FOR HARRY WRIGHT

Day Set Apart in Memory of the Dead Manager.

FATHER OF PROFESSIONAL-BASE BALL.

Preparing for Trap Shooters' Tournament.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES

This is Harry Wright day throughout the base ball world, and the proceeds derived from the exhibition games will be deposited as a nucleus of a fund for the erection of a monument to Harry Wright. The local attraction will be a game between the Washingtons and a picked nine consisting of the star players of the Departmental League.

President Sousa, of the latter organization, has selected the team of amateurs, as follows: McCauley, s.s.; Leach, 2d b.; Fuller, c.f.; Dickinson, 1st b.; Wisner, 3d b.; Nichols, c.; Barrows, l.f.; Brego, r.f.; Bernard, p. Substitutes, Gleason, Springman, Barrett, Kleinschmidt, Kellar, Ruppert, Havens and Harris.

The fund is a worthy one, and Washington should not be behind the other cities in its contribution, as the city has always been an admirer of the late general manager. Game will be called at 4:15.

Harry Wright's Career.
Harry Wright made his first appearance in a match game of base ball in 1858, in a contest between picked nines of New York and Brooklyn. After seven years' service at the bat, Wright, in 1865, accepted the position of professional to the old Cincinnati Cricket Club, but two years later he was attacked with the base ball fever, so as a cure he cast his lot with the Cincinnati ball tossers.

In 1868 he conceived the plan of professionalism and organized the afterward fashionable Cincinnati Red Stockings, which brought to him the title of which he was ever proud, that of "the father of professional base ball."

The following year he made that historic record with his new team, a record which has never since been equaled in the turf arena, for, as captain and manager of the original model professional base ball team of America, he won with every game they played, traveling in all parts of the compass, even as far as California.

Soon after the disbandment of the Red Stockings Harry Wright accepted an offer to take a team of Boston players under his wing, and then began the career of the equally famous Boston Red Stockings.

From all appearances the Baltimore club never had a pitching corps to compare with its present one—Baltimore Sun.
Carlton, Molesworth of Frederick has been "farmed" by the Washington team to the Rockford (Ill.) club.

OLYMPIC VICTORS DINED.
King George Toasts Those Who Aided in the Restoration of the Stadium.

The festival at Athens in honor of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the independence of Greece continues, though most of the important athletic events have been decided. A reception was given yesterday at the palace in honor of the victors in the games, the guests at which included the members of the various committees connected with the festival and correspondents of foreign newspapers and representatives of the local press. All the members of the British and American teams were present.

After the luncheon King George, who made such liberal donations for the restoration of the Stadium, as well as other donors to the same purpose, the Crown Prince Constantine and Princess George and Nicholas, who also said they hoped the foreign athletes present would proclaim abroad the success of the games and the evidences they had seen of Greek progress.

TRAP SHOOTERS' TOURNAMENT.
Preparations Completed for the Big Meeting at Rockville.

A large attendance of sportsmen, including all the well-known trap shooters of this city, Baltimore and the intervening country, will be present at the tournament of the Rockville Rod and Gun Club, which will take place next Friday and Saturday at the grounds of the association at Rockville, Md. The proceeds of the tournament will be devoted to the purchasing of quail for replenishing the once-thickly populated covers of Montgomery county, and the club, in anticipation of a successful meeting, has already brought from the west two hundred quail, which have been released within a radius of eight or ten miles around Rockville. The shooting will begin each day at 10 o'clock, and there will be ten events, two of which will have prizes of merchandise attached to them, and the purses for the entrance money. The purses will be divided into three moneys of $0, $0 and 20 cent each, and all the will be divided except in the merchandise events, which are to be twenty-five clay pigeons, each with a small entrance fee of seventy-five cents. The other events of the program, the program for both days being the same: No. 1, entrance $1.50, fifteen birds; No. 2, entrance $2.00, ten birds; No. 3, entrance $2.50, ten birds; No. 4, entrance $2.20, twenty birds; No. 5, entrance $2.00, twenty birds; No. 6, entrance $2.00, twenty birds; No. 7, entrance $2.00, twenty birds; No. 8, entrance $2.00, twenty birds; No. 9, entrance $2.00, twenty birds; No. 10, entrance $2.00, twenty birds. It is probable that several other events may be arranged in the meantime, and it is among the possibilities that a team match will be made up, in which squads from the Capital City Gun Club, the Baltimore and Laurel clubs and the Rockville Gun Club will shoot for supremacy and a substantial purse. Five traps will be used.

Capitol Hill Club's Run.
The Capitol Hill Cycle Club held its first run yesterday. The start was at the club rooms, corner 4th and East Capitol streets.

Capt. George Barnes led his men to Brightwood, Silver Spring, Coleville, Forest Glen and Sligo. Among those on the run were J. Johnson, D. P. McKeever, G. Cecil Foster, J. P. Keleher, J. McKnight and others.

Eastern Athletic Club.
The board of directors of the Eastern Athletic Club have been busy furnishing the new quarters of the club sumptuously, and when completed the rooms will equal those of any club in the city.

The organization of the base ball team is going on at a good rate, and the candidates for the team are given plenty of outdoor practice. Thomas Ellis will act as manager, and his co-lie is a likely lot of ball tossers.

The gymnasium classes are pulling up wonderfully, and a public exhibition can shortly be looked for. Under the instruction of Prof. Weisbader, the athletes are making the most of their time. A. H. Herrell is rapidly developing into a fine athlete, the best in the club, and his work on the parallel bars is particularly good.

Results in the Golf Tournament.
The finals in the handicap hole match of the Washington Golf Club spring tournament were played Saturday at the links. The game was a close contest, Mitchell leading Wylie and winning the silver loving cup, which was given by Senator McMillan.

