

LATE NEWS BY WIRE

An Interstate Commerce Law Proposed for Mexico.

GENERAL SYMPATHY FOR CUBA

Gossip About the Latest Challenge for America's Cup.

DIVIDING THE PROFITS

CITY OF MEXICO, September 21.—A bill is before congress providing for an amendment of the federal constitution which would restrict the right of trading or impeding the transit of foreign or native merchandise introduced into their respective jurisdictions, and providing that no state may establish local duties with the ostensible purpose of protection to local industries.

Might Help Cuba.

The Raza Latina newspaper intimates that Manager Verona of the National Bank, who is a Cuban, might use the bank's vast accumulation of dollars to aid his compatriots. The suggestion is ridiculed in business circles.

The Anti-Catholic Party.

The Home Journal, a leading journal of the Mexican A. P. A. organization, known as the constitutional reformer, assails the Catholic Church as the author of every great misfortune that has fallen on the country.

Coming to Washington.

The government has decided to transfer Jose Godoy, its charge d'affaires at Guatemala, to Washington, in recognition of his valuable services in the late question between Mexico and that country.

THE AMERICA'S CUP.

Another Challenge for a Race in 1896.

LONDON, September 21.—Mr. Grant, secretary of the Royal Yacht Squadron, is authority for the statement that Mr. Chas. D. Ross has been invited to the cup committee of the New York Yacht Club for a race for the America's cup.

NEW YORK, September 21.—Charles Rose, a son of Sir John Rose of London, has accepted a challenge for a race in 1896 to ex-Commodore John D. Smith, chairman of the cup committee of the New York Yacht Club, for the America's cup.

The challenge was turned over to the New York Yacht Club. It cannot be forced on, because it was not made in the proper form.

Mr. Iselin was seen at his home at Fremont Point, where he is preparing to sail for a race in English waters.

Mr. Rose's challenge was made through the Royal Yacht Squadron, and Secretary Grant is not in possession of any of its details.

CANT AGREE.

No Referee Chosen Today for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight.

NEW YORK, September 21.—No referee has yet been selected for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. This morning W. A. Brady, representing Corbett; Martin Julian, for Fitzsimmons, and Joe Vendig, for the Florida Athletic Club, met, and, after three hours of wrangling, decided upon nothing.

Mr. Iselin said that he would have a referee named until the day preceding the battle. Vendig implored both representatives to come to a decision.

"No," said the representative of the Florida Athletic Club, "I have named the day we want, and that's all."

Brady refused to accept "Yank" Sullivan, saying that Sullivan had written insulting letters to Corbett several other names were suggested, among them, "Doc" and Herman Oelrichs, but Julian refused to consider them. There was a good deal of further talk, but nothing resulted.

DIVIDING THE EARNINGS.

The Bond Syndicate Quits Business

NEW YORK, September 21.—The managers of the government bond syndicate have taken action which is regarded as a formal dissolution of the syndicate, the government having no longer any need of its services. The managers sent out checks which were received by the members of the syndicate this morning, giving them the profits of the operation of the syndicate, the members having already received the principal, which they had placed in the hands of the managers. The exact percentage of profit is not at present obtainable, but it is understood that after allowing interest on the money for the period of the operation, the syndicate has made a profit of about 10 per cent.

CHOLERA IN CHINA.

Over Two Thousand Deaths a Day in Peking.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 21.—W. E. Curtis of Chicago, former executive officer of the syndicate, has just arrived here from China and Japan. He describes the ravages of cholera in China as something frightful. The deaths in Peking average 2,000 a day, and in Shanghai the mortality is very high. Eighteen foreigners have died in the latter city.

Mr. Curtis said that the cholera is confined almost exclusively to the native Chinese. In Peking, where only a few foreigners reside, he heard of no deaths among the white population. In Tien Tsin only one death among the foreign population had been reported up to the hour he left China. In Shanghai, where the cholera has arrived here from China and Japan, he describes the ravages of cholera in China as something frightful.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Geo. F. Ellis and Mattie E. Alexander, and Edward Williams of Manassas, Va., and Alice Newman of Fairfax county, Va.

BOVA-FIDE CIRCULATION.

A reference to the statement below will show that the circulation sworn to is a bona fide one. It is easily possible for a newspaper with an elastic conscience to swell its legitimate circulation enormously, in order to deceive advertisers, by sending out thousands of papers to newstands, which are returned, and which are in fact returned, but nevertheless are included in what purports to be an honest statement of circulation.

