

Woodward

Lothrop,

107th, 11th and F Sts. N.W.

CLOSED TODAY AT 1 O'CLOCK.

Beginning Monday, September second, store will be kept open until 6 o'clock.

Our Miss Nellie, who for several weeks past has been visiting Paris and London in the interest of the Millinery Department, has returned. Great preparations have been made for the Fall and Winter business. You shall not have to wait long for the first look at the new things.

A Stroll

Through the store will reveal an array of exceptional attractions at every turn. Incoming invoices demand space—and quick-going prices prevail on many things for personal and household use. Wise folks can find almost anything needed—and save maybe half of the usual purchase money.

Monday, Housekeeping Goods.

Table and Toilet Linens, Ready-to-use Sheets and Pillow Slips, Blankets, Quilts, Decorated English and American Dinner, Tea, Tete-a-tete and Toilet Sets, etc.

A wonderful interest attaches to these Monday sales. All the town knows of them. The goods are so carefully and wisely bought that a quarter or a third the usual money can often be saved.

Linens.

CREAM SCOTCH DAMASK PATTERN CLOTHS, EXTRA HEAVY, PRETTY DESIGNS.

2 1/2 yds. long, regularly $2.00, now $1.00.

2 1/2 yds. long, regularly $2.50, now $1.25.

2 1/2 yds. long, regularly $3.00, now $1.50.

Blankets, &c.

11-4 Wool Blankets, red, blue, pink and yellow borders. Per pair, $3.50.

11-4 Marseilles Spreads, Each, $1.50.

11-4 Crochet Spreads, hemmed ready for use. Each, $1.50.

White Goods.

A SPECIAL PURCHASE OF DOTTED SWISS, SUITABLE FOR SASH CURTAINS, &c. THREE QUALITIES.

One lot at $1.25.

One lot at $1.50.

China and Crockery.

Decorated American China Toilet Sets, six pieces, per set, $1.85.

Decorated American China Toilet Sets, ten pieces, six decorations, per set, $2.50.

Decorated American China Toilet Sets, twelve pieces, three decorations, per set, $3.00.

Catch the Dollars As They Drop.

When we made up our minds that none of the stock on hand should go into our new building the price on everything in our sales rooms and store-houses dropped—and way down, too. Turned everything into bargains—

Parlor Furniture, Dining Room Furniture, Bed Room Furniture, Hall Furniture, Kitchen Furniture, Library Furniture, Carpets of all sorts, Draperies of all descriptions, Mattings of all kinds, Stoves and Ranges, Refrigerators, Baby Carriages—

House & Herrmann,

107, 109, 121 and 123 7th St. N.W.

Leather Belts.

Now is your chance. Notice some of our styles in the window. Every one marked in plain figures.

McAllister & Co.,

1311 F Street, N.W.

Most Babies

Need Evans' Talcum Powder, Colson's Baby Lotion, and other baby necessities.

W. Thompson, 703 S. PHARMACIST,

15th St.

Most Delicious, Healthful Bread

For hot weather eating in our famous BROWN BREAD.

White Goods.

Special purchase of dotted Swiss, suitable for sash curtains, &c. three qualities.

IMPERIAL GRANUM

The STANDARD and the BEST Prepared FOOD

For INVALIDS and Convalescents, for Dyspeptic, Delicate, Infirm and Aged Persons.

Big Buying Chances Here Monday

The items we mention below but a faint list of the number of "specials" obtainable. Department—China, both imported and domestic, Glass Ware, Kitchen Goods, Cutlery, Plated Ware—all to go at 25 per cent off prices.

Fine Quality Thin-blown Table Tumblers, With Initial and Wreath, 45c. dozen.

All Plain Gold Band China Now Marked Half Price!

$9 Instead of $12 For Refrigerators

CHINA DROPPED!

English China Toilet Sets.

Tea Sets Cheaper.

King's Palace, 300 9th St.

PRICES THAT ARE MAGIC

Millinery.

Great Skirt Bargains.

Fine Quality Brillianton Skirts, Formerly $3.75, now at $2.50.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

The Newport Season Goes Off in a Social Blaze.

AUTUMNAL GAYETY AT LENOX

His Grace of Marlborough Would Wed an American Heiress.

The fashionable contingent will soon turn their faces Lenox-way. The whirl of gayety at Newport certainly reached its height the present week, and left its eager participants but little time to rest between their manifold engagements. Balls and dances have succeeded each other with perfect regularity, and in connection with the other necessary appearances at the tennis courts, made both days and nights resemble, in their activity, the swift movement of a Washington winter. No wonder one of the most stalwart of the amusement forces, Mr. Oliver Belmont, succumbed to the struggle.

Mr. Belmont's ball comes off Monday night at Newport. It will be the christening of his new villa, and the Belmont colors and also the family coat of arms, and they will include imported furs, slippers filled with French flowers, sashes, fussy sticks and bouquets of French artificial flowers, silver and ivory gaiters, flags of all nations on three standards, trumpets, blique pla cushions, embroidered fans from Vienna in the shape of flowers, the finest ever imported. The above are all for the women.

