Monday's Shopping Guide The Palais Royal.

If you read this Saturday evening it will be to the music of booming cannon and nerve-exciting firecrackers. The writer, too, is enjoying a holiday this glorious Fourth, but remember that this shopping guide was penned yesterday, when the main thought was to point to bargains for Monday that shall create business to make up for Saturday's holiday. And it is so easy to tell you of what are easily the best bargains of the season,—of the lots that the just completed "stock-taking" unerringly points to.

323 BEST SHIRT WAISTS LESS THAN COST PRICES.

Stock taking shows that we have 4,342 Best "Derby" Shirt Waists, of which 323 are "broken lots,"—lots of $1.48, $1.98, $2.25, $2.48 and $2.98 Waists lacking full complement of sizes or colors. This discovery means a little flood of bargains for you Monday. These 323 Waists are to go on first floor bargain tables in four grand lots as much for choice:—

Table with 4 columns: Lot 1 at 49c, Lot 2 at 68c, Lot 3 at 98c, Lot 4 at $1.39

The previous contents of these bargain tables are to skip from one to another like this:—The 68c lot goes to the 49c table, the 98c lot goes to the 68c table, the $1.39 lot goes to the 98c table—thus the old and the new bargains are made equally desirable to you.

White Swiss Waists.

Too many of them. Originally $2.08, then $2.48, now finally reduced to $2.25 each. They are Best Dotted Swiss Waists with detachable laundered linen collars and cuffs.

The "Soft" Waists.

Too many of the $1, $1.35 and $1.48 Waists. 79 cents for choice on Monday. Pinks, blues, greens in dimity and Persian designs and colorings in lawns. All sizes.

493 Women's Undergarments

Less Than Materials Cost.

The completion yesterday of "Stock taking" in this department shows that the best-selling lots are lacking sizes in certain styles. By combining these many lots we are enabled to offer all sizes in one style or another.

Table with 3 columns: Lot 1 at 35c, Lot 2 at 69c, Lot 3 at $1.33

Short Skirts made of best French cambric, and Paris Style Drawers, Corset Covers and Chemises, trimmed with best of laces and embroidery. You'll see that 35 cents is less than cost of materials,—and could the garments be made better, be more stylish or better shape? Look for them on third floor bargain tables.

Think of only 69c for Paris Style "Empire" Gowns, made of French cambric, with trimming of dainty embroidery. And you'll find the embroidery flounce on these Umbrella Skirts measures 138 inches. See the Ribbon and Lace-trimmed Corset Covers and Drawers,—only 69 cents for choice. First floor for all these.

Garments fit for brides,—they were made for brides, but a season's business has created havoc with them. Some sets are minus a garment, others show signs of handling,—but nothing can mar the filmy materials, the delicate beauty of the lace, embroidery and ribbon trimmings. You'll know $1.33 is less than cost.

Scarcest and Best Dress Goods.

Stocktaking shows the strong as well as the weak points of the various departments. We learn that the stock of Summer Dress Goods is only too large and that all the scarcest and most wanted colors are included. We wind up a most successful season with a profitable loss, preparatory to the selection of autumn goods.

Table with 3 columns: 5c for 12 1/2c Wash Goods, 15c for 37 1/2c Organdies, 16c for "Homespuns."

Choice of Charming Lawns, Dainty Dimities, Imported Percales and the beautiful and fashionable grass linen effects,—for only 5 cents yard. Samples on first floor bargain table. Thousands of yards on second floor—the coolest and best-lighted shopping spot in town.

The Genuine French Organdies with cream and tinted grounds, big and little figures,—the scarce and wanted effects and colors. These are 37 1/2c value for 15c. Those in plain colors—without the figures—are also 15c yard, though not worth more than 25 cents.

None of these were found when Stocktaking was completed yesterday,—but we can promise that if no railroad accident occurs we will gladden your eyes Monday morning with 5,000 yards, and only 16c yard for these scarce Linen Homespuns, the favorite of the grass linen family.

239 Parasols at Absurd Prices.

Stock taking shows but 239 Parasols are now here. And these last of thousands shall be distributed at prices that will lessen the profits of the season more than two hundred dollars.

Table with 3 columns: Lot 1 at 98c, Lot 2 at $2.98, Lot 3 at $3.98

Not many in this lot, but you'll recognize the best selling $2.48 Parasols, in Dresden silks and grass cloth effects. 98c for choice of these and a few Gloria and Pongee Umbrellas.

More than one hundred in this lot, not a few of them are the erstwhile $4.98 Parasols of white silk and chiffon, Dresden silk and embroidered grass linen.

In this lot are the "gems" of the season. Some are ticketed to sell at $9. And nearly a hundred to choose from, all different, but beauties, every one.

Bargains on All Five Floors.

The writer could give you a long list of bargains that will be waiting you on Monday—the result of stock-taking discoveries. Here are hints:

- Lists of bargains for various categories: Gloves, Corsets, Syringes, Suits, Skirts, Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Silk Vests, etc.

Crash Suits Laundered

A sensible style—this wearing of cool wash suits in summer time. Only one objection—they will get dirty and so few laundries know how to do them up!

You can trust us to launder it in our own inimitable style. We'll make it look better than when it first came out of the store. We mean both men's and women's. Drop a postal and our wagon will call.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

West End Getting a Little Bit Lonesome.

The Weddings Past and the Latest Announced.

SOME OTHER GOSSIP

The West End is pretty high deserted of its familiar faces, but nevertheless, a few of the wealthiest as well as the socially prominent are still here and show no desire to leave this for any other summer resort. A promenade through any of the big downtown shops will be the means of discovering any fine morning shoals of one's best friends, but any pretense of keeping up social diversion or amusement has long since been abandoned. The diplomatic world has not entirely scattered, nor will it until the Secretary of State has himself away for his summer outing. The families of the foreigners, however, are enjoying summer delights at the various resorts along the Atlantic's shores, showing just as much indecision over which was the best place to go as any of the native fashionables. Blessed indeed are those privileged souls who feel that the world is always centered where they may happen to be and can therefore remain at home until late and make their vacation lengthen out in the autumn. For the comfort and pleasure of the thousands of visitors here always centered where they may happen to be and can therefore remain at home until late and make their vacation lengthen out in the autumn.
