LATE SPORTING NEWS

Secret Meeting to Be Held in the East.

The New York Herald says: "The New York Base Ball Club is liable to be without a playground next season. The National Exhibition Company held the lease up to September 1, 1894, and the company had the option of renewing for a further term of years, but it is reported that the Lynch estate (the owners) on September 1, No. representative of the National Exhibition Company appeared on the day named. The association people are after the grounds."

A Pittsburg special says that a secret meeting of the baseball association will be held in the east within twenty-four hours. It is claimed that grounds have been secured in all the cities. Brooklyn has secured the grounds, Buffalo Bill has secured the Lynch estate (the owners) on September 1, No. representative of the National Exhibition Company appeared on the day named. The association people are after the grounds."

Ex-Champion John L. Sullivan is growing tired of being known among the "has beens," and he has determined to enter the ring again, and will challenge the winner of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. John L. was seen last night in Philadelphia in regard to the report.

Richardson, Harvard's left end, broke his collar bone at practice Monday afternoon. His is the sixth serious accident to the team since practice began.

Ex-Capt. Waters coached the Harvard team Monday for the first time since Princeton and University of Pennsylvania have fixed upon November 19 for the intercollegiate game. Grounds will be selected in Trenton or Philadelphia for this action.

The Boston professional team yesterday defeated the New Yorks at New York by three goals to two.

The Baltimore professional team yesterday defeated the Washington team in the presence of fifty or seventy-five spectators by 19 to 1. The fine playing of the visitors was greatly admired. They displayed marvelous dexterity with their feet.

The Central High School ball team yesterday afternoon defeated the Columbia Athletic Reserves by the score 18 to 10.

The Georgetown College eleven will play the Cambridge Athletic Club this afternoon at the college grounds.

Last Friday's game, won by the Philadelphia over the Washingtons in this city, will not be counted, as the halves were only thirty minutes each, instead of forty-five.

Gimm of the Cleveland Bicycle Club succeeded in his attempt to break the twenty-four-hour record yesterday on the Newburg track. When he left the track he had covered 383 3/4 miles and 170 yards, or 270 yards less than 384 miles. The best previous record was 374 miles, made by Ed. S. Spooner. Gimm rested but 72 1/2 minutes during the twenty-four hours—18 minutes at the end of the 10th mile, 34 minutes at the end of the 20th mile, and 34 minutes at the end of the 26th. The last mile was made in 2:54. Gimm was in fairly good condition when he left the track.

Fastest Mile on a Wheel.

On the 28th of September John S. Johnson caused a sensation in bicycle circles the world over by riding a mile at Waltham, Mass., in the phenomenal time, 1:50 3/4.

This wonderful feat was eclipsed in Sacramento, Cal., yesterday, when Otto Zeigler rode a mile in the phenomenal time, 1:50. As a matter of fact, he did ride the mile in a fraction over 1:49, but as one of the watches was found to be slow, it was made at a flying start, paced by tandem teams.

MR. McCAUL MOVED ON

A War of Eloquence Around Fairfax Court House Monday.

The Democrats Had Possession of the Court House—The Republicans Stayed Outside.

Correspondence of The Evening Star.

FAIRFAX COURT HOUSE, Va., October 15, 1894.

Today has been a great political day for old Fairfax. The old court house echoed the principles of democracy, declaimed by speakers engaged in one of the hottest political contests that has taken place for many years, while outside the court house republicans assembled to listen to the voice of their leader. All the morning citizens from all over this and adjoining counties were coming into town and the political leaders were busy marshaling their hosts.

At 12 o'clock the democratic candidate, Mr. E. E. Meredith, began his speech in the court house. Ten minutes later Mr. "Fat" McCaul, the republican nominee, commenced to address an enthusiastic audience on the court room. He had scarcely begun when Sheriff Gordon ordered him to "move on," as he was disturbing the meeting inside. Mr. McCaul moved further away, amid the cheers of his supporters, for three hours held the close attention of the large assembly.

The fight is growing warmer is made more intense by the renewed exertion being put forth by each party, and though the democrats express confidence of success, they are being left untended by that party to poll a full vote.

On the other hand the republicans are striving every nerve to win, and are hopeful in victory on account of dissatisfaction that their claim exists in the democratic ranks.

Mr. Meredith had secured the use of the court house, and he ordered today what his friends regarded as one of the ablest and best speeches that he has yet made during the canvass.

Mr. McCaul "Moved On."

Mr. Meredith had scarcely opened when Mr. McCaul, mounted on a dry goods box just outside the court house doors, began his speech. The republicans claimed that Mr. Meredith had refused to divide time with Mr. McCaul. As Mr. McCaul began the cheers were deafening, and Sheriff Gordon notified him to move on. Mr. McCaul, when he received the notice, said, with a smile, "Yes, sir, where to? Better get down to the fence, hadn't I?" "Yes, go on the fence," replied the sheriff. As Mr. McCaul moved away, and some of his admirers carried him off, the cheering continued. Resuming, he said: "I don't wonder that my democratic friends want me to move on; but I will not be moved. I am a citizen of this county. Why, I would not for the world disturb the democrats. Goodness knows we are disturbed enough already."

Mr. Meredith was not the only democrat who covered himself with glory today. Eppa Hunton, Jr., and R. E. Lee, the latter a son of the late W. H. E. Lee, were both made excellent democratic speeches.

Democrats Organizing.

