ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Enemy's Attack on our Trains-Their Discomfiture after a Severe Engagement-Number of Killed and Wounded. HEADQUARTERS, May 20-6 a. m .- The attack on our flank last night was for the purpose of seizing our trains and causing a stampede. It was partially successful; but as soon as troops reached the scene the enemy were driven off, after a severe engagement. The forces engaged on our side were a portion of the second corps, consisting principally of the new tr ops that have just arrived, among them the 7th New York artillery, 1st Maine, and a Massachu. setts regiment. Our loss was about 500 killed and wounded, some say 1,000. Most of the men fought well, although there were some exception. The enemy had possession of a portion of the trains, but before they got them off they were retaken. The rebel force consisted of Hood's division of Ewell's corps. We took about 300 prisoners. This was the only fighting done yesterday.

Another Letter. [Correspondence of the Associated Press.] HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Mar. 19 .- A chaplain come in yesterday from the hospital of the 2d corps, at the Wilderness battle-field, and reported that over four hundred wounded belonging to that corps were still in hospital there, and that they were entirely out of provisions, besides having no medical supplies whatever. Representations of the facts were made to the commanders, and to-day it is reported they will be brought in. It is said that Lee will not recognize a flag of truce unless it emanates from Grant, as he considers him the commander of the army. The report of a large number of wagons having been captured by guerr llas turns out to be incorrect, arising from the circumstance that over sixty wagons loaded with supplies had disappeared, but it was found that they had gone toward Washington in company with artillery sent thither. The mistake caused a good deal of anxiety here, as the supplies were wanted at the front.

The Sanitary Commission are now doing a good work among the wounded, although they were much at fault during the first. The organization had proved a valuable auxiliary to the medical department. An attack was made last evening on our right flank by the enemy, but Warren's corps met and drove them back. The attack caused some interruption to the transportation on the road, and teams returned to Fredericksburg on the double quick, but none were captured, as it was reported. It is useless for friends to come to the front time to procure the bodies of those who have fallen in battle. The request is denied in all cases. All are carefully buried, and their names pieced upon a board, so that friends can find them after the army has advanced.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Gen. Lee Congratulates his Troops-The Battle between Sigel and Breckinridge-Jenkins not Killed. The Richmond Enquirer of Thursday contains the following: Lee's Address to his Troops. We must refer to the letter of our correspondent for the latest items from Gen. Lee's army. It will be seen that nothing of serious importance has transpired since the great battle of Thursday last, except, perhaps, the movement of the enemy upon Massaponax church, al-ready announced by Gen. Lee, and the meaning of which will soon be developed. Gen. Lee has issued a most encouraging series of congratulatory orders to his army, which will be found in the letters alluded to: The following orders has been issued in Heth's division: GENERAL ORDERS-NO. -HEADQUARTERS, HETH'S DIVISION, May 11.

I am requested by Gen. Lee and Lieut. Gen. Hill to express to this division their satisfaction at its gallant conduct in attacking and carrying the enemy's line of entrenchments on the 10th inst. Words are inadequate to express to the division my admiration for all its gallant deeds since the 6th inst. Much is yet to be done, and I know from the past that all these brave men can do will be accomplished. H. HETH, Major General.

ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA, May 15.—
The tollowing general order of Gen. Lee, modest as it is chaste and beautiful, has just been published to and received with enthusiasm by the army: GENERAL ORDERS-NO. 41.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA, May 14.—First—The General commanding takes great pleasure in announcing to the army the series of successes that, by the favor of God, have recently been achieved by our arms. ber of wagons. Some of the most formidable gurbosis that accompanied the expedition were destroyed to save them from capture.
Fifth—The expedition of Gen. Steele into Western Arkensas has ended in a complete disaster. Northern journals of the loth instant announce his surrender, with anarmy of 8,000 Sixth-The cavalry force sent by General Grant to attack Richmond has been repulsed and retired towards the Peninsula. Every demonstration of the enemy south of James River has, up to this time, been successfully Seventh—The heroic valor of this army, with the blessing of the Almighty God, has thus far checked the principal army of the enemy, and inflicted upon it heavy losses. The eyes and hearts of your countrymen are turned to you with confidence, and their prayers attend you in your gallant struggle. Encouraged by the success that has been vouchsafed to us, and stimulated by the great interests that depend upon the issue, let every man resolve to endure all and brave all, until, by the assistance ot a just and mercitul God, the enemy shall be driver, back, and peace secured to our country. Continue to enulate the value of the comrades that have fallen; and remember that it depends upon you whether they shall have died in tain. It is in your power, under God, to deiish the independence of your native land, and earn the lasting love and gratitude of your countrymen and the admiration of mankind.

About three o'clock p. m. yesterday a short and sharp fight occurred on the enemy's ex treme left wing, lasting about fifteen minutes, with heavy and incessant musketry and cannonading. The firing occurred while a charge was being made by Wright's, supported by Harris' brigade, on a hill about half a mile in our front, which it was desirable to obtain for a purpose.

At the given word of command Wright's brigade charged across the intervening space, ascended the hill, and drove the enemy from their breastworks under a most severe fire. While the brigade occupied the works, which were held sufficiently long for the object of their capture, it was subjected to a rapid shelling by the enemy, after which the order was given and the brigade withdrew to the line which they had previously occupied.

General A. R. Wright being unable to take the field by reason of a severe attack of rheumatism, the brigade was commanded by Colonel Hall, of the Third Georgia Regiment. Seventy five prisoners and three stands of colors were captured from the enemy and brought off. The killed and wounded were considerable, but we have no means of ascertaining the number. Our loss was a hundred and sixty-one, twenty-one of whom were

The Battle between Sigel and Breckinridge. On Friday last, at six a. m., Major General Breckinridge moved from Staunton down the valley to Newmarket. On Sunday following he engaged Sigel three miles above Newmarket, and by Sunday evening at seven o'clock had defeated and driven him beyond the Shenan-doah river, six miles from Newmarket, having marched forty-nine miles, fought, defeated and routed the enemy, numbering from seven to ten thousand, in two days and a half. This simple statement will show our readers that celerity of movement, as well as vigor of action, did not desert our cause when Stonewall Jackson

He was shot through the left side of the abdomen, and while seriously, is not dangerously wounded. He was not cap-tured by the enemy, but is, we learn, within our lines and doing weil.
