IMPROVED COTTON GINS. VE RECENTLY ADDED TO MY COTTON GINS by which the Gin will pick about one-third more cotton per day, and improves the quality of the cotton from 1/2 to 1/2 cent per pound over any Gin not using this improve ment. It picks the seed cleaner, and prevents the cotton from cleaning on the saws.

ment. It picks the seed cleaner, and prevents the cotton from clogging on the saws.

This improvement consists in flanging the heads of the cotton box six inches from where the saws pass through the rips, in a direct line outward, deflecting from this line in an angle of about fifteen degrees—causing the cotton, as it passes upwards, to contract on the s.ws and expand in the box as it goes downward, thus shifting the cotton so as to present a different surface to the saws continually as they move round.

SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to pu the the following leading British Periodicals, viz: 1.—The London Quarterly, (Conservative.) 2.—The Edinburgh Review, (Whig.) 3.-The North British Review, (Free Church.)

4.-The Westminster Review, (Liberal.) 5.-Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.) 5.—Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.)

These periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

PROSPECTUS

THE COURIER. THE UNDERSIGNED WILL COMMENCE, ON or about the 16th day of January next, the publication of a Daily and Weekly Paper bearing the above title in the town of Favetteville, N. C.

The Courier will be Democratic in tone and sentiment, and will seek at all times, and upon all occasions, to guard vigilantly the interests of the South.

It is a difficult task at any time to understand clearly the drift of events, especially when a great crisis is approaching. For some time past we have been familiarizing ourselves with the idea that at a day not far distant we shall have to battle for our interests. Becent events have shown that our opinions were correct, and that we were compelled to defend ourselves from the invader. It cannot be denied, although it is relished by no one in this section, that the breach between the North and the South is daily becoming wider. Our duty then, as men true to our interests, is to breach between the North and the South is daily becoming wider. Our duty then, as men true to our interests, is to gird up ourselves for the contest, and be prepared for all eventualities. That it is the duty of every one to do whatever lies in his power to avert this awful disaster, is cheerfully recognized by all classes.

In conducting the Courier, whatever energy or talent I may possess, will be directed towards the perpetuity of the Union and equality of the States, and in maintaining those political principles which have been tested and proven to be the only mode by which the affairs of our country can be the only mode by which the affairs of our country can be properly managed.

Although the particular tenets of the Democratic party will be argued, I will concede to political opponents the prerogative which I claim for myself, and will endemor to do my duty without giving offence to any one.

The Courier, although a political paper, will not be so far misled by politics as to neglect those things which should claim the attention of a public journal. I will endeavor to give the latest Telegraphic and other news, marthe treports, &c., and to keep my readers advised of every-thing of interest which transpires from time to time The Daily paper will be printed every morning, (Sundays excepted) on new and handsome type, and will contain twenty-four columns of reading matter. Price per annum

The Weekly Paper will be issued every Saturday morning at $2 per annum in advance. Advertisements will be inserted upon reasonable terms. ARCH'D. T. BANKS. December 20, 1859.

PROSPECTUS

THE STAR OF PREEDOM. BELIEVING THE PERIOD HAS ARRIVED IN the history of our great nation, when every freeman should shake off the fetters and tenets of sectarian bias, should shake off the fetters and tenets of sectarian bias, and in the face of policy and popular opinion—think, speak, act, and declaim without fear or reward, his principles upon any and every subject not inimical to the interests of the country. And believing furthermore, that the encroachments of iniquity, hype crisy, heresy, inidelity, superstition, humbuggery, priesteraft, with all their isms and unpatriotic devotion to the fundamental principles of our government, are fearfully on the increase, therefore, strong efforts should be put forth by the conservative portion of our country to uproot them, and return to the primitive landmarks of our fathers. We should have an honest Democratic Government—and bonest devotion to the church of God—that sectarian jealousies may be ignored, sociality restored, and the interest of one section be made the interests of all—so that, prosperity may spring up in the midst of adversity. To this end, the undersigned proposes to publish in the town of Wilson, N. Carolina, a weekly paper entitled "The Star of Freedom;" the first number to be issued on or about the 10th of May next, provided a sufficient number of subscribers be obtained to place the enterprise upon a firm basis. "The Star of Freedom" will be devoted to the advancement of the interests of the whole

Its columns will be open for free discussion of all sub-jects, when conducted upon gentlemanly principles. We will endeavor to make it a good, truthful, reliable, reada-ble family Journal—independent in all things—neutral in TERMS: Single copy per annum in advance, Two copies " " " Four " " " " Ten " " " $ 2 00 5 00 Twenty copies DR. J. J. LAWRENCE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. Wilson, N. C.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE HIGH POINT REPORTER. THE UNDERSIGNED PROPOSES TO PUBLISH AT High Point, N. C. a Weekly Newspaper under the above title, the first number to be issued about the 1st of January, 1860.

The character of the Reporter is designed to embrace these general features: 1st,—A refraining from all interference in party politics, merely noticing, without comment, political incidents as items of news: 2d,—A hearty support of the Industrial enterprises of the High Point resupport of the Industrial enterprises of the High Point region of North-Carolina, not as distinct from, but in connection with the progress of improvement throughout the State; 3d,—A correct report of domestic and foreign mar kets, together with such other matters relating to trade, freights, &c., as are likely to be of interest to those sections having business relations with this point of the NorthCarolina Railroad; 4th,—A due interspersion of news items, poetry, useful receipts, anecdotes, wit and humor, charades, enigmas, puzzles, whims, scraps and oddities, will be given to make the Reporter a welcome visitor to every fireside; but nothing shall be found in its columns that may call a blush to the cheek of modesty, or a frown to the brow of religion or morality. TERMS:

The Reporter will be printed on paper of medium size with fair type, and furnished to subscribers at $2 per annum, strictly in advance. JAMES H. MOORE. NEW BOOKS.