The democrats are thoroughly organizing, and expect to poll a full vote. Clubs are being formed and almost every day political meetings favoring Mr. Meredith are being held.

Said Mr. McCaul, "We are not relying on the formation of clubs, but every republican in the district is a district chairman, and a chairman of the whole, and each individual is doing his utmost." The populists are not in the race.

Both Mr. Meredith and Mr. McCaul will work in this county this week, and next week in the adjacent counties of Loudoun and Loudwell. The democrats claim they will get 500 majority in Fairfax. The republicans say the democratic majority will not exceed 100.

Legion of Loyal Women's Luncheon.

A series of lunches and dinners for the benefit of the relief fund of the Legion of Loyal Women was begun yesterday in Masonic Temple, Fairfax. The tables were tastefully arranged and beautifully decorated with flowers. Lunch is served between the hours of 12 and 2, and dinner from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. A change in the bill of fare is made daily. The tables are in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. A. S. Odell, Miss Helen B. Matthews, Mrs. Ellen S. Mussey, president of the legion; Mrs. Fannie Pomroy, Mrs. Emma E. Myers, Mrs. Sarah J. Croissant, Mrs. Ellen E. Hays, Mrs. S. Boyden, Mrs. Mary E. S. Davis, Mrs. Maria Holton, Mrs. Nellie Royce, Mrs. Annie Harrison, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Cleaves, Mrs. Charles M. Harris, Mrs. Fanny E. Scott, Mrs. Marion Gibbon, Mrs. Rose Perce, Mrs. Ada Weiss, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Perkins, Mrs. Jennie Manning, Miss Sarah Perkins, Mrs. Helen W. Winton, Mrs. Mattie Lincoln, Mrs. Mary L. Bunkie, Mrs. Mattie Perkins, Miss Maria L. Kearney, Mrs. Anna M. Conwell, Mrs. Lizzie Calver, Mrs. Abby Porter, Mrs. Francis Cameron, Miss Elizabeth Elliott, Mrs. A. S. Boyden, Miss Lizzie E. Kelley, Miss Belle Holton, Mrs. Jennie Hoover, Mrs. Virginia L. Grosvenor, Mrs. Mary E. Waters, Miss J. H. Curry, Miss Nellie Engle, Mrs. F. B. Wilson, Mrs. Maria H. Weisner, Mrs. Eugenia Smith, Mrs. Nancy H. Hays, Mrs. Cora C. Curry, Miss Mary H. Hays, Mrs. Annie C. Gotwald, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hill, Mrs. Charles M. Harris, Mrs. Mary L. Penfield, Mrs. Ida C. Rogers, Mrs. Henrietta N. Rose, Mrs. Maria Van Alstine, Mrs. J. L. Vinton, Mrs. Mervine C. Carter, Mrs. Jessie C. Sboron, and Mrs. T. A. Williams.

Mrs. Hill's Legacy.

In July last Mr. Wm. C. Hill asked the Equity Court for an interpretation of the will of the late W. W. Corcoran, particularly as to the clause relating to Mrs. Fanny E. Hill, which gives the income from $5,000 during the lives each of Fanny Hill, &c.

The executor is in doubt whether he should pay the income of $5,000, dividing it among the devisees after the word "each," or whether he should pay the income of $5,000 to each of the beneficiaries. He also is in doubt whether he should pay the income of $5,000 to Fanny Hill's children or simply the $5,000. Mrs. Hill, a niece of Mr. Corcoran, has filed an answer in the suit, in which she says Mr. Corcoran left her an income from $5,000, and she has been receiving that income regularly from the executor under the will of Charles M. Matthews and Anthony Hyde, and from Hill himself until September, when the payment was withheld in consequence of the suit.

UNION VETERANS' UNION.

New Officers Elected for the Department of the Potomac.

At the annual meeting of the Department of the Potomac Union Veterans' Union, held last week, the following officers were elected: Department commander, Col. Wm. Irving of Harbeck Command; first deputy commander, Col. Harding, Kennedy Command, Baltimore; second deputy commander, Lieut. Col. Geo. J. P. Wood, Sedgwick Command; department chaplain, Gen. Green Clay Smith, Logan Command; surgeon general, S. S. Bond, M. D., Logan Command; adjutant general, S. F. Hamilton, Logan Command; quartermaster general, B. F. Chase, Sedgwick Command; judge advocate general, Col. Robt. Alton, Sedgwick Command. The executive committee consists of A. A. Furbush, Hancock Command; Thos. Broderick, Logan Command; Col. Frank T. Howe, Sedgwick Command; H. W. Jackson and — Goodman, Shaw Command, and H. H. Brower, Caster Command.

The meeting was thoroughly harmonious, and the election passed off with great satisfaction. It is thought that the retiring department commander, Col. Wm. Irving, and others who were associated with him for the efficient manner in which they had performed their duties. The attending committee consisted of Messrs. B. F. Chase, Thos. Broderick and Geo. J. P. Wood. Col. Robert Alton was the chairman of the committee on resolutions, the other members being: B. F. Chase and J. G. Birchfield. A. Leis and H. H. Brower were appointed an auditing committee to examine the accounts of the retiring officers. Col. Irving, the new department commander, was a veteran soldier during the war, having left a leg on the field of battle as a testimony of his bravery. He is popular in his own command and in the order generally, and will make an efficient head of this department.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Sessions Will Be Held Tomorrow in the First Presbyterian Church.
