THE STORY OF BARBARA FREITCHE.

Her Name Was Mrs. Mary Quantrell, so It is Claimed. How the story of Barbara Freitche, which the poet Whittier has so beautifully told, originated, was explained by Mrs. Southworth, the novelist, the other day to a STAR reporter.

The good poet Whittier is dead, but long will live the poem of "Barbara Freitche," and why not have a correct version of it, so the public may still admire the beautiful rhythm which is recorded long since upon the leaves of fiction as for Mrs. Freitche's materialism is concerned.

In the first place, Stowell Jackson never was in the city of Frederick during the war; he is a man who is now in the hospital at Frederick, Md., who was a man in the hospital at Frederick, Md., who was a man in the hospital at Frederick, Md.

It is contemplated to organize a school of instruction for the non-commissioned officers of the sixth battalion this fall. Adj. Warren and First Lieut. Dunn have this matter in charge and propose to make the course a very thorough one.

Lieut. George A. Warren, adjutant third battalion, has received the following letter from Representative Henderson of Iowa, for whom they were named: "I am in receipt of your kind letter of the 23rd instant advising me of the action taken by the guard in naming their company after me."

It is a pity that the poet Whittier should have written a story which is so full of errors and which is so full of errors and which is so full of errors and which is so full of errors.

George P. Tennyson, 1720 34th street northwest on Saturday fell from his bicycle at Scott Circle and immediately expired. He was taken to the residence of Wm. Richards, 1527 Rhode Island avenue, and the coroner summoned, who gave a certificate of death from heart disease.

Killed on the Rail. An unknown white man was killed on the railroad at Woodside, Montgomery county, Md., Thursday night, September 8. He had been at the residence of Wm. Richards, 1527 Rhode Island avenue, and the coroner summoned, who gave a certificate of death from heart disease.

Another correspondent writes: Whittier's death should have caused to be brought forth something more noble, more beautiful of his works than the so-called true poem on Barbara Freitche. Tradition lends verity to history and this story will go down to posterity as a historical fact.
