

LOCAL MENTION.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast Till 8 p.m. Tuesday. For the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, generally fair; colder; north-westerly winds; cold wave.

Condition of the Water.

Temperature and condition of water at 8 a.m.: Great Falls, temperature, 32; condition, 33; receiving reservoir, temperature, 34; condition at north connection, 35; condition at south connection, 36; distributing reservoir, temperature, 34; condition at influent gate house, 36; effluent gate house, 30.

Tide Table.

Today—Low tide, 9:44 p.m. Tomorrow—High tide, 6 a.m. and 4 p.m.; low tide, 9:40 a.m. and 10:47 p.m.

VISITED OUR CANDY SALES?

We're making candy rapidly. For 35 days we're selling all our 50 and 35-cent Confections for 25 cents a pound. Assorted—fresh from Scotland.

SHEET MUSIC.

Thousands of titles. Vocal and instrumental. WOODWARD & LOthrop.

FRESH, YOUNG, TENDER MEATS.

Home-killed and dressed, are the only kind we sell. We have the best beef now we've seen this season. Regular prices.

Elegant Kenner Spoon

featuring 40 or 60 of cut candy. Richelieu, 1223 Penn. ave. (formerly of F. S.).

For an appetizing, deliciously flavored and palatable pleasing Butter—try our BROAD BREAD CREAMERY—special "cut" price, 25c. L.B. Drop a postal or come in when shopping. M. METZGER & CO., 417 7th St.

100 dozen Women's Ingrain Fast Black

Leads Hoop—Richelieu, 1223 Penn. ave. (formerly of F. S.).

WOODWARD & LOthrop.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

Grand Opera House.—Mrs. Potter and Mr. Bellevue, in "Charlotte Corday."

New National Theater.—Julia Marlowe Taber, in "Scandal."

Academy of Music.—Sandow and the Trocadero Vaudeville.

Butler's Bijou Theater.—"The Prodigal Father."

Kerman's Lyceum Theater.—"The Night Before."

Columbia Phonograph Company, 919 Pennsylvania avenue northwest.—Exhibition of Edison's Kinetoscope.

EXCURSIONS TOMORROW.

Mount Vernon.—Steamer Macalester leaves at 10 a.m.

Steamer Macalester for Glymont and intermediate landings at 10 a.m.

Steamer Harry Randall for Chapel Point, Colonial Beach and river landings at 7 a.m.

A Limited Edition.

No copies of The Star's Almanac and Handbook obtainable after the present edition is exhausted. Copies on sale at The Star office, all news stands, or sent by mail.

Sleeping Beauty.

"The Sleeping Beauty," an adaptation from the fairy tale of that name, by Miss Winifred Nye, daughter of Bill Nye, was presented at the Strathmore Arms on Saturday evening, the proceeds of the entertainment being devoted to charity. The cast consisted of Miss Louise Childs, Miss Wylie and Master Wyle.

Prof. Davids' Lecture.

The life of Buddha was the theme of a lecture, which was delivered Saturday afternoon by Prof. Thomas Rhys Davids of the University College, London. He had a large and interested audience.

Police Gymnasium.

The police of the first precinct have re-organized their gymnasium association, with Sergt. J. A. Moore, president, and Officer Tayman, secretary and treasurer. The dues paid by the members will be expended in reconstructing the gymnasium, which is on the top floor of the building.

The Anthropological Society.

The Anthropological Society of Washington will hold a meeting this evening, at which the annual address will be delivered by the first president of the society, Dr. Otis T. Mason. The subject will be "Similarities in Culture; Their Origins, Dispersions and Varieties." The meeting will take place in the lecture room of Columbian University, 11th and D streets, at 8:15 o'clock.

An Enjoyable Musical.

