possibilities our enormous business, stock and manufacturing facilities place at your disposal. We are "specialists"—our entire establishment is exclusively devoted to the making of to-order clothes for boys, youths and men. Handling, as we do, everything that is dependable in woollens for masculine wear, from the humblest grades to the most luxurious demanded by the exactions of "fin de siècle" tailoring, we especially solicit even very trifling orders from those who have not hitherto dealt with us, and for this eminently cogent reason—small buyers supremely satisfied, soon expand into larger buyers, and the occasional customer, encountering fair treatment, rapidly becomes much less "occasional." THE NEW JUDGE OF THE INDIAN TERRITORY Accused of Several Things. Judge Kilgore, erstwhile of Texas, but now of Indian territory, is undergoing an experience new to him, but common to older officials in the territories. Charges have been filed at the Department of Justice against Judge Kilgore, and a copy has been sent to him for such explanation as he desires to make. The charges were preferred by an attorney named Davis, who has practiced in Judge Kilgore's court. The Texas jurist is charged, first, with a lack of legal knowledge necessary in a judge; second, with wholly original and inexhaustible methods of court procedure, and third, with favoritism to some young attorney named Edly, who, it is said, the judge employs as a legal adviser to the court and pays him by allowing him exorbitant fees for work, giving him a complete monopoly of small court work, such as acting as referee and commissioner in various cases.

Stories for Saturday. Saturday's Star will contain complete another of Anthony Hope's charming tales of the heart of Princess Osra, entitled "The Love of the Princess of Glottenburg." The Citizens' Association Talks About Grade of Thirteenth Street. Lively Discussion Which Brought Out Differing Views—Mrs. Logan's Interest in the Street.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association, last evening, in St. Stephen's Parish Hall, a lively discussion took place respecting the 13th street hill, from Boundary to Clifton streets. No motion was made in the matter, however, and an adjournment of the association cut short what, at one time, threatened to develop into a heated argument.

The president of the association, Mr. M. A. Ballinger, a resident and owner of land on Clifton near 13th street, called the attention of the association to the efforts made by the Commission on the evening of the 4th of last month, in the District to grade the street, that being done, the streets paved with blocks, stating that the secretary, Mr. George Simmons, was circulating a petition, which had been signed by Senator Sherman and other property owners in Columbia Heights, requesting the Commission to order the District to grade the street. That being done, the streets paved with blocks, stating that the secretary, Mr. George Simmons, was circulating a petition, which had been signed by Senator Sherman and other property owners in Columbia Heights, requesting the Commission to order the District to grade the street.

Cutting Down Thirteenth Street. Just then Mr. C. M. Campbell remarked that before anything else was done he desired to suggest that it would be well for the association to first have the hill on 13th street between Boundary and Clifton cut down, that the very steep grade it presents might be corrected. In his opinion, he said, and in the opinion of not a few well informed real estate dealers, the hill is a serious obstacle to the growth and development of Columbia Heights. The failure to correct the grade bears ago, asserted Mr. Campbell, had been due to the opposition of John A. Logan, who resided then, as she does now, at 13th and Clifton streets. Years ago, said Mr. Campbell, Congress appropriated a sum for the proper grading of the hill, but through the influence of Mrs. Logan, and the opposition of the property owners, was never done, and the money appropriated was turned back into the United States treasury. Senator Sherman, he had seen told, desired the hill to be graded, but did not wish to oppose Mrs. Logan's wishes in the matter. But Senator Sherman's agent, Mr. Campbell, he was surprised that the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association had not long ago demanded the Commission to order the District to grade the street. He explained also that he had been informed that the District Commissioners proposed to grade the hill by an S-shaped curve, a build which would have to be acquired at a cost of $400,000. While he personally held Mrs. Logan in high esteem, Mr. Campbell remarked, he did not believe in permitting her personal wishes to stand in the way of a great and badly needed improvement.

