State Educational Association.

The State Educational Association held its fourth annual meeting, commencing in Newbern on Tuesday evening, the 14th of June, and closing its la bors in Beaufort on Friday night, the 17th.

The Association met in the Presbyterian church in Newbern at half past eight o'clock, Tuesday evening, and was called to order by Rev. Baxter Clegg. the President. The building was densely crowded. The annual address was delivered by the President, Mr. Clegg. It was an able and interesting discourse.

After a vote of thanks to Mr. Clegg for his address, and the election as members of the Association of such as were proposed, the Association ad-

On Wednesday morning, at half past eight o'clock, the Association met at Andrew Chapel, Rev. B. Clegg in the Chair. The exercises were opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Frost, of Wayne Female College. A number of persons were elected members; after which, on motion of Rev. C. IL. Wiley, his Excellency Gov. Ellis was unanimously and by a rising vote, invited to a seat on the plat-

The Association then proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year. We copy as follows from the Newbern Progress:

"The election of officers was then taken up, when Gov. Ellis rose and in a few very appropriate and eulogistic remarks, put W. W. Holden, Esq., in nomination for the office of President, and this gentleman was unanimously elected by a rising vote, and was conducted to the chair by Gov. Ellis and Rev. C. H. Wiley.

On taking the chair Mr. Holden said, in substance, he felt deeply how unworthy he was to occupy the position, in the presence of so many of the first ed-ucators of the State, and of others, who would fill the place much better than he could. But having been called to it by the unsolicited voice of the Association, he accepted it, and would perform the duties thus imposed upon him to the best of his hum-

The Association, he said, had assembled under the most auspicious circumstances. The educational, the moral, and the material interests of the State were never so prosperous as they are now. To keep alive a spirit of educational progress and improve-ment—to foster common schools, high schools, acad-emies, colleges, and the University of the State—to make the people of North-Carolina one people in mental efforts and aims, as they should be one in all that concerns their material progress-to elevate the standard of learning-to encourage the laborious and conscientious teacher, and to diffuse the blessings of knowledge among all the people—these, as he understood them, were the leading objects of the Association. He was glad to see present so many persons, from all parts of the State, engaged in this noble work. And what more suitable place than Newbern in which to hold the sessions of the Convention? The Association had met in one of the oldest towns in the State, noted for its interesting reminiscences, for its advancement in letters, and for its refinement and hospitality. It had assembled in the county of Craven, whose common school system deserved the endation and the imitation of other counties of the State. He trusted the deliberations of the Association would be harmonious and agreeable, and would redound to the prosperity and glory of North-Carolina."

A committee of five was appointed to recommend suitable persons for Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The committee returned and reported through their chairman, Mr. Wiley, the following: For Vice Presidents, John P. Ross, of Mecklenburg; Hasell Norwood, of Person; Rev. L. Branson, of Lenoir; Rev. Neill McKay, of Harnett; C. W. Smythe, of Catawba; and D. S. Richardson, of Wilson. For Recording Secretary, J. D. Campbell, of Greensborough; and for Corresponding Secretary, C. C. Cole, of the same place. The report was received and adopted.

The committee on by-laws, appointed at the last annual meeting, reported through Rev. C. H. Wiley a series of by-laws, which were unanimously adopted S. D. Pool, Esq., then reminded the members of the Association that Friday was the day fixed for the excursion to Beaufort. He assured them that they would be cordially welcomed.

On motion of Rev. W. L. Van Eaton, it was resolved to set apart a portion of the time of the Association for an interchange of views between teachers as to the best modes of imparting instruction and relative to school government.