The Duke of Marlborough may not know much more about the United States in general than he did before, but he will gain some valuable experience of the country and its people. He will be accompanied at Newport during his week's residence there. There has been quite a great deal of talk about the Duke's visit, and it is surprising what national pride, so to speak, we all take in the fact that it was the Duke of Marlborough who was invited to the use of the 350,000 which put the last new roof and other repairs on Blenheim palace.

Miss Alison Wilson has just returned from Newport, and is about to go to Deer Park, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. Chapin, who have been entertaining constantly during the summer at their Deer Park cottage, gave a dog show last week, and will give a card party on Monday evening.

Mr. U. S. Grant is now at Saratoga. Mrs. and Mrs. Meriwether have returned from a pleasant stay at Atlantic City. Mrs. Meriwether leaves tonight for Harper's Neck, where she will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Meriwether.

The Misses Groves of Galand, Md., gave a delightful picnic to the mountains, Tuesday in honor of their guests, Miss Lamph of Washington and Misses Brown and Miller of Baltimore. Among those present were: Misses Harcourt, Horton, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McQuade, Duane E. Fox and family, Mrs. A. T. Gibbons, Mrs. Bayley, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Hunter and family, R. E. Bradley and family and Dr. T. Ritchie Stone and family.

The Arion Society of New York on a Visit to Washington. The Ebbit House swarmed with singers and their sisters and their wives at midnight last night and thereabouts, and nearly 300 members of the Arion Society of New York and their friends sat down to supper after a trip from Gotham in a special train. They left at 4:45, reaching here at 11:25, and were welcomed and escorted to the hotel by Charles Dismer, A. Joers, Frank Claudy, John Waldman, Louis Faller, A. Dantz and William Borens on behalf of the Washington Scaenogerd club. The visitors will be while in Washington. Over three score ladies were in the party, and upon its arrival a line was formed, and a number of cable cars were taken to the hotel, where the excursionists disembarked and marched to the Ebbit House.

The following Washingtonians are at the Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Mrs. Isaac Henderson, Dr. Jerome Chase, Senator Daniel, Attorney General and Mrs. Harmon and Miss Virginia Williams.

ONE NIGHT ENOUGH

Gaithersburg Instead of a Cell.

JUDGE SCOTT DIRECTED THE WAY

Points of the Procession That Passed in the Police Court.

SINNERS GET SENTENCED

One night in a police cell is enough to make any man change his mind, and Charles Steele did not prove an exception to this rule. Last evening the young man was tired and hungry and when he met Policeman Elsworth he said to him that he would like to go down on the farm.

Police Officer Elsworth talked to Steele and advised him that he had better go to work and earn his living, but the young man seemed to be worried over something that he did not care to tell, and he was so persistent that the officer accompanied him to the station and locked him up.

"Not guilty," he answered in a tone of voice indicating that he meant just what he said. His plea was a surprise both to the court and the officer, but the prisoner said he had changed his mind.

"Where do you belong?" "I've been away," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

ONE NIGHT ENOUGH

Gaithersburg Instead of a Cell.

JUDGE SCOTT DIRECTED THE WAY

Points of the Procession That Passed in the Police Court.

SINNERS GET SENTENCED

One night in a police cell is enough to make any man change his mind, and Charles Steele did not prove an exception to this rule. Last evening the young man was tired and hungry and when he met Policeman Elsworth he said to him that he would like to go down on the farm.

Police Officer Elsworth talked to Steele and advised him that he had better go to work and earn his living, but the young man seemed to be worried over something that he did not care to tell, and he was so persistent that the officer accompanied him to the station and locked him up.

"Not guilty," he answered in a tone of voice indicating that he meant just what he said. His plea was a surprise both to the court and the officer, but the prisoner said he had changed his mind.

"Where do you belong?" "I've been away," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

ONE NIGHT ENOUGH

Gaithersburg Instead of a Cell.

JUDGE SCOTT DIRECTED THE WAY

Points of the Procession That Passed in the Police Court.

SINNERS GET SENTENCED

One night in a police cell is enough to make any man change his mind, and Charles Steele did not prove an exception to this rule. Last evening the young man was tired and hungry and when he met Policeman Elsworth he said to him that he would like to go down on the farm.

Police Officer Elsworth talked to Steele and advised him that he had better go to work and earn his living, but the young man seemed to be worried over something that he did not care to tell, and he was so persistent that the officer accompanied him to the station and locked him up.

"Not guilty," he answered in a tone of voice indicating that he meant just what he said. His plea was a surprise both to the court and the officer, but the prisoner said he had changed his mind.

"Where do you belong?" "I've been away," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

"Not guilty," he answered, "and now I am on my way to Gaithersburg, where my mother lives."

Cleveland's Baking Powder.

The best that money can buy. It's easy to make. The recipe is in the Cleveland cook book, which will be MAILED FREE on receipt of stamp and address.