Antagonistic Citizens. President Ballinger stated that not only had the association requested that the hill be paved and 13th street asphalted, but so had Senator Sherman and Mr. Paul. Of course, if the association now wished to do as Mr. Campbell suggested it could, but he wished to say that in so doing it would be regarded as a proper assent on 13th and Clifton streets. He frankly confessed that among them he would be included, but he thought it unwise to disturb the grade of those streets, especially as the District Commissioners had proposed to grade the hill by raising 13th street from its present level to the level of the hill.

Nevertheless, Mr. Campbell insisted that the hill was practically impassable, and that the plan mentioned by Mr. Ballinger would prove too expensive and would not be feasible. He stated that the hill would greatly enhance the value of Columbia Heights property, he thought, and he desired to see it graded, and with him that the hill should be cut down.

For and Against. Capt. Patrick O'Ferrall agreed with Mr. Campbell that the grade should be corrected, and he said it was true that Mrs. Logan's opposition and influence had prevented it years ago, and had turned the hill into a narrow and dangerous street. He stated that the hill should be cut down, and he said it was true that Mrs. Logan's opposition and influence had prevented it years ago, and had turned the hill into a narrow and dangerous street.

Notes. The total amount of flour inspected by Mr. R. H. Hancock, deputy inspector, for the week ending September 30, was 7,610 barrels. Eliza Frazier has sold a lot on the east side of West street, south of Queen, to J. M. Frazier for $75.00.

Accidental Shooting. Romie Essex, a small colored boy about thirteen years of age, living in this city, was accidentally shot last night by his brother Garfield. He had found a small sized pistol which carries only one bullet. He made several unsuccessful attempts to discharge it in an apartment, but the bullet failed to go off. He then turned it over to his brother Garfield, who was sitting on the floor. He fired it, and the bullet struck Romie in the stomach. The little fellow fell to the ground and was later carried to the Alexandria Infirmary, where Dr. Smith, Snowden and Purvis were summoned. They could not locate the ball, as the little fellow was too weak to stand an operation, but it was seen that internal hit. There were at the time, Garfield Essex, his brother, is locked up at the station house, and Mayor Thompson will examine into the case in the morning.

Fatted to Meet. There was to have been a meeting of the board of fire wardens yesterday evening at 5 o'clock at the Hydraulion engine house, but for reasons unknown none of the wardens put in an appearance. The paid men of the Columbia engine company and truck company had been ordered to appear before the board to answer the charge of not turning in the alarm Sunday before leaving their houses for the night. Foreman George Pratt was presented with a beautiful fire hat for having sold the largest number of tickets at the entertainment given by the company some time ago.

Messrs. Semmes & Bro. have been awarded the contract for rebuilding the exercise wagon for the fire department.

A Sunday School Entertainment. The primary department of Washington R. C. Church had a delightful time last evening in the lecture room of the church, the occasion being the fall reunion of the primary department of the Sunday school. Refreshments were served, and after music and a short address by the pastor, Rev. E. Olin Edgington, the gathering broke up, every body acknowledging that a good and pleasant time had been had. This branch of Washington Sunday school, under the superintendency of Mrs. W. W. Dyer, was organized by Miss Lydia Waldo and Miss Fannie Nardone, is doing excellent work.

For Divorce. A petition for divorce from John E. Mahoney has been filed by Mary C. Mahoney. The parties were married February 28, 1888, and the husband is charged with willfully deserting his wife November 1, 1891.

Children Shrink from taking medicine. They don't like its taste. But they are eager to take what they like—Scott's Emulsion, for instance. Children almost always like Scott's Emulsion.

And it does them good. Scott's Emulsion is the easiest, most palatable form of Cod-liver Oil, with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda added to nourish the bones and tone up the nervous system. The way children gain flesh and strength on Scott's Emulsion is surprising even to physicians.

All delicate children need it. Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute! Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c and $1.