Intelligent advertisers, however, judge by results, and bogus circulations don't give them.

The circulation of The Star is many thousands in excess of any other Washington paper and is believed to be fully five times that of any afternoon contemporary.

Circulation of The "Evening Star."

Table showing circulation figures for The Evening Star from Saturday, Sept. 14, 1895, to Friday, Sept. 20, 1895. Includes daily average and total figures.

I solemnly swear that the above statement represents only the number of copies of The Evening Star circulated during the six secular days ending Friday, September 20, 1895—that is, the number of copies actually sold, delivered, furnished or mailed, for valuable consideration, to bona fide purchasers or subscribers, and that none of the copies so counted are returnable or remain in the office unsold.

J. WHIT, HERRON, Cashier Evening Star Newspaper Co. Subscribed and sworn to before me this twenty-first day of September, A. D. 1895.

JESSE W. RAWLINGS, Notary Public, D. C.

ITS FIRST MASS MEETING

Formal Beginning of Work of the District Christian Endeavor Union.

Reports of the Old Officers and Promises of the New—An Encouraging Showing.

What will in all probability hereafter be known as Talmage's Church was last night filled with young people of the Christian Endeavor Union of the District, and that in spite of the excited state of the thermometer. The occasion was the first mass meeting of the District Union for the fall term, as well as the first held under the direction of the new officers of the union, who only recently assumed the positions and responsibilities to which they were elected.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

THE JUNIOR UNION'S WORK.

Rev. E. B. Bagby, president of the Junior Christian Endeavor Union of the District, was called on to give a resume of the work accomplished among the junior societies in the administration just closed. He reported the union to be in a flourishing condition, comprising forty-eight junior societies, with a membership of 2,000.

OVERSEAS GOSSIP

The Week's Output in Sports, Drama, Literature and Love.

ROBERTSON'S "ROMEO AND JULIET"

The Defender to Have Several Competitors.

NEW TURF SCANDAL

Special London Cable Letter.

LONDON, September 21 (copyrighted).—The international yacht race controversy has had its place in the top of the news, with the London publication of the full correspondence between the Earl of Dunraven on one side, and the cup committee of the New York Yacht Club and Mr. Iselin on the other, a decided change of sentiment has come over English yachtsmen.

The teachers have returned to town, some from Europe, some from the mountains, some from the seashore and others from many distant parts of the country. The teachers' meetings, the fifth of the series, will be held on Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the public schools of the District of Columbia, at an end. Monday morning next at 9 o'clock the pupils will assemble for the first time since 1893-94 will be running smoothly, to continue, with but few brief interruptions, for nine full months.

The teachers have returned to town, some from Europe, some from the mountains, some from the seashore and others from many distant parts of the country. The teachers' meetings, the fifth of the series, will be held on Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the public schools of the District of Columbia, at an end.

Activity in an unusual degree has been apparent about the school buildings since 9 o'clock this morning, and in some places it is to be kept up until late this afternoon. This was the day the fifth division being the first to assemble, that gathering taking place at the Curtis school at 9 a. m., the others following at the Denison, Frankfort, and other schools.

Superintendent Powell's force who did not include in an outing of some sort since the close of the summer months, and are all on hand today, browned and greatly refreshed, and in complete readiness to begin and to continue the training of the young idea.

Defender's Chance. If Defender should come to the Mediterranean, he would find plenty of competitors. Mr. E. D. Rose has bought Satanika, which, with Britannica, Ailsa and Calunna, goes to the Mediterranean.

Something approaching a turf scandal has arisen on account of the extraordinary lightness of the handicap upon Florio, immediately after the acceptance for the Casarwitch stakes were published 6 to 1 was freely taken on Florio. One writer says that the only possible solution was a change in the handicap.

An English Fraud. It now comes to light that Geoffrey Perkins, who long figured in the English papers as an American journalist and lawyer, and whose career was interrupted this week by a sentence of ten years' imprisonment for swindling, was born in Kent, England. A few years ago Perkins became a member of the London and County Club, and since then he has attempted some species of swindling upon nearly every well-known American who has come to London.

Possibly Lady Churchill. A mysterious paragraph is going the rounds of the newspapers to the effect that the engagement will shortly be announced of an officer of the guards to the widow of a titled member of parliament, recently deceased. It is stated that the lady is beautiful and beautiful. It is supposed that the woman alluded to is Lady Randolph Churchill.

