West: A Lieutenant of the 10th United States infantry recently met with a sad rebuff at Fort Kearney. The Lieutenant was promenading in full uniform one day, and approached a volunteer on sentry, who challenged him with "Halt! who comes there?" The Lieutenant, with contempt in every lineament of his face, exclaimed indignantly, "Ass!" The sentry's reply, apt and quick. came, "Advance, "Ass, and give the countersign!"

The Richmond papers give a list o twenty-five men, all Italians but two, who "threw down their arms in the presence of the enemy, at the fight on the Brooke Turnpike, and refused to fight in the cause of liberty and the Southern Confederacy." They were placed under arrest and lodged in Castle Thunder.

PROPOSALS.

A NTHRACITE COAL FOR THE NAVY.

NAVY DEPARTMENT. BUREAU OF EQUIPMENT AND RECRUITING.

May 24, 1864.

Sealed Proposals for furnishing Anthracite Coal for the Navy, to be delivered during the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1865, will be received at this Bureau until 10 a. m., 18th June, 1864.

These proposals must be endorsed, "Proposals for Anthracite Coal for Steamers," that they may be distinguished from other business letters.

The offer must be for the delivery of 100 metors. The offer must be for the delivery of 100,000 tons,

The coal must be of the best Buck Mountain or Black Heath, or of a kind equal to them in all respects, for the purpose intended, which equality will be determined by a Board appointed by the Secretary of the Navy after the reception of the The name of the coal proposed to be furnished must be stated in the offer.

It is to be delivered in lumps of suitable size for

It is to be delivered in lumps of suitable size for naval steamers—clean, of uniform quality, selected free from impurities, unmixed—of which the contractor will be required to furnish such evidence as will be satisfactory, and be subject to such inspection as to quality and quantity as the Department may girect. The coal must in all respects be satisfactory to the inspector or inspectors, to be appointed by the Bureau, who will have the right of peremptory rejection.

The coal is to be delivered on board vessels, at such place in the port of Philadelphia as may be designated by the Bureau, and in such quantities and at such times as, in the opinion of the Bureau, the exigencies of the service may require; commencing when the vesselis reported ready to receive cargo; furnishing, if demanded, not less than 1,00 tons per day, to be distributed to each vessel, as may be directed, until the loading is completed.

Proposals will likewise be received for the deliging the deliging the service of the deliging the proposals will likewise be received for the deliging the service of the service o

Proposals will likewise be received for the delivery of 30.000 tons of the same quality of coal, to be delivered in the port of New York, on board vessels, as at Philadelphia.

In the case offailare to deliver the coal in proper quantity, of the proper quality, and at the proper time and place, the Bureau will reserve in the contract the right to purchase forthwith, at the contractor's risk and expense, that which may seem necessary to supply the deficiency.

Any demurrage, or other charges to which the Navy Department may be subjected from delay in the prompt delivery of the coal by the contractors, will be deducted from their bills.

The price must be for the coal delivered on board vessels, on the terms and conditions above stated, at the contractor's risk and expense, and Proposals will likewise be received for the deliv-stated, at the contractor's risk and expense, and without extra charge of any kind.

The offer, as required by law, must be accomparied by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into obligation, at such time as may be prescribed by the Bureau, withgood and sufficient sureties, to furnish the supplies proposed proposed

No proposition will be considered unless accompanied by such guarantee: and the Department reserves the right to reject all the offers, if considered to be to the interest of the service to do so. Two or more sureties each in a sum equal to the amount specified to be paid, will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility will be certified by a United States District Judge, United States District Attorney, Collector, or Navy

As additional and collateral security—twenty per cent. will be withheld from the amount of all payments, which reservation is not to be paid except by authority of the Secretary of the Navy, until the contract shall have been in all respects complied with; and the remaining eighty per cent. or other amount that may be due upon each bill, will, when a proper certificate is furnished by the inspector, and the bill approved by the Bureau, be paid by such navy agents as the contractor may name, within ten days after the warrants for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

It will be stipulated in the contract that if default be made in the delivery of the coal—in the quantity, or the quality, and at the place and time directed by the Bureau—then, and in that case, the contractor and his sureties will forfeit and pay to the United States, as liquidated damages, a sum of money not exceeding twice the contract price, which may be recovered from time to time, according to the act or acts of Congress in that case provided. same shall have been passed by the Secretary of

Bidders whose proposals shall be accepted, and none other, will be notified, and, as early as practicable, a contract will be transmitted to them, which they will be required to execute within ten days after its receipt at the Post Office or navy agency named by them.
