

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

ALL HALLOW E'EN.—From prudential motives, we refrained from stating, in our last paper, that Wednesday night was what is called "All Hallow E'en"; for, on such occasions, juveniles find fun "in exorcising baneful spirits," in their own irritating manner, and annoying housekeepers by pounding lustily at their doors, pulling their bells, and in using cabbages (and other vegetables) for purposes to door-knobs, and indulging themselves in other diversions, not so agreeable to their victims as to themselves! We feared that a prior announcement of the event would remind many of the youngsters of an event which has, from time immemorial, been seized upon by their predecessors for purposes of sport. However, we miscalculated; the little rascals were as well posted as ourselves, and accordingly celebrated "All Hallow E'en" according to the ancient methods.

But the sport of some of them was not all on their own part. A party having almost pulled away a bell-handle by their desperate ringing, and then ran off to enjoy a hearty laugh, returned to repeat that interesting performance. In the interval, a young lady hastened to an upper window, provided with a pail of water, and so soon as the city rule took hold of the bell-knob, to give it another strong tug, she was disagreeably surprised by a shower-bath of water from an aforesaid window! The boys scampered off in double-quick time, "guffawing" at the recipient of the aqueous honor!

Again: A crowd of boys on the same street put themselves to the trouble of conveying a heavy plank to a dwelling-house, intending to set it on fire. The plank would fall into the passage, and thus occasion an extraordinary alarm—a big noise. But the gentleman of the house, overhearing the discussion of their plan, stationed himself in an alley, and at the most critical moment of their performance he stepped out and seized the ringleader by the collar. His companions fled to the music of their captive fellow—in other words, his screams at imprecations for mercy. The citizens released his prisoner after hinting to him that if he and his party should repeat their sport they might, probably, be accommodated with lodging at the guard-house.

Hallow E'en in old times especially, afforded an occasion for lovers to "try their sweethearts"; but in these latter days, we are informed, the Germans in Pennsylvania then cut their cabbage for sauer-kraut! There may be tender-hearted readers who may think that the mention of the two subjects in one paragraph is a gross association of ideas!

THE MARYLAND BAPTIST UNION ASSOCIATION assembled at the Second Baptist Church, Baltimore, yesterday morning.

The meeting was opened by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Boston, after which letters were read from some thirty churches, including the District of Columbia, showing the church generally to be in a healthy condition.

The Association elected J. W. M. Williams as Moderator, and A. Fuller Clerical clerk.

It appears from the published proceedings, that Mr. Richards, of the committee appointed to visit the Columbia College at the last meeting of the Association, presented a report stating that the institution is in a flourishing condition. There are now sixty-four scholars in the college department, and eighteen in the preparatory department, a larger number than at any other time. The report is accompanied by resolutions looking to an increase of the endowment to $100,000, and appointing the 31st of February to be observed as a day of fasting and prayer.

We notice, among the names of the delegates, those of the Rev. G. W. Samson and A. Rutwell, esq., of this city.

"FIRE!" "FIRE-R-R!"—This was the starting cry which, at ten o'clock, on Wednesday morning, at the ding-dong of the bells, and soon the "machines" were heard rattling in the streets, with vociferations of "Away with her!" "Pull away, boys!" and such like exclamations. Merchants and their clerks rushed to their doors, while not a few people, hastening to the middle of the Avenue, strained their eyes to ascertain the precise direction of the fire. "Where is it?" asked a score of individuals in the same breath, and the reply came naturally "I don't know." So the crowds leisurely withdrew, the alarms of both voices and bells ceased, and the "Perse," which had been hailed as far westward as the Kirkwood House, was turned round, and thirty or more boys returned with "her" to the engine-house.

