IMPORTANT FROM THE FRONT.

More Fighting in Front of Petersburg on Saturday—Grant Constantly Gaining Ground on the Enemy—He Captures a Piece of Artillery on Saturday—The Advantages Gained Over the Enemy on that Day to be Vigorously Pressed.

BERMUDA HUNDRED, June 19 (via Baltimore, June 21).—There was fighting in front of Petersburg yesterday, up to two o'clock, without any decisive results, but our troops have been constantly gaining ground upon the enemy. Another piece of artillery captured from the enemy was brought into Gen. Grant's headquarters yesterday.

It is understood that the advantage gained on the enemy yesterday will be vigorously followed up to-day. Decisive results are expected soon.

General Gillmore and staff left for Old Point, on the steamer Wyoming last night. The General has been relieved of his command.

Everything is moving very satisfactorily with the army.

BERMUDA HUNDRED, June 20.—Sunday, the 19th, was comparatively quiet with the army about Petersburg, the operations of the day being confined to reconnaissances, slight skirmishes, and some sharp shooting along the line, which now extends some distance beyond Petersburg, up the Appomattox river.

Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler went up the James river yesterday and had an interview with Admiral Lee.

MOSEBY ON A NORTHERN RAID. He crosses the Potomac—Rebels Reported in Large Force—They Occupy the Town of Winchester.

[Dispatch to Philadelphia Inquirer.]

Hagerstown, Md., Monday Morning, June 20.—During last night a rebel cavalry force of some two thousand crossed the Potomac (which is now very low) some two or three miles below Fall Church Waters. The force which trailed them through Thoroughfare Gap says the remainder, a large force, are near Winchester, which place has been in rebel hands two or three days.

No damage has yet been done to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the telegraph, but the scout says they have the telegraph tapped between here and Martinsburg, and so Gen. Sigel does not use it. They will destroy the command in so many days.

For reasons, the enemy is keeping as quiet as possible at present. The force is headed by Mosely, who seems to be aiming only to secure a fresh supply of provisions.

The news of the invasion just begins to be whispered in this place. Some persons, who became acquainted with Mosely while he acted as provost marshal during the Gettysburg battle, seem quite willing to welcome the rebel general, and quote the greatest contumacious preavils.

Official War Bulletin.

The assaults on Petersburg—No further Fighting Reported—Despatch from Gen. Grant, June 20, 1864.

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1864. To Major General Dix, New York: No operations to-day on the James river have been reported to the Department. Unofficial statements represent our loss to have been severe in the assaults on the enemy's works on Saturday, but no official list of the casualties has been received.

General Sherman, in a despatch dated this evening at 7:30 p. m., says: "I was premature in saying that the enemy had abandoned his position. I based my report on that of all the army commanders. The enemy has thrown back all the batteries and all his works in front of the Kenosaw Mountain, but holds that mountain as the apex of his position. His tanks are behind Noonday and Moses Creeks. I have pressed him pretty close to-day, although the Kenosaw makes all movements almost an impossibility."

General Foster, commanding the Department of the South, at Hilton Head, forwards the following despatch, dated the 16th of June, at Hilton Head, S. C.:

"I have the honor to report that I have today received from Major General Samuel Jones, commanding the rebel forces in this district, a letter stating that 8,000 general officers of the United States, as prisoners of war, had been placed in Charleston, to be retained there under our fire. Against this wicked and cruel act I have protested.

"In a meeting the fire of this city is continued. I have placed that an equal number of rebel officers of equal rank may be sent to me in order that I may place them under the same fire as long as our officers are exposed in Charleston."

This Department has issued a retaliatory order transferring to General Foster an equal number of rebel general officers, to be treated in the same manner as long as our officers are exposed in Charleston.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

FROM CITY POINT—FIRST ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED FROM THAT PLACE. Three hundred and seventy-two wounded, including sixty-one officers, arrived here yesterday evening from City Point on board of the hospital steamer George Leary, which left that place at 6 o'clock on Sunday.

It is interesting to be heard at City Point during Saturday and Sunday from the direction of Petersburg. Our forces at that time were not in possession of the town, but were within easy shelling range.

The rebels had a very close range near the town, and it would be a useless sacrifice of life to attempt to hold the place, as the rebels, unless disclosed, would be able to throw shells in the midst of any force occupying the town.

The rebels were not to be driven from the town, and it would be a useless sacrifice of life to attempt to hold the place, as the rebels, unless disclosed, would be able to throw shells in the midst of any force occupying the town.

Hospital tents have been erected at City Point for the accommodation of our wounded, but they are coming in in such numbers that it is almost impossible to provide them all with shelter. The wounded now being brought in from the front are more serious cases than any since the beginning of Grant's campaign.

The floating hospital New World (the machinery of which has been removed) had arrived at City Point on Monday. It would take on a load of wounded, but her destination was unknown.

On Friday last about 400 rebel prisoners were sent from City Point to Lookout. The rebels were assigned to duty as Chief Quartermaster, with headquarters at City Point.

The wounded brought up on the George Leary, were all wounded in the battles before Petersburg, among whom were the following officers:—Colonel E. G. Carball, 14th Ohio, wounded in hip; Col. D. Fox, 27th Mich., in right arm; Col. C. H. Haycock, 9th N. H., in right arm; Lieut. Col. J. H. W. Smith, 2d N. Y. Mounted Rifles; Capt. A. Taylor, 24th N. Y. cavalry; Capt. O. Martin, same regiment.