An enjoyable musical took place at the Buckingham on Saturday evening, under the direction of Mrs. Kitty Thompson-Berry. The audience which gathered was entertained with selections by Mrs. Berry, Miss Lotta Mills, Prof. John P. Lawrence, Herman Rakemann, the Apollo Quartet, the Philharmonic Quartet, and Mrs. H. H. Mills, Mrs. Daly, J. Henry Kaiser, Herndon Marshall, Jennie O'Neill, Potter and Miss Pauline Whitaker. Miss Jennie Glennan officiated as accompanist. The program was an exceedingly attractive one, and the efforts of those who participated were appreciated by ample applause and numerous encores. Afterward refreshments were served, and some time was spent in social intercourse.

Mount Pleasant Church.

Yesterday was a day full of interesting events for the members of the Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church.

In the morning, at 7 o'clock, the Christian Endeavor Society held a sunrise prayer meeting, commemorative of the fourteenth birthday of the organization. The meeting was led by Mr. John D. Morgan, and representatives from the societies at the following churches: W. C. Berry, 1st, New York Avenue Presbyterian and Gunton Temple Memorial Presbyterian churches were present.

At the regular morning service twenty-one persons were received into church membership.

In the evening a public "Christian Endeavor day" service was held in the church. Mr. John B. Steman, jr., presided, and Mr. W. H. Pennell made an address. Rev. M. Ross Fishburne completed the closing of the day with a prayer and the reading of a consoling service.

Mr. Allen Not in Contact.

Judge Hagner for the Court Next 2 this morning declined to hold Mr. Edward H. Allen of the Grand Opera House for contempt, as prayed for last week by William I. Slattery, late property man of the "Captain Paul" theatrical company. It was the contention of Slattery that Mr. Allen aided William Smith and Horace Delisser, proprietors of the company, in removing the property from the city by refusing to take deputy marshals admittance to the theater. Mr. Allen was represented in court by Messrs. B. H. Haffelburg and J. B. Haffelburg, who by the majority of the employees of the theater. They all declared that Mr. Allen did everything in his power to aid the company on the occasion of their visit to the theater. In disposing of the matter Judge Hagner remarked that in his opinion Mr. Allen had completely discharged his duty of the charge and showed clearly that he conducted himself as the law required. The case was dismissed, as was that against Messrs. Smith and Delisser.

Don't Fail to Get a Copy.

You can obtain The Evening Star's Almanac and Handbook at any news stand, or at The Star office. Mailed upon request.

At the Anthropological Society.

The Anthropological Society will hold a meeting this evening, at which the annual address will be delivered by the retiring president of the society, Dr. Otis T. Mason. The subject will be "Similarities in Culture; Their Origins, Dispersions and Varieties." The meeting will take place in the lecture room of Columbian University, on the southeast corner of H and 15th streets, at 8:15 o'clock.

Accident in Miss Dancy's.

Miss Harriet P. Dancy while walking along Lafayette square Saturday slipped on the icy pavement and fell, breaking her thigh. She was removed to her home.

Ripans for headaches, druggists, 50c.—Advertisement.

POPULATION FIGURES.

Police Census of the Outlying Sections of the District.

How the Figures Compare with Those Taken Three Years Ago—Public Institutions.

Table with 3 columns: Name, White, Col'd. Total. Includes Ammeston, Twining City, Templeton, etc.

Chief Clerk Sylvester of the police department today the result of the recent census as affecting villages, sections and institutions, showing the following:

Table with 3 columns: Name, White, Col'd. Total. Includes Ammeston, Twining City, Templeton, etc.

Three Years Ago.

When the police took the census three years ago the population of villages, sections and institutions was given as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Name, White, Col'd. Total. Includes Ammeston, Twining City, Templeton, etc.

A New Pythian Hall.

Union Lodge, No. 22, Knights of Pythias, formally took possession of their new quarters at 910 Pennsylvania avenue, Wednesday evening. It is one of the best halls in the city for lodge purposes, consisting of a spacious lodge room, a richly furnished waiting room and two ante rooms.

