

There were various matters of interest to the members of this Church transacted; but we deem it unnecessary to allude to them here. We hope, however, that it may not be considered out of place for us to say, that the large congregations who listened to Bishop Atkinson's discourses during the Convention, were very much pleased by the cogency and closeness of his reasoning, the strength and beauty of his argument, and the bold and earnest manner with which he enforced the truths of the Gospel upon the minds of his hearers.

The next Convention will be held at Warenton. Wilmington Heruld, May 22nd.

In the House of Representatives, on Monday last Mr. Ashe, of N. C., presented the resolutions of the Convention recently held in Wilmington. Their reception was objected to by Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, on the ground that the Resolutions did not come from the Legislature of a State, nor from a Convention called by authority of law in some State.

Mr. Ashe explained that they were passed by u Convention representing a majority of the people of North Carolina. That he received them from the Governor of the State, accompanied by a request that they should be presented to the House for con-

Mr. Jones refused to withdraw his objection. Mr. Badger presented the same in the Senate on the 31st. We make it as a striking fact that the bitterest opposition to anything for North Carolina in Congress invariably comes from her daughter, Tennessee. Wilmington Journal.

THE CUBAN TROUBLE. The Washington Star informs us that the President has resolved to send a Commission to Madrid for the adjustment of our difficulties with Spain. The gentlemen selected for this purpose are Mr. George M. Dallas and Mr. How-Mr. Dallas is an accomplished and experienced diplomat, and doubtless the abilities of Mr. Cobb are equal to the duty. But we are constrained to dissent from the propriety of the measure. Our Minister at Madrid is fully competent to the discharge of the duties of his post, and these supplementary liplomats will but embarrass his efforts and postpone if not prevent the settlement of our dispute with the Spanish Government. What the occasion requires is not pomp and pretension but energy and despatch. We believe Mr. Soule is a gentleman of too much spirit and delicacy of feeling to submit to the imputation upon his official character which the appointment of auxiliary ministers would imply. We anticipate from this Commission nothing but disputes among its members, and a tedious and barren nego-Richmond Enquirer.

A great deal has been said about Gen. Dockery's being "one of the people," and he himself in his public addresses has not scrupled to parade his early want of advantages of an educational kind. Now we have heard in connexion with this matter, that Gen. D's, father has long been in good pecuniary circumstances, and that had the vouthful Alfred been so disposed he might have obtained a much better education than he did. We have heard also that a brother of Gen. D. did obtain a fine classical education, having finished off at Paris. Now we wonder if the Gen. might not have gotten a better education than he did, if he had been so disposed? This to be sure is a very unimportant matter, and would have never been alluded to by us, except for the demagogical attempts of Gen. D. and his supporters to make capital out of his early disadvantages.

THIRTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 31. SENATE. Mr. Badger presented the proceedings of a convention held at Wilmington, N. C., presided over by the Governor of the State, in relation to the improvement of Cape Fear river. Mr. Johnson, from the committee on printing, reported alversely on printing 1,000 additional copies of Sandford's Reports on the Penal Codes of Europe, and the administrative changes in France since the Revolution of 1848.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, opposed the report, and supported printing the extra number of so much as relates to the European Penal Code. Messrs. Johnson, Fitzpatrick and Fessenden replied, opposing the printing of any part. Messrs. Badger and Seward supported the print-The adverse report was agreed to. Mr Stuart offered a resolution for adjournment

Batchelder, killed in Boston while executing an act of Congress, was taken up and adopted. Mr. Hamlin reported the House bill granting a register to the steamer El Paraguay. Mr. Benjamin withdrew his motion to reconsider the vote adopting the order for a subscription for 5,-000 additional copies of the Congressional Globe. The resolution, therefore, is passed. The bill supplementary to the act authorising notaries public to take and certify oaths, affirmations, and acknowledgments in certain cases, was taken up and passed. The vetoed insane land bill was taken up. Mr. Hunter addressed the Senate over an hour, in an argument that the bill was unconstitutional.

Mr. Foot followed, reading an elaborate speech in support of the bill. Mr. Badger, during Mr. Foot's speech, called the attention of the Senate to the fact that many Senators were leaving for their homes. It was desirable to know whether the meeting on Monday next was not for business or not. Senatars before leaving should know the fact. Mr. Gwin said it was certainly to meet for busi

Mr. Slidell offered the following resolution, which was agreed to: Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be requested to communicate to the Senate what is the present condition of the building of tha United States Branch mint at New Orleans--what sum will be necessary to put the same in a proper state of repair -whether there be any such defect in the original structure, as will, in his opinion, consulting a wise economy, render it expedient to crect a new building on the present site of said mint? HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Mr. Oliver, of Missouri, introduced a bill providing for the survey and sale of the public lands in the territory of Kansas, and establishing a land office therein. Referred to the committee on public Mr. Cutting suggested that it was a matter of the highest importance that they should now fix a day for adjournment. As respected himself, it was somewhat a matter of indifference, but until a day was named he was satisfied but little if any business, would be transacted. The moment a day shall be fixed, they would always have a large attendance of members, and could despatch the public business within a reasonable time. Mr. Henn objected, unless the debate shall be open to all.

Mr. Cutting .- Agreed; let's take it up now. Mr. Henn-I object. On motion, the House went into committee on the Pacific Railroad bill. Mr. Perkins, of Louisiana, alluded to an address ublished in the National Intelligencer of this morning, signed by five of the members from New York in relation to the Nebraska bill and the Administration. He defended Mr. Soule from the attack made upon his course at Madrid in the address. Mr. Peckham, one of the signers, disclaimed any intention to reflect personally upon Mr. Soule.

Mr. Perkins then obtained leave to print a speech ne had prepared on Mr. Boyd's land bill. [A message was received from the President of the United States, through Sidney Webster, Esq., his private secretary, informing the House that on the

The committee rose and the House adjourned.

There is reason to believe, that an application will be made to Congress by the President on or before the 12th of June, for a provision in the civil and diplomatic bill to enable him to send a special commission to the government at Madrid, for the purpose of stating what we intend to do about Cuba; and, meanwhile, to propose to purchase it. There is a precedent for this course in the special commission sent to France for the parchase of Louisiana.

Our minister, of course, presents an alternative to the purchase, and that is that the affairs of Cuba shall be so far reformed as to render its continued possession by Spain consistent with our interests. The future adjustment of difficulties arising between Cuban authorities and our citizens will be required to be made in Cuba, without reference to Spain. The attempt to carry into execution any plan for the conversion of Cuba into a free negro State will be deemed by the Government an adequate cause for seizing

Before the termination of the present session, the President will, probably, send a message to Congress concerning the Cuba question, in which he will rebuke fillibusterism and ask Congress for ample powers and means to protect the interests and honor of the United States, in case of any emergency arising from difficulties relative to Spain or Cuba.
