

THERE'S NO DEARTH OF KINDNESS.

BY GEORGE MASSEY. There's no dearth of kindness In this world of ours; Only in gathering thorns for flowers; Outward, we are spinning— Trampling one another— While we are only yearning For the same of "Brother."

There's no dearth of kindness, Or love among mankind; But in darkling loneliness, Hooded hearts grow blind; Full of kindness tugging, Soul is shut from soul, When they might be mingling In one kindred whole.

There's no dearth of kindness, Tho' it is unspoken, From the heart it buildeth; Rainbow-smiles in token, That there be none so lowly— But have some angel youth; Yet nursing love unlovely; We live for self too much!

As the wild rose bloweth, And in the breeze doth stir, Kindness freely floweth In the heart forever; Ever for golden dust, Kindest hearts will canker, Brightest spirits rust.

There's no dearth of kindness In this world of ours; Only in our blindness; We gather thorns for flowers! O'er each God's best giving, We bring from Him our curse; Life were not worth living, Were it not for Love.

A Ruse.—One of our Secretaries of State for the United States, struck out a good mode of getting rid of an intruder in a particular case. It appears that the doorkeeper of the Secretary's office was remarkably obliging, which proved quite the hindrance to a rabid office seeker, who managed to get in every day and pester the Secretary. When the annoyance had continued three or four days, the Secretary stepped up one morning to the doorkeeper and asked if he knew what that man came after daily.

"Yes," replied the functionary, "an office I suppose." "True, but do you know what office?" "Well, then, I'll tell you; he wants your place." The next morning the scene between the office-seeker and the polite door keeper is said to have been rich; but the peculiar manner in which the intruder was informed "the Secretary is not at home."

The new Spanish government has issued a circular to the Roman Catholic bishops of that country, in which it speaks to them as follows: "Let the reverend bishops freely fulfil one of the most unenviable duties imposed upon them by their high trust, which is that of addressing pastoral and exhortations to the faithful, whose spiritual care is committed to them; but let them limit themselves to the teaching of Christian doctrine and morality, taking care, very especially, not to mention, nor even to allude, directly or indirectly, to books, pamphlets, or newspapers, as well as avoiding the printing of any writing, or the publishing minister interpretation of the intentions of the prelates themselves, which can be only benign and pacific, because they exercise a ministry wholly of peace and meekness."

NO DANGER OF FOUNDERING.—The St. Louis (Mo.) Republican of the 7th instant, thus describes the effects of the long drought on the Western States: "We were credibly informed yesterday, that the boats navigating the Illinois river, at present, meet with some difficulty from the herds of cattle that browse about the channel. They do not call the lead any more, but a deck hand rolls his pantaloons up, and squatting down upon the guard of the boat, thrusts his leg for fire between the ordinary call of 'knee deep,' but it is not infrequently happens that 'half shin' or 'quarter less call' is sung out, and it is deemed proper to work the engines slow."

WHOLESALE MURDER AND SUICIDE.—By the late foreign arrivals, we have the following sanguinary item from Italy: "A military man was in love with a young lady, whom he could not obtain in marriage. Incensed at her refusal, he resolved on vengeance. Arming himself with four revolvers, he repaired to the mansion of the cruel father. The first person that appeared was her mother—he shot her; the next was her father—he shot him; then came the young lady herself—he shot her; then came the uncle and aunt—he shot them—and then he shot himself."

THE BYES.—There is a popular notion, sanctioned even by medical men, that the eyes are preserved by opening them every morning in a basin of cold water. Some of the worst cases of ophthalmia or film on the surface of the eye, have been witnessed on those who have boasted of this practice. When water gets into the windpipe, the nostrils, or the throat, the irritation is produced, and when the eyes open under the influence of the water, a secretion admirably adapted to facilitate the motions of the lid over its surface; and this secretion is partially soluble in water, it is as incoherent to wash it away as it is to remove the oil from the wheels of machinery.

KIDWELL'S COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF BEECH DROP.

Or, Cancer Root. CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR CANCER, ULCERATED SORE THROAT, WHITE SWELLING, BRONCHITIS, DROPSY, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM THE IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. Prepared by J. L. KIDWELL, Chemist, Georgetown, D. C.

The estimate that is now accorded this preparation by the medical profession and by others competent to judge of its merit, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated professor at the Edinburgh College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a case of an aggravated cancer.

Mr. Flint is a man of great influence in his country, and will with pleasure communicate with any one in reference to his case. JAMES DICK, Callaway County, Missouri, July 13th, 1854. Dear Sir—With great pleasure I inform you that your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency.
