HAVE FRIENDS.

Frank Lewis, alias Dr. Field, and Fred Nelson, alias a man of many names, who are in jail for the alleged use of "knock-out" drops here a few days ago, are not without friends and funds. They have been identified as the men who figured in "knock-out" cases in other cities, and are wanted by the authorities at these different places.

The Success of the Recent Fair.—The annual meeting of the Washington Hebrew congregation was held yesterday morning at the temple on 8th street near H. It was an unusually interesting and important meeting, for, in addition to the annual election of officers, the matter of the erection of a new temple commensurate with the wealth and dignity of the congregation came up for consideration.

The Ice Palace.—During the carnival at the Convention Hall Ice Palace, which is to be given for the benefit of the Washington endowment fund of the Home for the Deaf, the record for three miles was broken by a team of three horses.
