

THE EVENING STAR.

WASHINGTON, February 2, 1893.

WEDNESDAY, February 2, 1893.

Editor, CROSBY & BOWEN.

THE EVENING STAR has a regular and permanent circulation of 100,000 copies...

Write the approach of springtime comes a renewal of the fear that cholera may soon be epidemic within the United States.

The bright journalist who locates the Naval Observatory on Georgetown Heights across the Potomac from Washington...

If John Sargent Wise and Wilson Randolph should ever decide to engage in hostilities Derouette and Clemenceau would be forced to the conclusion that duelling in Europe is a lost art.

The gluttonous goat will hail with intense satisfaction a revivification of the crinoline.

Today the ground hog is boss of the entire menagerie.

"I seem to be on dangerous ground," said the man who was caught by an earthquake.

A telephone patent is needed as yet, so that mortals who now dwell in fear may elude the young lady who gets in a pet and defiantly rings in your ear.

"Cholly Higgins has complete self-possession, hasn't he?" she remarked.

Uncle Jerry Risk might have sent his name thence down to posterity if he had devoted some of his administration to training ground hogs to carry parcels.

"Sometimes," said Uncle Eben, who had been sitting in thoughtful silence for a long time.

"What folks call philosophy am only do 'bility to bear pain without lettin' on."

The car horse old and weary went a toiling up the hill, he saw the cable broken and the motor standing still.

And he murmured as he braced his feet and gave a little yawn, "My trotter, though not rapid, is to be depended on."

He was very shabby, very red-nosed, but very confident and cheerful.

"Are youse de charitable gent dat superintends leavin' little sars around wid slots in 'em ter get collections fur de poor?"

"Well, I f'gotten I'd come 'round an' tell yer dat I'm ready fur de key."

England's Example. The English protest, if any, against the action of the American minister at Hawaii ought to be civilly received, fairly considered and filed for future reference.

For a year past the Columbia Street Railway Company has been looking for a suitable rapid transit motor and after the most exhaustive inquiry...

It is rumored that the Philadelphia will make the price of the about as usual next summer, and one of them is reported saying, "If your heart bleeds as mine does for the poor men who have to work on the ice ponds where the mercury is about as good as dead."

Query for the Superstitious. The present is Victoria's thirteenth parliament. For whom is it an unlucky number?

England may lodge a protest against the annexation of Kings county to the metropolis. Here is a card for Boss McLaughlin to play.

Mr. Thomas Callan of Lowell, Mass., has just returned to his home after a sojourn of about five years in an English prison.

That the public appreciates the accuracy and completeness of The Star's publications as to the death of Mr. Blaine is evidenced by the fact that an extra supply of the papers in which the sad news was printed has been demanded by a large number of people who could not be supplied on the days of issue.

Andrew Carnegie's professions of powerlessness lead to an expectation that Mr. Cleveland will show him the difference between being the head of a manufacturing establishment and the head of a government.

If the House conferees on the District appropriation bill will agree to an amendment that will be spread each exhibition of disgusting intemperance and drunken crime as have been commonly displayed in the patrol wagons.

There is, among a small minority, an effort to be representative over the organ which was displayed by a few people who at the instigation of James G. Blaine endeavored to secure a trifling floral memento of the great dead of disorder there was none, nor was there any intentional disrespect in the activities of the Blaine is not deeply in countless hearts and the few who were taken from the mound at Oak Hill are being treasured as things beyond price.

The spelling reformers will be pardoned if they protest against including the Hawaiian pronunciation of vowels in the Sandwich Island alphabet.

The Louisiana lottery has gone south for its health and was last heard of in Central America. It will there be able to enjoy the congenial society of the Panama canal.

The preparations for the Columbian exposition are progressing on such a large scale that doubt will soon arise as to whether Chicago will have the world's fair or the world's fair will have Chicago.

So the business accumulation in the House is mountain high! What's the matter with the House compelling itself to work eight hours a day?

The styles in postage stamps are becoming sufficiently various to claim the attention of the fashioning magister.

Capt. Leak did well to put a negative endorsement on the application of the Washington and Chesapeake Beach Railroad Company, a corporation that wants to come into the city through a portion of the Rock Creek Park.

These corporations should be required to purchase their rights of way. After years of incessant agitation and litigation the District of Columbia has at last succeeded in securing such a park as it ought to have, and now comes a railroad company that would propose to appropriate what it thinks it needs of the hardly won territory.

subject to much imposition, but it will not permit the park to be thus spoiled. In connection with the subject of protection of the park care should also be taken that the much-needed contagion hospital be not located within its limits. It seems hardly possible that the thought of locating it there can be seriously entertained.

The bright journalist who locates the Naval Observatory on Georgetown Heights across the Potomac from Washington, must know almost as much about this city as do some of the Congressmen who assist in legislating for or against its interests.

If John Sargent Wise and Wilson Randolph should ever decide to engage in hostilities Derouette and Clemenceau would be forced to the conclusion that duelling in Europe is a lost art.

The gluttonous goat will hail with intense satisfaction a revivification of the crinoline.