The steamer Empire has arrived this morning before daylight, with about four hundred wounded, including a large number of officers. Some of these wounded were very serious cases, and they all come from City Point.

SECOND EDITION.

4 O'LOOK P. M.

LATEST FROM THE FRONT. Heavy Firing heard Yesterday in the direction of Petersburg—The Rebels fail to Comply with a demand to Surrender the town, and it is shelled—Steamer Winan sent into by the Rebels on James River. The small steamer Keyport, which left City Point at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, arrived here at an early hour this morning.

She reports heavy cannonading heard there at that hour from the direction south of Petersburg.

Parties who came in from the front to City Point state that the rebels having failed to comply with a demand from Gen. Grant to surrender the town, our forces began to throw shells into the city on Saturday afternoon.

On Friday evening, as the steamer Winans was passing Wilcox Landing, on the James river, she was fired into by a rebel battery from the north side of the river, one shot passing entirely through the boat, near the rudder. One man was killed, and another wounded. The rebel gun was stationed in the vicinity returned the fire, but with what effect is not known.

Dr. Epey's house, near City Point, is occupied by Gen. Grant as his headquarters. On Saturday evening Gen. Butler visited Gen. Grant at his headquarters and spent several hours in conversation with him.

Six pieces of cannon, which were captured from the rebels in the vicinity of Petersburg, have been brought down to City Point. The rebels must have defended these pieces with much desperation, as they were literally covered with blood.

A large force of laborers are busily engaged in building wharves at City Point. Our wounded continue to be brought in from the front in considerable numbers. The ambulances bring in the serious cases, while many others are sent to the hospital.

The hospital steamer Connecticut, has gone to Annapolis with a load of wounded.

The rebels have adopted a new plan of surprising and capturing our out-posts. They advance on the line, and when they are within a trail, indicating a surrender, but when within a few yards of our men they recover arms and fire.

The day last week they practiced this game, and succeeded in wounding and capturing about sixty men. They generally select North Carolina troops to play this "dodge," as it is well known among the North Carolinians to have been their line of attack. On the day of their successful attempt they again tried, as our troops fired upon them, when they immediately returned the fire.

The hospital steamer Wenonah arrived here to-day at 11 o'clock, having on board five hundred and five wounded, six of whom were officers. The steamer brings no news. The wounded brought on board are of very slight cases, and the majority of them walked in from the battle-field to City Point.

FURTHER FROM GRANT'S ARMY. An Attack on Our Center Repulsed—A Heavy Artillery Regiment Captured—Beauregard and Lee Claim Extravagant Victories.

Information from the Army of the Potomac, received this morning, is to the effect that there was quiet all day Sunday, with the exception of firing at intervals along the line. Both armies seemed disposed to rest after their recent severe contest.

An attack was made on the centre of our line, which was quickly repulsed, and a regiment of North Carolina troops (perhaps one hundred and thirty-one) captured.

A heavy artillery regiment, captured by the rebels, was sent to our lines, but the enemy refused to receive it. A negro was hanged yesterday morning for an attempt to commit a rape.

General Beauregard and Lee, in despatches to Jeff Davis, claim extravagant victories over our troops.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN. The President and his youngest son left the city yesterday afternoon on the Ordnance steamer Baltimore, to pay a trip to Grant, it is reported, and see how affairs are progressing on James River.

BURNING OF THE WHARF AT AQUA CREEK. On Saturday last, a large band of guerrillas made their appearance at Aqua Creek, and set fire to the lower wharf, when the gunboats Coeur de Lion, Primrose and Leslie opened fire on the traitors on the shore. The crews of the Primrose and Coeur de Lion were sent ashore and endeavored to stop the destruction; but on the Ella passing that place yesterday morning, the wharf was still burning.

GENERAL GILLMORE. This officer, who has been relieved, and ordered to report at Washington to await further orders, arrived here last night at 12 o'clock, on board the dispatch steamer Lady Lincoln.

OFFICERS DISMISSED THE SERVICE. The following officers have been ordered to tender their resignations, on frivolous pretences, and for insufficient cause, whilst their commands were in front of the enemy, President Lincoln has directed that they be dishonorably dismissed from the service.

First Lieutenant Robert M. Calby, 31th New York cavalry; Captain George W. Field, 59th Massachusetts volunteers; First Lieutenant Andrew J. Whaley, 24th New York cavalry; Captain W. W. Jones, 10th New York cavalry; Captain John Ordley, 10th New York cavalry; Captain William E. Morris, 1st Connecticut cavalry; Second Lieut. Edward M. Schmidt, 25th New York infantry; and Lieut. Albert M. Bruce, 20th New York cavalry.

DEATH OF A BRAVE OFFICER. Captain Wm. S. Schuyler, 155th New York, died on the 17th inst., in this city, lying west of Second street, of the effects of a wound from a gun shot wound in the knee, received on the 3d of June in front of Richmond, while rallying his men. Capt. S. was a man of fine social qualities, brave as an officer, loved by his soldiers, and respected by his superiors. He was from Saratoga, N. Y.

THE 13TH INDIANA REGIMENT. This regiment, commanded by Colonel O. D. Frost, which were the first to break from the front, their term of service having expired. This regiment has seen hard service, having been through all the campaigns in Virginia. It came out with over seven hundred men, and returns with two hundred and fifteen.

COMMITTED TO THE OLD CAPITOL. W. C. Dunlop, of Wilmington, Del., (said to be a defuncting Government contractor) arrested by New York police, and committed to the Old Capitol, here this morning in custody of a detective, and was committed to the Old Capitol.

From Hudson Taylor, 23
