WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES, WARREN & STEWART, Agents,

FAYETTEVILLE ST., RALEIGH, N. C.

(Miss.) Clarion.

WE OFFER THE Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines, with im portant improvements, at a reduction on former prices; and, to meet the demand for good, low-priced Family Machine, have introduced a New Style, working upon the same principle, and ma king the same stitch, though not so highly finished, at Fifty-five Dollars. The elegance, speed, noise lessness, and simplicity of the Machine: the beauty and strength of stitch being alike on both sides, impossible to ravel, and leaving no chain or ridge on the under side; the economy of thread, and adaptability to the thickest or thinest fabrics, have rendered this the most useful and popular Family Machine now made.

We give instructions, free of charge, to enable purcha sers to operate the machines successfully.

An examination of these universally approved Machines is respectfully solicited at our office, over D. C. Murray's Lry Goods Store. WARREN & STEWART.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Being desirous to move, I offer for sale, in the town of Franklinton, (directly on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad,) my TAN YARD. It is now in full operation. Persons wishing to make such investment, (and I know it would be a profitable one) would do well to call and see me at once, as I am determined to sell.

FRENCH COUGH MIXTURE,

ONE OF THE SAFEST REMEDIES FOR ANY KIND of Cough, and warranted to effect a cure, except in a case of confirmed Consumption, which, in almost every case, originates from cold; and, in the use of this mixture in many cases which have been mistaken for Consumption it will make a cure in a very short time.

For children who are suffering from cold upon the lungs and coughing at night, this is found to be an invaluable remedy. Try it.

PROSPECTUS

THE NEWBERN ENQUIRER. THE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSE TO COMMENCE, on or about the 10th of January next, provided a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained, the publication of a Weekly Democratic Paper, in the town of Newbern, to be entitled the Newbern Enquirer.

The Enquirer will be mainly devoted to the defence and promotion of the principles of the great national Demo-cratic Party of the Union; and, while it will ever be the aim, under any and all circumstances, especially where it is likely to lead to unpleasant personalties, to avoid seeking a controversy with persons and papers politically opposed a controversy with persons to it, the Enquirer will always be prepared to meet its opponents with firmness, but at the same time with courtery on all questions of State or national policy. Unfortunately for the welfare of our great and growing Republic, a crisis of no little magnitude and importance has been reached, in the affairs of our national Government brought about by the insane fanaticism of the people of a certain section of the Confederacy, which may, somer or certain section of the later, render it absolutely necessar; on the part of the Southern or Slaveholding States, if we would show a proper respect for our rights and institutions as a free and inde pendent people, to absolve all connection with those who pendent people, to absorve an connection with those who seem determined temberrive us of, or that we shall not enjoy in peace, those privileges guarantied to us by the Constitution which our forefarthers, in their wisdom and patriotism, framed for the equal benefit of all the States; yet, nevertheless, as an humble exponent of the principles of that party which, from the foundation of the Governmen up to the present time, has been laboring, "in season and out of season," for the purpetuity of the Confederacy, the Enquirer will be found battling for the Union, so long as there is a shadow of a possibility that the conservative elements of the country—North and South—shall be enabled to triumph over sectionalism, fanaticism, abolitionism, and all the other isms and cisms which are so rampant in the northern or non-Slaveholding States.

The Commercial, Mechanical and Manufacturing interests of Newbern, will find in the Enquirer a firm and consistent advocate; and no pains will be spared or stones left un-turned, so far as our humble efforts may avail, to make our beloved old town what her natural advantages evidently intended her to be, one of the first Commercial marts of the State, skilled in her manufactures and abounding in her mechanical operatio a The Enquirer will also contain from week to week, matters and things of general interest, such as Foreign and Domestic Intelligence; the latest and most reliable Market Reports; Sketches, Anecdotes, etc., making it a welcome visitor alike to the politician, the business man, and the domestic fireside. In conclusion, the undersigned earnestly appeal to all Constitution and Union-loving citizens and especially to the Democracy of Craven County and the 2nd Congressional District, to rally to the support of the Enquirer, and thus aid us in placing our enterprise at once on a sure and per-manent footing; in return for which we pledge ourselves to use every effort in our power to make the paper worthy their patronage and encouragement. TERMS OF THE ENQUIRER-$2 per annum, in advance, JOEL H. MUSE, ALEX'R D. TUMBRO.

HIGH POINT REPORTER. THE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSES TO PUBLISH AT High Point, N. C. a Weekly Newspaper under the above title, the first number to be issued about the 1st of January, 1860.

The character of the REPORTER is designed to embrace these g neral features: 1st,-A refraining from all interference in party politics, merely noticing, without comment, political incidents as items of news: 2d,-A hearty support of the Industrial enterprises of the High Point region of North-Carolina, not as distinct from, but in connection with the progress of improvement throughout the State; 3d,-A correct report of domestic and foreign markets, together with such other matters relating to trade, freights, &c., as are likely to be of interest to those see tions having business relations with this point of the North-Carolina Railroad; 4th,-A due interspersion of news items, poetry, useful receipts, anecdotes, wit and humor, charades, enigmas, puzzles, whims, scraps and oddities. will be given to make the REPORTER a welcome visitor to every fireside; but nothing shall be found in its column that may call a blush to the cheek of modesty, or a frown to the brow of religion or morality. TERMS. The Reporter will be printed on paper of medium size with fair type, and furnished to subscribers at $2 per annum, strictly in advance.