While we admired the promptitude of responding to the alarm, which was false, we were glad that no one lost his property by the agency of fire. As it was, the occurrence afforded us material for a paragraph, although we are not prepared to say that the originators of the innocent disturbance, aware of the scarcity of items, projected it merely as a matter for our especial accommodation.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—A large audience was attracted to this establishment last night to witness the performance of the tragic play of "Camille," as translated by Miss Heron, from the French of Alexandre Dumas; that lady sustaining the principal character. She exhibited throughout a proper conception of the part which she personated, and displayed talents of a high dramatic order. "Camille" represents features of abandon in fashionable Parisian, but not what we of this country would consider virtuous life. The scenic displays are not, on this account, the less attractive to every spectator. Mr. J. B. Howe as Armand, and Mr. W. H. Briggs as Gaston, played with particular success, and with close and judicious representation, acted well their parts, while the other members of the corps creditably contributed to the interest of the occasion. Mrs. Bellamy well sustained the character of Prudence, as also did the other ladies in the piece; the singing of Miss Kenable being particularly enjoyed.

NOVELTIES.—On Saturday evening the public will be gratified with the sight of a wonder, at the hall on the northeast corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and Eleventh Street; then Colonel Wood will exhibit the bearded woman, whose hideous appendage has not only been a marvel, but an object of envy to many a youth of the opposite sex, in other cities. Her infant son, too, is similarly provided with a formidable hairy adornment. The Swiss Warbler will give "a touch" of his musical powers on the interesting occasion.

THE AFFLICTED.—A correspondent of the Intelligence justly and humanely observes that it should "not be forgotten that our poor afflicted sisters, Norfolk and Portsmouth, will require a sister hand for the winter after the Angel of Death has wholly departed. Therefore let the rich, always the sinners of God, (whether they will or will not), contribute of their store. Poverty is there; winter is approaching; a thousand difficulties and discomforts will have to be encountered."

SERIOUS COINS.—A New York paper says: "Spurious half dollars of the date of 1823, and brass ninetees crossed to represent ten pieces, are now much in vogue, and being well got up and plated, are calculated to deceive."

As some of them may find their way hither, it would well for our citizens to be on the lookout.

COURT OF CLAIMS.—Yesterday Jno. G. Hickman, of Mayville, Kentucky, was appointed a commissioner to take testimony.

George D. Kellogg was sworn an attorney. Mr. Sherman resumed his argument in the case of Letitia Humphreys, and had not concluded when the court adjourned.

COMPLAINTS.—Some of the patrons of the drama have complained to us that their pleasure at the National Theatre is frequently marred by the inconsiderate behavior of certain young men, who not only talk loudly during the performance, but "sky-lark" in the lobby.

THE POTOMAC ASSOCIATION propose giving a concert, and offer as prizes to the fire company which shall sell the largest number of tickets, a pair of splendid silver torches, which are in the process of manufacture by Galt & Brother.

GUARD HOUSE.—Last night, two women, a man, and a child, came in for lodgings, and were accommodated with the best beds—benches—the establishment affords.

A poor unfortunate man, who had overbalanced himself by over-draughts of whisky, was assigned for lying in the street, and required to pay a small fine as a penalty for his indiscretion.

ALEXANDRIA CORRESPONDENCE.

ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 1, 1855.

Last night about 11 o'clock the frame building on Pitt street, near King, owned by James M. Stewart, and occupied by a free colored man named Smith, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm quickly gathered the firemen, who, though too late to save the house, preserved the surrounding buildings from serious damage. An hour or later the alarm was renewed in consequence of the half-burnt materials flaming up again. This fire was extinguished without trouble, and once more our city sank to slumber. The building was uninsured, and is worth probably $600. The occupant—a very worthy man—loses all his furniture, &c., valued at $500. The fire is attributed to an incendiary.

The Friends Reunited Society, and the Young Men's Christian Association, intend uniting in a fair for the benefit of the city poor, and are now engaged in the preliminary arrangements.

Last night, a Know Nothing mass meeting came off at American Hall.

The fair for the benefit of our energetic friends of the Friendship Fire Company opens next Monday at Sarsaparilla Hall, and our people, we are sure, will not be behindhand in patronizing a company which deserves all the aid of the public for its public spirit and efficiency.

