LATE SPORTING NEWS

YALE'S COLORS LOWERED.

The blue and gray of Georgetown too much for them.

The blue and gray of Georgetown waved merrily in the breeze over the college campus yesterday afternoon, in a familiar "Hoya-Hoya-Saxa-Hoya-Georgetown" rang out from hundreds of throats, fair and also stentorian, as mighty Yale was being defeated at base ball by the Georgetown College team. The final score was 29 to 5, and the sons of old Eli left the grounds in anything but a jocular mood.

When Umpire George W. Sneedon called play at 4 o'clock two sides of the big campus were lined up a dozen deep with enthusiastic spectators, while a third side was given over to carriages and tally-hos. Ladies were very much in evidence, and the colors of the contending teams were seen on every side.

Georgetown first took the field, with Mahoney and Sullivan as battery. Yale failed to score, and did Georgetown in its half. Trudeau and Greenway were in the points for the visitors. In the second Spier and Quinby singled for Yale, Rustin followed with a triple, Sullivan left a pitched ball pass him and three Yale men crossed the plate. In Georgetown's half, McGrath and McCreey came to bat. In the third, Mahoney singled, McGrath sent one to left field for three bases and Murphy shoved the ball over the embankment in right field for a home run, and three more scores were chalked up. One more was added in the fourth inning on Mahoney's single, a stolen base and a single by Carmody. Great enthusiasm prevailed in the sixth, when three more runs were scored on singles by Mahoney and McCarthy and a home run by George W. Stone. In the seventh, when three men around the bases held a drive from Sullivan and McGrath made home runs, Sullivan singled, and with the assistance of two bases on balls and a couple of errors, eight healthy runs were added to the already big score of the locals. Georgetown did not play its half of the ninth.

After the second inning Yale failed to send a man around the bases until the seventh, when Rustin took first on an error and went home on a double by Keator, the latter making the circuit on two outs.

The score by innings was:
R. H. E.
Yale.....0 0 0 0 2 0 0--3 11 5
Georgetown.....0 3 1 0 3 2 8--20 17 3

A Water Polo Game.

The much-talked-of water polo match between the New York Athletic Club and the Chicago Athletic Club teams began last night in the tank of the New York Athletic Club house. A big crowd was present, and the evening's play resulted in favor of New York by a score of 4 to 1.

At Norfolk--Baltimore, 12; Norfolk, 11.
At Petersburg--Brooklyn, 17; Petersburg, 1.

Easy Thing for Boston.

The Boston team had little trouble defeating the Tigers in a loosely played game yesterday. The features were the heavy hitting of the visitors and the fielding of Ward and Kelly of the home team. Bradley entered the box in the sixth inning and held the Bostonians down to one hit. Ward was struck on the head by a pitched ball and rendered unconscious for several minutes. The score by innings was:
Princeton.....0 0 0 0 2 0 1 4--7

General Meeting of the Jockey Club at New York.

The Jockey Club held a general meeting in New York last night, at which Messrs. Belmont, Gebhard, Dogner, Kere, Galway, Claeson, Kelly, Thompson, Sturgis, Walcott and Dwyer were present.

The sole business of the meeting was the consideration of the amendments to the rules recommended by the steward, and the section in that rule holding that associations east of the eighty-first meridian must be licensed by the Jockey Club is stricken out, as is also the first section of rule 8, stating that the powers of the stewards extend over meetings held east of the same meridian. In future, new rules, revisions and alterations will have to be published only twice in the calendar to take effect instead of three times, as heretofore.

Rule 75, on the value of a race, was amended by the addition of a third paragraph giving all surplus over the advertised value to the winner unless expressly stated otherwise in the conditions.

Rule 113, on dead heats, and rule 113, on the effect of an objection if valid, were amended, and a new rule, No. 349, was adopted by the great assembly. Licenses to be granted to boys never having ridden

"MY FOOD DOES ME NO GOOD."

In any city there are many possible ways to travel from one point to another. But between the food on your table and its destination in the body there is only one road--directly through the stomach. There is no going around the stomach or forcing a passage through it. Here the food is detained a while for better or for worse. Here it must be digested--that is to say, changed, liquefied and assimilated--or, failing that, it must be here and rot, generating poisonous principles which enter the blood and set up a diseased action throughout the system. This is indigestion or dyspepsia--the condition that exists when a person says, "My food does me no good."

Certainly not. How can it? The more he eats the more he suffers. The road is blocked. No one putting more grain in the hopper when the mill cannot grind. Here are some of nature's protests: Loss of appetite; distress after eating; heartburn; palpitation; shades of head cold; rising of nausea and gas into the throat; burning tongue; dull and aching head; pains in the chest and back; weariness, fatigue and worry; loss of sleep; cold hands and feet; yellowish eyes and skin; weakness and trembling; indigestion; failure of nervous force and courage, etc. Out of this seething blockade in the stomach may come any of a dozen local complaints--a common form of pseudo-consumption among them. Yet you must eat or starve. Millions suffer.

