

Breaking Prices

—At—

PERRY'S.

We have gone among the most seasonable stocks and turned them into bargains by the wholesale.

All for a purpose—all in fulfillment of a store rule—"foreclosing" the season.

A little selfish—but a good deal generous.

With all the praises of our exceptional values and superior styles still ringing in your ears comes this announcement that brings them closer to you than anything but such a ruthless reduction could. "Now" is an important word—means profit to you and loss to us in equal proportions.

Capes.

We have only a few—and that alone pronounces their popularity. You will find use for them at the mountains—seashore—or wherever you summer—and many a day here at home. The prices appeal!

6 Tan and Black All-wool Cloth Capes, very full—were $6.00—now $3.50.

4 Tan, Blue and Black Broadcloth Capes—plain and belted, with top cape—were $8.00—now $4.50.

7 Tan, Blue and Black Cloth Capes, single and double, plain and appliqued; lined with silk and trimmed with ribbon—were $10 and $12—now $5 and $6.

1 Black Gros Grain Silk Shoulder Cape, ripple style; lined with silk and trimmed with ribbon—was $15—now $8.

1 Midas Silk Cape, lined with silk and elaborately trimmed with jet and ribbon—was $18—now $10.

4 Black Silk Embroidered Ripple Capes, trimmed with ribbon and chiffon and lined with silk—were $25—now $13.

Cloth Suits.

All you need to become a firm convert to ready-made Suits is a trial of the perfect. We wouldn't put one in stock that was not thoroughly made and fashionably designed. The bugbear of fit has been pushed aside. Of course you wouldn't want to buy a ball dress ready-made—but we won't have any trouble at all in putting you in a street costume. We are making some very material reductions to wind up the season. Why wouldn't it be a good opportunity for you to put our possibilities to the test?

All-wool Tan Convert Cloth Suits, made with open front jacket half lined with silk; lap seams, wide skirt and full sleeves—were $10—now $5.

All-wool Navy Blue and Black Serge Suits, made with blazer jacket, half lined with silk; tailor made, with lap seams, full sleeves and skirt—were $12.75—now $10.

Tan, Blue, Gray and Brown English Convert Cloth Suits, one-button cutaway jacket, half lined with chambray tafteta silk; wide skirt lined and stiffened—were $16—now $13.50.

Wash Suits.

No chance for argument here. These are all you could expect your dressmaker to evolve. All their goodness doesn't spare them from the reduction order we have passed through the house.

Blue, Black and White and Pink Striped Lawn Suits, waist made with full front and box plait, wide skirt with full hem; collar and cuffs piped with white—were $6.50—now $4.50.

Pink, Tan and Blue Poreale and Lawn Suits—waist made with ruffle and cuffs, trimmed with white head; full sleeves and wide skirt—were $7.50—now $6.

Blue and Black and White Striped Poreale Suits, waist trimmed with embroidery; wide skirt and deep hem—were $10—now $8.

Black and Blue, Blue, Tan and Gray Flannel and Striped Duck Suits, with one-button cutaway jacket, and large sleeves; wide skirt—were $4.50—now $3.

Separate Skirts.

Just the season for them. Funny we should be letting down the prices, think you? Not at all. We must run on schedule time—and, besides, we like to let you have the full benefit of any concessions we now are bound to come sooner or later.

Worth looking into:

All-wool Black Serge and Diagonal Cheviot Skirts, cut very full, lined and stiffened—were $6.50—now $5.

Black Mohair Skirts, cut very full and finished with velvet binding around the bottom—now $5.

White Duck Skirts, cut very full and finished with deep hem—were $2.50—now $1.75.

Underskirts.

An opportunity for you:

Colored Gingham Underskirts—Blue and Gray striped—$6c. now.

Mohair and Satin Underskirts, with ruffle—$1.50 now.

Colored Taffeta Silk Underskirts—Tan and Gray—made with three ruffles—were $7—now $5.25.

Silk Waists.

Who would have thought these dainties would ever come to such an end! Fact is there are only very few of them left—and to hurry matters we give them a push too:

Checked and Striped Wash Silk Waists, with shirred yoke, crush collar and belt—lined and bound—were $5—now $4.

Black and White, Lavender, Blue, Red and Pink Plain Striped Taffeta Silk Waists—shirred around yoke; large sleeves; lined and bound—were $8—now $6.