GOING TO RUSSIA.—We learned yesterday from Charles A. Leas, late Health Commissioner of this city, that he will leave Baltimore to-day for New York, en route for St. Petersburg, by the steamer Hermann, on Saturday next. Dr. L. has many warm and strong friends among his fellow citizens whose good wishes for his health and prosperity will go with him. We understand he goes to the city of the Czar under the most favorable auspices, and we are satisfied that go where he may he will reflect great credit upon himself and his country.—Balt. American of this morning.

PLUCK TO THE BACK BONE.—When the news of the taking of Sebastopol was received in our city, some daring fellow, during the following night, was seen to go around the consulate justifying our friend John, the Russian consul, and the next morning, when the consul discovered it, he tore the emblem of mourning off, and writing on a sheet of paper, "I can whip the cowardly Briton who hung the crane on my sign," posted it up where the crane had been. It is needless to say no one fathered the mountebank.—N. O. Delta.

ACCIDENT AT A FUNERAL.—At the funeral of Mr. Ireson, at Long Mass, on Monday, the entry door fell through, precipitating some twelve ladies into the cellar. No one was seriously injured. The house was built one hundred and thirty years ago, and Mr. Ireson had resided in the same house eighty-six years.

WHOLESALE EXECUTIONS.—Recent accounts from Canton say the execution of the rebels had been going on for some time, at the rate of seven and eight hundred a day. As many as ten thousand had been got rid of. Several were skinned alive, and one higher criminal than the rest was cut in twenty-four pieces—lingering, dying.

GRAIN FOR ENGLAND.—It is stated in the New York Herald that a remittance of $10,000 in gold was received by the Africa, to be employed in grain purchases in this country for shipment to England. This is a significant fact.

THE INDIANS regard a thin husk on corn as an indication of a mild winter. This being true, the one just approaching will be of the gentle kind, as the husks are said to be very thin.

FROM UTAH.—The news states that on the 29th of August millions of grasshoppers descended on the settlements north of Utah county, destroying everything green in their way.

THE EDITOR of the Eddyville (Iowa) Free Press boasts of a lady of that place under twenty-one years of age, has been the mother of seven children.

Hon. Edson B. Olds has been extremely ill, and his residence in Ohio, from which, a recent letter says, he was slowly recovering.

An ignorant man from the country inquires whether mock turtle soup is made out of tortoise shell or not.

Dr. Curtis's Inhalant Vapor.—Dr. JOHNS, one of the most celebrated physicians in New York writes as follows:

Dr. CURTIS—Dear Sir: Having witnessed the "cure of the case of HENRY G. G. H. HALING HYGEAN VAPOR AND CHERY SYRUP, in a case of Chronic Bronchitis, and being much in favor of counter irritation in affections of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, I can therefore cheerfully recommend your Inhalant Apparatus, as being the most convenient and effective mode of applying anything of the kind I have ever seen. No doubt thousands of persons are cured, relieved, and many cured, by using your remedies.

You are at liberty to use this in any way you may think proper. Respectfully, yours, &c.,

Dr. C. JOHNS, M.D., No. 609 Houston Street, New York.

CAUTION.—Dr. Curtis's Hygean is the original and only genuine article.

As the Season approaches for Gentlemen to replenish their Wardrobes, we would advise those who want of fashionable articles of dress to visit the Maria Hall Clothing Emporium of N. O. H. WALKER & CO., Broadway Hotel, corner of Broadway and Broadway, who have just received a new and fashionable for Gentlemen and Youth's wear, in Ready made Clothing and Furnishing Goods.

Dr. Hoodland's celebrated German Bitters.—The condition of the stomach is of vital importance. No man, woman or child can be healthy who has a weak or diseased stomach. It is thoroughly and vigorously purged, and the fourth of civilized society this is not the case. And yet the remedy is within the reach of all. HOODLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, will surely create a regular and healthy action of the stomach as well as lessen the friction of machinery. Let the victim of dyspepsia or indigestion in any of its forms, try it, and we guarantee a good appetite, physical vigor, and a peaceful sleep by night, and increased cheerfulness by day.