MILLIKEN NOT ARRAIGNED. That Formality Delayed Until the Time of Trial. Benjamin H. Milliken, the young man who is under indictment for housebreaking, in entering the residence of Judge Samuel F. Phillips on the evening of the 4th of last July, with intent to criminally assault Miss Gertrude Phillips, was not arraigned in the Criminal Court today. In explanation of the non-appearance of Milliken today, District Attorney Birney stated that the young man would not be arraigned in the early part of the day, but that the trial will take place, Mr. Birney expects, some time next month, probably in the early part of the month of August. The arraignment of Milliken to appear today for arraignment was the result of an agreement reached between the district attorney and the defense on the subject, Judge Milliken of the Post Office Department. The day of $3,000 given by the young man the day of his arrest in the case of the assault on Miss Gertrude Phillips, was not arraigned here when wanted by the authorities.

Says That the Ocean Cannot Be Seen From the Washington Monument. To the Editor of the Evening Star: While enjoying the magnificent view obtainable from the windows in the top of Washington monument, I heard a visitor exclaim, "They say you can see the ocean from here on a clear day." On my return from the monument, I was told that the view on the subject and found this statement on page 65: "On the west range of vision is bounded by the Allegheny mountains, and on the south it extends to the Chesapeake bay and across it to the ocean."

That the statements quoted above are incorrect in the matter capable of both occur and mathematical demonstration. If the ocean can ever be seen from the top of the Washington monument, then Laurel, Gaithersburg, Rockville, Hyattsville, Baltimore and other places nearer than the ocean shore could be seen. As a matter of fact, Alexandria is the only place outside the District which is visible. The Atlantic ocean is nowhere nearer to Washington than 120 miles.

To find, then, how far one could see from the windows of the monument, if it stood on the seashore, here is the natural curvature of the earth's surface would hide an object at the water level from view. It is only necessary to reverse the above rule. If the distance from the monument to the water is thirty feet, above tide water, the work would be as follows: $30^2 = 900$. $900 \div 8 = 112.5$. Extract the square root of 112.5, and you have 10.6 miles. If it were a remarkably clear day and no woods or hills intervened to cut off the view. That is, the distance from the monument to the water is thirty feet, above tide water, the work would be as follows: $30^2 = 900$. $900 \div 8 = 112.5$. Big Money for an Imagination. A little exercise of your imagination may be worth five hundred dollars in gold to you. Read the particulars in another column of The Star's great mystery story, "When the War Was Over," by Frederick R. Burton.

A Sunday School Entertainment. The primary department of Washington R. C. Church had a delightful time last evening in the lecture room of the church, the occasion being the fall reunion of the primary department of the Sunday school. Refreshments were served, and after music and a short address by the pastor, Rev. E. Olin Edgington, the gathering broke up, every body acknowledging that a good and pleasant time had been had. This branch of Washington Sunday school, under the superintendency of Mrs. W. W. Dyer, was organized by Miss Lydia Waldo and Miss Fannie Nardone, is doing excellent work.

For Divorce. A petition for divorce from John E. Mahoney has been filed by Mary C. Mahoney. The parties were married February 28, 1888, and the husband is charged with willfully deserting his wife November 1, 1891.

Armenian Troubles. The Turkish legation has received a telegram from the minister of foreign affairs of Turkey, saying: "I beg to inform you that acting under the instigation of certain Armenian agitators, a riotous gathering was formed in the city and in the neighborhood of the Armenian patriarchate. Thanks to the measures taken the city is perfectly calm."

Only One Bidder. There was only one bidder for making the new Lee rifles for the navy, namely, the Winchester Repeating Firearms Company, at $7.00 per rifle for ten thousand arms. The contract was awarded to this company today.

A Story of Mystery. Do you know what a "Story of Mystery" is? It is a continued story of which all but the last chapter is printed, and then guesses are made as to the solution, then the final installment is printed.