Drastic measures won't do. Take a very little light nourishment at first and immediately after it a dose of the Shaker Digesting Cordial, the only remedy that acts directly on the stomach and cleanses it of its contents. The Shaker Digesting Cordial, of course, is not a laxative. It will relieve at once and cure quickly. Made from cultivated medicinal herbs and plants grown by the Shakers. Pleasant to the taste. Price, 10 cents. For sale by nearly all druggists.

Attempted Assaults at Camden.

Mrs. Rosanna Carroll, aged sixty years, was sitting in a second-story room of her house at 3d and Cherry streets, Camden, N. J., Tuesday night, when a negro entered and attempted to assault her. At 3 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Bell, who lives with her two daughters a few doors from the Carroll house, was awakened by a negro in her room. It is supposed that the man committed both offenses.

The Forged Stamp Case.

Mrs. A. T. Mack, clerk of the Canadian Novelty and Supply Company, was remanded in the police court at Hamilton, Ontario, till April 15, on the charge of selling counterfeit stamps. The prosecution asked for adjournment. Capt. Thomas Potter of the United States secret service and Postal Inspector Stewart of Chicago are working on the case. Several packages of bogus stamps were found in the company's office.

Attended Assaults at Camden.

In a race on the application of the trainer, a boy having to ride ten races to take out a Jockey's license.

The stewards were authorized by the club to suspend during the current year the operation of rule 4, part 3, relating to overnight events on any course, which they may see fit to relieve from its enforcement.

Four Favorites Won.

After riding many suspicious races, Jockey Murphy, said to be regarded as the most competent jockey at the Alexander Island track, was yesterday suspended indefinitely, the charge being that he pulled Benolio in the fourth race. The boy rode in every race but the fifth, and it was claimed that his riding in each was suspicious. Twenty bookmakers weighed in, and, as four favorites and two outsiders won, the men of odds had the worst of the argument. There was a large crowd present. The track was fast, and the racing was rather interesting. The winners were: Clansman, 7 to 2; Woodchopper, 15 to 1; Ted Gregg, 20 to 1; Thurston, even money; Frits, 7 to 2, and Trinculo, 6 to 5.

American College Crew Abroad.

To some the proposed trip of the Cornell University crew to England is a novelty. One reason for this is that it will be the only representative crew of scientific oarsmen ever sent abroad. This is rather rough on Harvard, who sent a four to England in 1890, and on Columbia, who won the race for college fours at Henley last year. Cornell, who sent a four to Henley in 1881.

ANACOSTIA.

The anniversary of the Juvenile Missionary Society of the Anacostia M. E. Church, Rev. James McLenren, will take place on Sunday night, and the exercises will consist mainly of an elaborate Easter service, entitled "He Is Risen." Mr. McLenren, who is also president of the society, will preside, and the following program will be rendered: Organ voluntary, Miss Linda Pumphrey; hymn, Rock of Ages; music, Hasting; prayer, Mrs. J. C. Thiel, children of the Sunday school; "He Bore Our Sorrows"; music, by W. J. C. Thiel; Dark Was the Hour, Thiel; The Work Complete, X. Schyder; Send Forth the Tidings, Thiel; Tell All the Blessed Story, Thiel; Sing the Glad Story, Thiel; Tell Me the Dear Old Story, George F. Rosche, to be rendered by the choir; Little Light to Jesus, Rosche. These songs will be interspersed with Scripture readings by the members of the school, and recitations by John E. Fort and Charles F. Gier. The Misses George Grove, Rosa Day, Rose McLaren and others. The Rosecroft Golf Club will also take part.

The monthly meeting of the society will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, previous to which there will, in the morning, be preaching by Rev. Albert Osborn, superintendent of the Anacostia Railway Company, on Jackson street, near Taylor, narrowly escaped destruction by fire Wednesday night. The fire was caused by a defective flue, and the roof was ablaze before those inside of the house were aware of it. Prompt action by some young men of the neighborhood in the use of buckets of water extinguished the flames before an alarm was given to the fire department. Mr. Rosche was away from home when the trouble occurred.

Rev. Charles O. Cook, a former pastor, will preach tonight at the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church on a subject appropriate to Good Friday. There have been services at the church each night this week, and with the exception of Monday night, when the weather was very inclement, all have been well attended.

A portion of Jackson street east of Taylor street is in a dangerous condition from the action of the late rain, and although the attention of the District Commissioners has been called to it, nothing up to this morning had been done in the matter.

Mr. J. D. Newton of Anacostia has returned from a visit to friends in Maryland. Guiding Star Band of the Minnesota Avenue Presbyterian Church will, at a meeting to be held today, organize a missionary society.

Miss Catharine of Anacostia, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alexander B. Gardner of Minnesota avenue for several months, has gone to Washington for an extended stay.

Mr. George Cecil of Baltimore is visiting the family of his uncle, Rev. J. B. North, pastor of Garden Memorial Church.

Mr. Charles H. Roe of Anacostia, who has been quite ill, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Mary Carter is sick at her home on Maple avenue extended.
