

democratic ticket, and that the responsibility of abandoning "outfitting humanity" lies with them. They doubt themselves and become hysterical, and finally settled down to a sort of stupefaction.

THE POPULISTS.

Bryan Put in Nomination by General Weaver.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 25.—Populist delegates with hoarse voices and red eyes were plentiful today. The enthusiastic, angry and excited yells in which they have been indulging for the last few days and loss of sleep began to show their effect.

Confusion on the Floor.

There was great confusion on the floor of the auditorium before the convention met. The delegates stood in an animated group discussing the situation and what it was best to do. The Bryan feeling was very strong, but the telegram from the Nebraska declaring that he would not accept the nomination rendered the situation chaotic.

The National Committee.

Chairman Allen announced that the first thing in order was the selection of members of the national committee and the committees to notify the candidates for President and Vice President. The hall presented a scene of confusion.

No Band of Music.

The band was not present, and there was no music. Sergeant-at-Arms McDowell, in explanation of the absence of this soothing influence, said the contract with the Business Men's League of St. Louis expired last night, and the league had not renewed it.

Nominating Bryan.

The chairman then called for the nominations of President, and Judge Green of Nebraska took the stage to place Mr. Bryan in nomination. He said the convention was organized to nominate a man for president.

Mr. Bryan's Refusal.

"Mr. Chairman—I arise before you this morning, in my judgment, facing the most critical period that has ever occurred in the populist party. I know that I have in my own way an aspiration or lingering desire to do as much for my country as any one word in this presence that would militate against the growth and strength of the populist party."

BONA-FIDE CIRCULATION.

A reference to the statement below will show that the circulation sworn to is a bona fide one.

It is easily possible for a newspaper with an elastic conscience to swell its legitimate circulation enormously, in order to deceive advertisers, by sending out thousands of papers to newstands, which are returnable, and which are in fact returned, but nevertheless are included in what purports to be an honest statement of circulation.

ulation and strengthen the army of our common adversary.

"If you allow the present happy juncture to pass, all the heroic work of twenty years will be thrown away. The case of Mr. Bryan will disappear in the momentous conflict just when it should be stretched forth to steady the ark of our covenant, and should have been the great opportunity of capacity to grasp the great opportunity, and lacking in strength to grasp it, will produce a result which will be a gallant champion in the field, who is leading a revolt against the plutocracy of Chicago, and who is leading a revolt against the plutocracy of Chicago, and who is leading a revolt against the plutocracy of Chicago."

Cheers for Bryan.

Gen. Weaver in an opening remark asked the convention not to applaud and the delegates listened to him without much demonstration. But when he concluded by naming that splendid young statesman, Wm. J. Bryan, the convention broke loose.

An Attractive Speaker.

Louisiana yielded to Colorado, and the rugged state sent to the platform as her champion Mrs. Minerva Roberts. The tall, slender young lady, with face aglow and great dark eyes flashing, came forward to the stage.

Notorious Highlanders Make Their Appearance in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The bitter-ness of the vendetta of local Chinese merchants was shown today in the arrival and warlike preparations of thirteen of the most notorious hatchmen in the state. The appearance of these highlanders and the announcement that the prices held on the street for the street at the police station had increased to $10,000 had created the greatest excitement in the district.

Gold Deposited for the Treasury Reserve.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The National Bank of Illinois deposited $250,000 in gold in the treasury today, the first installment of $2,500,000 to be advanced by the Chicago banks to the treasury.

Bob Cook Returns.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Among the passengers on the steamer New York were "Bob" Cook and several of the members of the Yale-Henley crew. Mr. Cook says: "We have no excuses to make for our defeat, because the fastest crew in the world was on the water."

Questioning the Speaker.

Questions were asked as to whether Mr. Call was a populist and a delegate. Both were answered in the affirmative, although Mr. Call did not make the speed we made during the race of the course, but they knew how to take advantage of their skillful points.

Gen. Jones' Funeral.

DECATUR, Iowa, July 25.—The funeral of the late Gen. George Wallace Jones was held at 10 o'clock this morning in the city hall. The service was held at 10 o'clock this morning in the city hall.

Jumped into the Ohio.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 25.—Last night John Dupuy and John Carey of the crew of the steamer Hudson saw a woman jump from the Suspension bridge on the downtown side of the Ohio river, in which they were joined by more than 100 citizens, two post office inspectors last night captured Harry T. Thurgate, and in the arrest put a quetus on a systematic robbery of mail boxes in the business district.

Haggins' Colors to Retire.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—James B. Haggins' colors will not be seen on the turf next season, neither will the racing interests with those of Marcus Daly, the copper king of Montana.

Gen. Field's Motion Withdrawn.

At last, as the only way of restoring order, General Field withdrew his motion, and the call of the states for nominations was continued.

Gen. Field's Motion Withdrawn.

Mr. Castor of California appeared as the first speaker of the series who appeared to second Bryan. He said he always had been a republican, but that the circumstances surrounding the situation were peculiar. The populist party, he said, was a young party, and it could not be expected to have a long life.

BRYAN'S FRIENDS ACT.

Decided to Press His Name Regardless of His Telegram. ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 25.—Some of the more prominent of Mr. Bryan's populist friends held a conference at the Planters' Hotel early this morning, after an adjournment of the convention, and practically decided to press Mr. Bryan's nomination, notwithstanding his telegram. They placed their advocacy of their course upon the ground that he could not in honor have done less than he did under the peculiar circumstances of the case.