On motion of Rev. R. Clegg, the Convention adjourned to meet at the Presbyterian church at half past eleven o'clock, to hear the lecture of Prof. Hub-bard, of the University. The house was well filled, and the address, which occupied about an hour, was highly instructive and interesting eviacing on the part of the distinguished lecturer an unusual degree of research and learning. The style in which the address was written was remarkably pure and clear. The Association met according to adjournment at three s'clock, in Andrew Chapel, the President in the chair. We copy from the Propress or follows : "On motion of Reft, B. Clogg, it was ordered that the committee on Normal Schools report to morrow the committee on Normal Schools report to morrow morning, and the report of the com schools to heard next.

a vertal report upon the success of the enterprise, giving a statistical statement, which showed enterprise, that the enterprise would be a failure, unless some means could be devised to support, it. On motion of the same gentleman a committee of seven was appointed to investigate the subject and report to this Convention. On motion of Rev. J. M. Brent, it was resolved that a committee of five be appointed to devise and report to this Convention a plan to secure an equal and authoritative representation of the Common School interest in each county of the State, in the annual meetings of the Associat

The chair appointed on this com H. Brent, Hon. J. W. Ellis, W. K. Lane, David Bur-S. D. Pool, Esq., Editor of the Beaufort Journal, then introduced the following preamble and rese-

WHENEAS, Much diversity exists in the Text Books now used in schools of every grade in North-Carolina, both male and female; and whereas, much inconvenience, expense and detriment to the cause of Education, result from such diversity; and whereas, it is very desirable to remedy these evils, and to introduce uniformity in the Text Books we use in all the departments of North-Carolina Schools; there-

Resolved, That the President appoint a committee of three, to whom this whole subject shall be re-

It shall be the duty of this committee to correspond with the Educators of the State, soliciting a frank expression of opinion relative to this subject, to ask from all a list of the Text Books used in each department of their schools, and a brief statement of the merits they are considered to possess; and far-ther, it shall be their duty to correspond with the Educators of other States, and with the great publishing houses of the country, thereby procuring all the necessary details of the merits of the school pu's lications, tested by the experience of the former, and issued from the presses of the latter; and then, after a careful and impartial examination of the force of the views advanced and of the merits or demorits of the several publications submitted to their scruting to report the result of their investigations to the next annual meeting of this Association, recomme ding such action as shall be best calculated to effect the design contemplated by this resolution

After considerable debate, in which Mr. Pool, Mr. Mills, Mr. Soxythe, Mr. Norwood, Mr. Wiley, Mr. Frest, and Prof. Phillips took part, the resolutions

The chair appointed S. D. Pool, Rev. T. M. Jones. and Rev. C. H. Wiley a committee on the above res-

The exercises were closed with peayer by the Rev. At eight o'clock in the evening an immense audience assembled at the Presbyterian church, to hear he lecture of Hon. D. L. Swain, the President the University. Gov. Swain entertained the audience for an hour and a half in his best monner, bringing to light many interesting and thrilling facts and incidents in the history of the State. The Association met pursuant to adjournment in Andrew Chapel, at half past eight o'clock on Thursday morning and was called to order by C. W. Saythe, one of the Vice Presidents. The proceedings were opened with prayer by the Rev. W. L. Van Eston. We copy as follows from the Progress:

"It being announced that Gov. Swain was in the serve, on motion of Rev. C. H. Wiley he was, by a rising vote, unanimously invited to a seat on the platform. The same gentleman also moved a vate of thanks to the distinguished visitor for his very interesting and instructive address, on last night, at the same time requesting a copy for the use of the Association, which received the hearty concurrence of the Association.

Rev. C. H. Wiley then announced to the Associ tion that he was authorized by John D. Whitford President of the Atlantic and North-Carolina Rail road, to say that the excurson train to be placed at their service to-morrow, would leave the Newbern Depot precisely at $1 o'clock for Morehond City, and would return the same evening about 10 o'clock.

