LAND FOR SALE.

ACRES OF LAND, SITUATED OR LYING on both sides of the road leading from Greenville to Newbern, and just three miles from Greenville. The tract contains 417 acres of land, about 200 acres is eared, part of it is now grown up in pine bushes for the lack of force to cultivate it. About 45 or 50 acres of it is rich swamp, and can be v rv easily crained. On one of the swamps Mr. Wiley Bell and Mr William Brooks have cleared some 4 or 5 acres next to us of their part of the swamp, which brings from ten to twelve barrels of corn to the acre. Nearly all of the up land is of good clay foundation, the very sort of land to manure and improve upon. Manure that is put upon it amply shows for itself. A large por-tion of it is well adapted to cotton, and would be a value ble plantation if some man owned it who had force enough o improve it, and put it in a good state of cultivation. The land has a good dwelling house upon it, surrounded with a beautiful oak grove, a splendid well of pure water, and is a very pretty place to live at, &c. Said land has also an orchard of fine fruit trees.

Persons wishing to purchase land, would do well to look and examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere. I am determined to sed.

to other streets.
Also, Lots Nos. 5 and 7, on Market street, fronting 210 feet on Market street, and running back same width 200 feet to Railroad street.

The Hotel property is too well known throughout the Union to require an elaborate description. It is the best paying property in the Southern States, situated as it is, immediately at the large joint Passenger Depot of the four railroads now running and terminating here. The Nashville MARKET STREET WHARF, PHILAD'A., and Chattanooga, Memphis and Charleston, East Tennessee Mackerel, Shad, Salmon, Bine Fish, Herrings, Codfish, Beef, Pork, Lard, Shoulders, Bams, Sides, Cheese, Beans, Rice, &c. & Georgia and Western & Atlantic Railroads are now complete; and the Will's Valley & North East and South-West Alabama Railroad will be completed and terminated here in a year or two more. A great portion of the grading b ing now complete, and a portion of the iron having been purchased, over twenty miles of it will be laid and running this winter, and other contemplated Roads, among them the Road connecting Chattanoogs with Cincinnati (Chatta-Loogs & Kentucky Central.) The House has been doing a steady, heavy and increasing pusiness, without opposition, since October 1850, and its prospects for a continued in-Crease are very great.

Lots Nos. 59, 61 and 63, Chesnut street, and Lots Nos. 2 and 3. Carter street, are very valuable, being situated so Lots Nos. 5 and 7, Market street, are fine business Lots, being situated equi-distant between the business portion of town and river, and have now crected upon them two large and commodious brick Store Rooms admirably adapted to