Laundered Shirt Waists.

One of the "must-haves" now for comfort. You cannot tell how a Waist fits until you have had it laundered once. We know, though, about these of ours. They are cut right. Pretty patterns:

Black, Blue and Black and White Striped Poreale Shirt Waists—gathered in front, yoke back, high turn-over collar and wide cuffs—now $6c, and 60c.

Lawn and Poreale Shirt Waists, made with full front and yoke back; high collar and deep cuffs—$1.15 to $1.75 now.

A New Wheeling Suit.

"THE SAFETY."

Last Sunday's N. Y. World gave it a whole half column of editorial commendation—saying 'twas the latest and best Bicycle Suit in the market.

Uncle Sam must think so, too—'cause he patented it.

And we know so—and got the exclusive sale of it for the District.

It's a "Safety," sure enough—and a noble suit, too. The pants are "bloomers" with "cavalry seat"—webberings to retain the strain-patented waist-band.

The coat is a single-breasted, unlined patch-pocketed sack. Made up in "road colors" that won't show the dirt.

Comfort—durability—style are its three virtues. Tell you what it'll do—outwear three Bicycle Suits of the ordinary make.

Like to have you see it. Half dozen patterns. All sizes.

AFFAIRS IN ALEXANDRIA

A Dastardly Attempt to Wreck a Passenger Train.

Police Court Case—Land a Close Shave From a Fatal Accident—Other Notes.

Some unknown threats attempted to wreck train No. 78, north bound, of the Pennsylvania railroad, which was due in this city at 10:32 last night, just before it reached the corner of Duke and Fayette streets. From what could be learned of the affair it appears that a coupling pin had been placed in the frog of a switch near the corner and the engine struck it, fortunately cutting it in two. Had this not been the case there would have been a serious accident, as the train is said to have been running at the rate of about thirty miles an hour and had a large number of passengers on board.

Police Court.

In the police court this morning Mayor Strauss disposed of the following cases: Maria Parker, charged with disorderly conduct, fined $5; Susan Luckett and Lillie Robinson, charged with assault; the Robinson woman was fined $7 for assault, and on being impudent to the mayor, was fined $5 for contempt of court; Lillie Luckett was dismissed. Richard Cooper and Richard Luckett were charged with robbing Burroughs' store, case continued.

A Close Shave.

A number of boys cut loose some cars that were standing on a side track in the Virginia Midland freight yard yesterday afternoon, and let them run down on the main track. There was a passenger train due at the time, but fortunately it was a few minutes late, and the cars were discovered on the main line and an accident averted.

Charter Amended.

Judge J. K. M. Norton, in the corporation court yesterday, granted an amendment to the charter of the Brott Electric Bicycle Company changing its name to the Brott Rapid Cycle Company, and increasing its capital stock to $50,000,000.

Southern Assembly Dances.

Last night at Burgundy, the home of Mr. Walsh, near this city, the members of the Southern Assembly gave another of their most pleasant dances. The building and lawn were lit throughout with many-colored lights, and the large number of young people present made the welkin ring with their merry chatter and gay chatter. Dancing was kept up until a late hour. There were many present from this city and Washington.

Ann Lee Monument Association.

The postponed meeting of the Ann Lee Monument association was held at the residence of Miss Kate Stuart yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. An organization was perfected by the election of the following officers: Mrs. L. W. Reid, president; Miss Calhoun, corresponding secretary; Miss Calhoun, recording secretary; Mrs. W. M. Ramsay, Wm. A. Ramsay, J. H. Hope and Edgar Warfield, trustees. The association will have funds for erecting a handsome monument in this city.

Samuel G. Brent has returned from Richmond.

Officers Griffin, Smith and Howison had a long chase yesterday afternoon after a colored man named Fitzhugh, who was wanted for robbing Burroughs' store. The post office, which has been closed all day, will be open at 5 o'clock today. The 12th and Regiment Drum Corps has received its new uniforms. The Fern Leaf Club will give a cake walk at the Light Infantry Armory June 12, which white people alone will be admitted. The Decoration day services commenced at 2 o'clock today and will be completed tomorrow night. The drum corps will play today. The report that R. W. Johnston will contest the election in Washington and the district is denied. The counsel he has employed are to defend him in the Jefferson district contest.