The medal play, stroke match took place on the links yesterday. The contest was a close one, and the driving contest for a box of golf balls and a putting contest for a putter, Saturday a handicap hole match for a silver cup will be played by the ladies.

The Clearwater-De Oro Pool Match.
The pool championship of the world will be decided in Pittsburgh in a series of games on April 23, 24 and 25, between the present champion, W. H. Clearwater of Pittsburgh, and Alfred De Oro of Cuba. De Oro lost the championship to Clearwater in the Syracuse tournament.

Maher and Slavin Matched.
Maher and Slavin met on the links at Pittsburg yesterday to fight before the Eureka Club of Long Island on May 29 for a purse of $5,000, of which $1,000 is to go to the loser. The match is to be for twenty rounds.

Bowling at the C. A. C.
The first assignment of the first series in the Columbia Athletic Club cocked hat bowling tournament, rolled a set of four games Saturday evening, high scores being the rule of the evening. Meyer led with a score of 117, Smith second, 107, and Deaneas third, 105.

Cyclists in the C. A. C.
A recent count at the Columbia Athletic Club showed that nearly one hundred of its members were wheelmen. The number is considered sufficiently large to enable the club to organize a healthy, active wheeling division, and with that end in view a meeting of all members owning bicycles has been called for Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. A number of propositions of interest to all wheelmen will be presented and a mammoth club run arranged.

Preparing for the Whist Congress.
The whist players of the Capital Bicycle Club have begun preparing for the congress to be held at Brooklyn next June. The club will be represented by at least two teams at the congress. The contest Saturday evening resembled those held Saturday evening in honor of the victors in the games. The entries, however, were by fours. Two of each four played all the north and south hands; their partners played the east and west hands. The more the four came out ahead, but this is probably as much due to the fact that the team was the strongest one participating as to the system of play adopted. Comparisons were also made by pairs, by ascertaining how many tricks each pair made plus or minus the average for the hand. The following shows the score by pairs and fours:

NATIONAL FEELING OPPOSED.
Gen. Booth Wanted, It is Claimed, to Eradicate It From the Salvation Army.

Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth gave out a statement in New York last night, in which the differences with Gen. Booth of the Salvation Army are detailed. They say, in part:
"Gen. Booth's visit was the primary cause of the trouble between us and himself. From the first to last he impressed us with his displeasure and dissatisfaction with us personally and with our method of administering affairs."
"For years we have been consulted on the important moves and innovations of the army, although supposed to be two of its most prominent and responsible officers."
"During his last interview with us in America the Gen. told us that he wished us to assist the struggling work in Canada by giving up a certain portion of the United States to be annexed to the dominion of the Gen. and his wife."
"Other well-known persons were consulted to further assist our comrades in Canada with money (having already helped them financially), but the Gen. would not consent to American territory to Canada was quite impracticable and would damage the work. Our arguments carried no weight, and the general considered them unreasonable."
"When we spoke of the national feeling he closed the conversation by drawing his finger down the map of North America in three sections, declaring that ultimately he intended to cut the country in three, joining each to a portion of Canada to break down all national feeling that existed. We said such division would ruin the work in this country, where the unbroken unity means so much."
"After the general returned to England a lengthened correspondence followed, in which we gave a number of reasons against this annexation."
"We loved and understood the country. He exhibited prejudice and misconception of it and its people. He objected to the display of the national flag upon our badges and in our halls and homes. He said the time had arrived to cease carrying the stars and stripes at the head of our parades. He objected to the use of the eagle upon our crests, and constantly spoke disparagingly of the country, its people and its institutions."
"They forced us to make the annexation, and at the present time the army work in Canada is being carried on by the Washington is governed from Toronto, and we have been told that the officers hard-ly know how to get their money from the Canadian headquarters. It was intended on our removal from command to divide this country so we had built up our headquarters a stone from each state to typify the Union, one and inseparable."

A Ten-Strike!

Yes, there it rolls! It struck the King Pin fair and square and mowed down the others like chaff before the wind. Our efforts have been appreciated and successful. The encouragement and patronage so liberally bestowed upon us proves conclusively that you have had enough of "brag" and "bluster," "fakeism," "bankrupt" sales, "misfit" sales, high prices, "fog-ism," &c. You are tired of being robbed—for that is all some of these sales have been—robbery—highway robbery—sales inaugurated for the sole purpose of bleeding the unsuspecting. Yet, in the face of all these illegitimate methods of competition, our business has gone steadily forward, showing a heavy increase every year, every season, and every month.

Our success has been the marvel of the Clothing business from the Atlantic to the Pacific. We began upon the edge of the panic, and although given but six to nine months to live by our well-wishing (?) rivals, we have stemmed the tide and moved steadily to the front, leaving them all frantically fighting for the second place. Size has little to do with it. Just as David slew Goliath with the stone, and "right" rather than might prevailed, just so have we passed them all, irrespective of size, because we have had "right" and "the public" on our side.

It is one thing to advertise and make a window display of low prices, but it's another thing to live up to them literally. We back up every advertisement and every window exhibit, no matter how low the price named, with the goods in the store, and are never "just out of your particular size at that price."

It is one thing to advertise to give the money back, and another thing to give it. We have made good our word on every occasion that has arisen—notably that of refunding the sum of $7 to every conductor and motorman of the Metropolitan line for Overcoats they had worn all the winter.

We have no immense stock of "truck" and "out-of-date" Clothing to "palm" off for spring styles. We have always closed out each season's stock at the close of that season, regardless of the loss.

We are now ready with the cleanest, richest and most stylish stock of Men's Suits, Overcoats and Athletic Goods to be found in the south.

No doubt you have noticed that in every case where we have come into competition with other clothiers for local contracts we have invariably secured the prize.

We are ready for you!