W. W. Hoblen, the President, having taken his sent, the Committee on Normal Schools, through their Chairman, Prof. Johnston, submitted a very lengthy and interesting report, comprehending a full scope of the history of Normal Schools, in Europe and America, both as to their origin and practica results; showing in the most satisfactory manner that the success of education greatly depends upon an organized system of Normal Schools in wines the science of teaching shall be taught as other professions are taught, and which shall be invested with power to confer degrees of distinction of equal grade with those conferred upon graduates in other sciences and professions. On motion of Mr. Brunson, of Lenoir, the report was received. And an motion of Rev. C. H. Wiley, this, in connection with other reports and addresses, was ordered to be published the Educational Journal. Gov. Swam rose and made a short address, in which he fully endorsed the views set forth in the report, giving it as his opinion that the time had now come when it is absolutely necessary to take some action on this important question.

On motion of Gor. Swain the report was referred to a committee of three, whose duty it should be to investigate the subject and report to the executive committee the most judicious plan to be adopted for the accomplishment of the desired end.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen said committee; Rev. C. H. Wiley, Prof. Hobbard, and

The report from the Committee on mixed scho being next in order, was read by Rev. J. H. Brent, to whose energy mainly the Association is indebto for the interesting and very superior production the other two members of the committee out has ing had opportunity to assist much in getting it up.

Mr. Brent takes the position that mixed schools are divinely ordained, from the fact that families are almost invariably composed of logs and girls, and have for their teachers a man and a woman in the persons of their father and mother, upon which basis he mainly founded his argument.

Prof. Doberty, an eminent scholar and an able speaker, who has been connected with mixed schools. ies and colleges as a teacher and professor all his life, spoke up to the time of adjournment in sup-port of the position taken by Mr. Brent, controding that mixed schools of all others are the best in every sense of the word. The Convention adjourned at 11½ o'clock for the purpose of attending the Presbyterian Church to hear the essay of Mrs. Delia W. Jones, of Carteret, on Female Education. The address was read by Rev. Turner M. Jones. It treats principally of the many defects in female education in the lower and primary branches of study, and in a manner and style that would do credit to many of the sterner sex in the State, who make considerable literary pretensions, and points out the remedies by which these defects may be obvioud. The address should be read by every man and woman in the State." in the chair. The President announced the following standing committees:

Emolyal, That the thunks of this Association be tendered to the President, Vice Presidents, and Sec-retaries for the able and faithful manner in which they have discharged their respective duties." On motion of Rev. L. Branson, the thanks of the Association were ununimously tendered to Mrs. Delia W. Jones for her able and interesting essay on female education, and a copy was requested for publication. The hour of 44 o'clock having arrived, it was annonneed that Wm. D. Cooke, Esq., Principal of the North-Carolina Institution for the deaf and doub and the blind, who was present with two of his Ansistants, Mesers. Palmer and Lewis, and a portion of his pupils, would give an exhibition of the proficioney of his pupils. Every nook and corner of the bouse was densely crowded. The exhibition was in every respect highly interesting, and called forth from the audience the warmest applicase. The Association than took a recess until half poeight o'clock, when a large audience attended to hear a lecture by Prof. Dehorty, and to witness some experiments by him in chountry. The Professo sequitted himself in a handsome manner, sustaining his well-earned reputation as a scholar and teacher

The Association having adjourned to meet in Beaudort on Friday night, on Friday morning at nine o'clock a large delegation of luties and gentlemen, accompanied by citizens of Newbern, and by Mesure. Arendell, Lowenburg, and Manson, the committee of the citizens of Boundort, left the Newhorn deput, and arrived about half past ten at Morehood City. At that point we were met by a number of the citizone of Boundort, of Morehead and Carolina Cities; and we were welcomed in eloquent terms to the hospitalities of Beaufort by Stephen D. Pool, Esq., to which W. W. Holden, the President, replied on behalf of the Association. The steamers Caldwell and Johnston then took their departure with some four or five hundred persons for Fort Macon, where acolletion had been prepared by the citizens of Beaufort. The morning was clear and basetiful, and the scene was most exhilirating. The company amound themselves for an hour or two at the Fort, examising that work, walking on the sembore near the breakers, and in conversation; and about one o'clock they partook of the collection. The company was considerably larger than the citizens of Bounfort had reason to suppose it would be, yet there was an abundance for all, and to spare. Soon after this the company left the Fort for the town of Bessfort, where every arrangement had been made for their accommodation. The "Ocean Home," by that whole-souled hadderd, Taylor, was filled, and ledgings were provided for others at pri-