A series of social entertainments is to be given on the fifth Wednesday in each month. The first of these socials was given Wednesday evening. The following gentlemen added greatly to the musical and literary feature of the entertainment: Prof. T. H. Adams, rendered several piano solos; Past Grand Chancellor J. B. Conner delivered an address full of encouragement to the lodge; J. E. Myers, Jr., gave several vocal selections; Andrew Lewis, W. S. Madert, Benj. Madert and Henry Madert of the Mount Pleasant Brass Quartet rendered "The Old Oaken Bucket" and "The Old Time Religion" in a truly professional manner; Vice Grand Chancellor J. W. Hardell and Rev. Chas. L. Pate also rendered appropriate addresses. The evening program with a comic song and recitation. In future these socials will be open to the friends of the lodge. The cordial invitation is extended to all visiting Pythians to attend.

Grand Tent.

The Grand Tent, Independent Order of Rechabites of the District of Columbia, has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Grand chief ruler, A. K. Belt; grand deputy ruler, Wm. H. Marriott; grand secretary, J. DeWitt Adams; grand treasurer, E. H. Johnson; grand levite, Geo. King; grand visitor and lecturer, David Marshall; grand grand marshal, J. P. Clancy; grand chaplain, Jas. A. Dony.

A Talk About Poe.

Mr. Martin Lehman of Baltimore lectured last night at the Eighth Street Synagogue under the auspices of the Young People's Temple of the city. The subject was the second lecture of the course, and although not so largely patronized as it deserved to have been was yet well attended. The lecturer was introduced by Mr. Lyon, president of the society. His address was interesting and pleasing and at its close he was warmly congratulated. The next in the course will be delivered by the libraries of the city, and will be given at the Washington, on Sunday evening, February 17.

Indictments Returned.

The grand jury returned the following indictments: Walter Chas. Ibbel; Walter Robinson; larceny from the person; James Washington, assault with intent to kill; John Crumpton, alias Johnson, second offense, petit larceny; Charles Barnes, alias Cox, do.; Wade Ladlow, alias W. H. Starnford, do.; Wm. Wood and Samuel Dyson, do. The charge of housebreaking preferred against John C. Lucas was ignored.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses have been granted to the following: John M. ter Linden and Mary D. Adams; James Ruffin and Irene Conter; Herman J. Madert of Washington and Mary E. Krezel of Norfolk Va.; Henson Glanton and Alice Jones; F. D. D. Hasbrock of New Britain, Conn. and Eva Hasbrock of Highland, N. Y.; Henry Barrott and Fanny Wells.

At All News Stands.

If not convenient to call at the office you can obtain a copy of The Star's Almanac and Handbook at any news stand.

Prof. Newcomb to Lecture.

Prof. Simon Newcomb, the astronomer and political economist, will deliver a lecture this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Columbian University, on "Some Forgotten Facts Regarding Socialism and the Labor Question."

His Feet Frozen.

Last evening about 6 o'clock the police of the ninth precinct found in a snow drift in Northeast Washington near the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks a colored man who was suffering from the effects of the cold. His feet were frozen and his legs were in such a serious condition that he was unable to stand. When the police took him to the Emergency Hospital he gave his name as Henry Wallace. He lives in Virginia, and has been working in Pittsburgh. A few days ago he started to walk home, being out of employment, and Saturday night he fell in a snow drift, and then it was that the cold weather disabled him. As the unfortunate man will probably need medical treatment for a long time he was transferred to Freedman's Hospital.

Feast of St. Blasius.

The feast of St. Blasius, which is marked by the special ceremony of blessing the throats, was observed yesterday in the Catholic churches of the city.

Ripans for constipation, druggists, 50c.—Advertisement.

ITS ANNIVERSARY.

Christian Endeavor Celebration Held Yesterday in Local Churches.

The fourteenth anniversary of the organization of Christian Endeavor was celebrated yesterday by 37,000 societies, embracing a membership of 2,223,800 persons, throughout the land. The local societies of the organization, which has become a world-wide exercise Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan for it had been conceived by him and Mr. Wm. H. Pennell, who was the first person to sign the original constitution of the society, and Rev. W. C. Alexander. After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Pennell delivered a talk on "Beginnings." He declared that the organization did not really begin fourteen years ago, as the plan