A Seaside Sporting Resort. King Leopold of Belgium has sold to Col. North, the "nitrate king," a mile of the sea front of Ostend, the sum paid being $15,000. It is said that the nitrate king intends to found there an international sporting club, which will be a center of horse racing, glove fighting and athletics generally, with a theater, gambling rooms, public gardens, etc.

THE LITTLE FELLOWS. THE FIFTEEN-FOOTERS Contesting for OSTER BAY, L. September 21.—The beautiful club house of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club on Central Island at the entrance of this harbor was the scene of great life and animation today. Yachtsmen were there by the score, and there were many ladies in the crowd.

By far the greatest dramatic event of recent years will occur this evening in the production of "Romeo and Juliet," at the Lyceum. It is stated that no less a sum than $20,000 has been expended by Forbes Robertson upon this venture, and it goes without saying that the mounting of the play, the costumes and the accessories will be of the most elaborate.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

NEXT MONDAY MORNING

The Regular Term of the Public Schools Will Begin.

Teachers' Meetings Held Today—Superintendent Powell Makes Many Addresses—For Manual Training.

Although the condition of the atmosphere would indicate to the contrary, vacation, so far as it applies to the public schools of the District of Columbia, is at an end. Monday morning next at 9 o'clock the pupils will assemble for the first time since 1893-94 will be running smoothly, to continue, with but few brief interruptions, for nine full months.

The teachers have returned to town, some from Europe, some from the mountains, some from the seashore and others from many distant parts of the country. The teachers' meetings, the fifth of the series, will be held on Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the public schools of the District of Columbia, at an end.

Activity in an unusual degree has been apparent about the school buildings since 9 o'clock this morning, and in some places it is to be kept up until late this afternoon. This was the day the fifth division being the first to assemble, that gathering taking place at the Curtis school at 9 a. m., the others following at the Denison, Frankfort, and other schools.

Superintendent Powell's force who did not include in an outing of some sort since the close of the summer months, and are all on hand today, browned and greatly refreshed, and in complete readiness to begin and to continue the training of the young idea.

Defender's Chance. If Defender should come to the Mediterranean, he would find plenty of competitors. Mr. E. D. Rose has bought Satanika, which, with Britannica, Ailsa and Calunna, goes to the Mediterranean.

Something approaching a turf scandal has arisen on account of the extraordinary lightness of the handicap upon Florio, immediately after the acceptance for the Casarwitch stakes were published 6 to 1 was freely taken on Florio. One writer says that the only possible solution was a change in the handicap.

An English Fraud. It now comes to light that Geoffrey Perkins, who long figured in the English papers as an American journalist and lawyer, and whose career was interrupted this week by a sentence of ten years' imprisonment for swindling, was born in Kent, England. A few years ago Perkins became a member of the London and County Club, and since then he has attempted some species of swindling upon nearly every well-known American who has come to London.

Possibly Lady Churchill. A mysterious paragraph is going the rounds of the newspapers to the effect that the engagement will shortly be announced of an officer of the guards to the widow of a titled member of parliament, recently deceased. It is stated that the lady is beautiful and beautiful. It is supposed that the woman alluded to is Lady Randolph Churchill.

A Seaside Sporting Resort. King Leopold of Belgium has sold to Col. North, the "nitrate king," a mile of the sea front of Ostend, the sum paid being $15,000. It is said that the nitrate king intends to found there an international sporting club, which will be a center of horse racing, glove fighting and athletics generally, with a theater, gambling rooms, public gardens, etc.

THE LITTLE FELLOWS. THE FIFTEEN-FOOTERS Contesting for OSTER BAY, L. September 21.—The beautiful club house of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club on Central Island at the entrance of this harbor was the scene of great life and animation today. Yachtsmen were there by the score, and there were many ladies in the crowd.

By far the greatest dramatic event of recent years will occur this evening in the production of "Romeo and Juliet," at the Lyceum. It is stated that no less a sum than $20,000 has been expended by Forbes Robertson upon this venture, and it goes without saying that the mounting of the play, the costumes and the accessories will be of the most elaborate.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while he was in Mary Anderson's company he fell deeply in love with her, and that they were at one time engaged.

Mr. Robertson's starring character and individuality are from an influential position, and the interest in tonight's performance is something unprecedented. The play is being produced by the Lyceum, which is supported by Mary Anderson and Henry Irving on the other side of the Atlantic. In this connection an old story is recalled that while