At eight o'clock the Association assonabled in the Methodist Church, the President in the chair. Goe, Serain responded to calls made upon him, and addressed the Association for nearly an hour on the best modes of imparting instruction to youth, on Normal and mixed schools, and on the government of schools. He was followed by the Rev. W. L. Van Eston, of Yorkin, J. H. Mille, of Oxford, Rev. L. Brunson, of Lenoir, Andrew Conigland, of Halifax,

We have thus given, partly from the Xeelers papers and partly from memory, a sketch of the proceedings of the Association. We have no dole action browns but sensitheers browns sometime but the procuedings were so expid on Thursday and ning that we could not find time to make notes of these. The official proceedings will appear in the Educational Journal for July, when we will rose

This was the largest, the sidest, and the nest harmonious Convention of the kinderer held in the State. That it will be of great service to the same of education generally, we fed sure. All series, of the State and every educational interest torage resented. The leatures and essays as the meaning were marked by much general ability, by precision and elegance of style, and by protound and tend learning. We trust that these lectures and will be published in full in the Educational decreed. The Editors could by nothing before their nation which would be more prized or more valuable. The accommended that the Journal will contain, dame this year, the letture of Gov. Swain, the militare of Mr. Clegg, the lecture of Prof. Bulbland, the repoon Normal Schools by Prof. Johnston, the open or mixed schools by Mr. Brent, the honors of Pro-Deherty, and the essay of Mrs. Jones, would all hundreds of subscribers to the Journal. We do not wish to be invidious, but we much express the gratification we realized in seeing is stonnee the Hon. John W. Ellis, the Governor of the State, the Hon, B. L. Swain, the President of the University, and the Rev. C. H. Wiley, the Superior tendent of Common Schools,—the head of the Star. the head of the University, and the head of the Conmon Schools. Their presence added much to the Swain in behalf of public instruction, occupying a he does the Presidency of the University, and time of Gov. Ellis in behalf of education generally, as deserving of the highest commendation. In E. ley's exertions in this robbe cause have been incosand and ardent. But for him, it is more than proable that the Association would never have been formed. Since its formation he has auximaly and carefully labored to promote its growth. The inmeeting in Newtorn must have been to him use gratifying in every respect. He saw there the reimation, to a large extent, of his plans, his auxietic, and his labors We were the guest, while in Newborn of John D. Whittord, Esq., and family, and while is limfort of Dr. Cramer and family. The hospitalty of the people of Newborn and of Bondort we genrous and unbounded. Mr. Whitford, the President of the Atlantic Road, afforded the delegate every facility for reaching Newborn and Bomfort; and w heard on all bands the warmest expressions of graification at his courtesy and promptitude. The Atlastic Road is in exedicut condition. The next meeting of the Association will be held at such place and time as may be designated by the Executive Committee.

In reply to the Payetteville Observe of the 16th we would say, that we know of no "original published arrangement" that the President well reach Chapel Hill to breakfast on the day Mr. No. Kan delivered his address. But the Giarrer alic: "If the President had been "arranged" to leave Washington on Monday morning, he might have slight at Petersburg, and have necised at Chape lill. easily on Tuesday evening." But the President on not "arranged." He adacted his own hour to hering Washington, which was on Rondey evening. and leaving as he did at that time, we have already shown, in our article which the Observer has deus the justice to engy, that he could not, unlessle had been realed through, have reached Coupel Hill in time to hear Mr. McRee. We report that, is not opinion, there was no design and no wish to prowent the President from houring Mr. McRee. Way
