

WASH. B. WILLIAMS, Furniture, etc., 7th and D Sts.

Parlor Furniture At Unheard-of Low Prices.

We have been treating you to more low priced furniture in this city than you ever heard of before. Just to demonstrate that we are the lowest priced furniture house in the city...

WASH. B. WILLIAMS, Furniture, etc., 7th & D Sts.

$50, $55 & $69-50 BICYCLES

At $2 a Week The 'Admiral,' 'Yale' & 'Stearns.'

LADIES' AND MEN'S MODELS! GREATEST BARGAINS ON EARTH!

Where Are We At?

Why, we are at 1236-1238 9th st., and have the three best bicycle values on earth! The 'Nagans' at $50 a '97 model—that should sell for $75—the 'Lyon'—the 'Stearns' in 4-day bicycle race—and the 'Admiral' in the 3-ball-bearing wonder—each $100 month!

B.A. Ryan & Co., 1236-38 9th St. my17-154

$100 is the price of the "QUAKER" because such a wheel can't be sold for less. There's $100 worth of comfort, satisfaction and use in the "Quaker." You'll not regret paying $100 for it.

Enterprise Cycle Co., 1212-14 14th St. Jno. W. Warner, Jr., Mgr. my17-264

Best Suits, $35.

If you had the impression that our prices are high banish it. We make the best suits in the world as low as $35. Newest wools.

Painless Extracting, 50c.

Do you remember the man who said he was "open to conviction, but he'd just like to see anyone who could extract him?" That sort of fellow would go on paying high prices for dentistry, no matter what proof we gave that our work is the best.

U.S. Dental Ass'n, Cor. 7th and D Sts. N.W.

OPEN SUNDAYS FROM 10 TO 12 O'CLOCK. my17-594

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE Best in the World. Buy one pair and you will know how fine a shoe can be made to fit you.

"Crescent" Bicycles, $40

Over 70,000 "Crescents" were built and sold at list prices during '96. 750 are turned out every day now—the largest output of the largest bicycle factory in the world.

Western Wheel Works, WASH. B. WILLIAMS, 800 14th and H Sts. Harry S. Jones, Jr., Manager. my18-324

Frank Albert

(Winner of second prize in the recent 5 days' Bicycle Race at Convention Hall).

Hahn's Bicycle Shoes.

"Messrs. Wm. Hahn & Co.: 'Gents—This is to certify that I have worn your Hahn's Bicycle Shoes during the late 'cyclo' race at Convention Hall and find them to be the most comfortable and satisfactory shoes I ever wore. Yours to command, FRANK ALBERT. April 7, 1897."

These are some of this week's Cycle Specialties.

- Ladies' and Men's Bicycle Leggings, black, dark and light tan, 19c. Ladies' 75c. Covert Cloth Tan and Gray Leggings, 37c. Men's and Boys' "Bike Shoes," Kangaroo calf with regular or electric leather soles, $1.50. Ladies' Cool and Nobby 18-inch Bicycle Boots, black or brown, $2.00. Men's "Comfort" Cycle Shoes, best-wearing black or brown leather, $2.00. Ladies' Unlined 18-inch Black or Brown Vici Kid Leather, $2.50. Men's "Perfect" Very Soft Black and Tan Bicycle Shoes, $2.50. Ladies' "Everlight" Kid Tan or Black Boots, black or brown, $3.00.

Wm. Hahn & Co.'s

Reliable Shoe Houses, 930 and 932 7th st. 1914 and 1916 Pa. ave. 223 Pa. ave. s.e.

SUITS To-order At Price of Ready-made.

No finer tailoring anywhere at any price, and yet we fit you so perfectly for less than you pay for vastly inferior ready-made clothing. I have just returned from New York, where I secured from one of the largest cloth importers in America 60 pieces of Scotch, English and German Wool Suitings at a great sacrifice, enabling us to make them up at almost

One-Half Their Real Worth.

Big line of Scotch Wool Suitings, in choice overalls and mixtures, which we guarantee to be superior to those offered by another tailor at $12.50. Our price of these suits is only $8.00 to $10.00.

Blue and Black Half-wad Serge, to order, price of $10.00. Fine English and German Suitings, to order, price of $12.50.

No such values have been or can possibly be offered by any other tailor in this or any other city. Fit guaranteed or money refunded. Less than "ready-made," yet more durable.

Pelzman, Tailor, 505 7th St.

my18-21

40 more $50 Keatings

—have just been received. Better come today if you want one—because they will all be gone in a few days. WEST END CYCLE CO., 730 15th St. K. von Bodenstein, Manager. my12-3m, 20

"Crescent" Bicycles, $40

If dissatisfied with your present laundry try the Yale. Best laundry service in the city. 518 10th—phone 1092.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES

Washington and Cleveland Ball Nines Under Arrest.

VIOLATED THE LOCAL SUNDAY LAWS

Pitchers' Battle at Pittsburg Saturday.

NEWS NOTES OF THE PLAYERS

Today's Schedule and Weather. Washington at Cleveland—clear. Baltimore at Louisville—clear. Philadelphia at Cincinnati—clear. Boston at Chicago—clear. New York at Pittsburg—clear. Brooklyn at St. Louis—clear.

Record of the Clubs.

Table with columns for Club, W, L, P.C., and other statistics for various teams like Baltimore, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, etc.

Charley Farrell, the Washington catcher, had just batted a short fly to second base, being the third hand out, in the game between the Cleveland and Washington clubs yesterday.

The game had been extensively advertised, and, in consequence, there was a big attendance. All the railroads ran excursions, and a large number of enthusiasts from surrounding towns arrived in the city during the forenoon.

Most of the spectators remained in their seats, thinking the players would return and the game be resumed. At last it became apparent that the game had been declared off, and about half of those present availed themselves of the opportunity to get their money back.

The members of the teams taken into custody were: Durr, Soxalexis, Tebeau, McKean, Powell, Wallace, Binks, Zimmo, Wilson and the Clevevians, and Brown, Seibach, De Montreville, Farrell, O'Brien, Cartwright, Ahney, German and Rully of the Washingtons.

It is announced that the players will be arrested again next Sunday, or as many times as they try to play.

IN OTHER LEAGUE CITIES.

Cincinnati Keep Up Their Winning Streak at Home. The Cincinnati Red Legs have taken on a winning streak and yesterday continued their good playing at home by winning from Louisville by the score of 7 to 6.

Brooklyn's Hitting Woe. Chicago had the banner crowd yesterday, fully 18,300 turning out to witness the game between the Chicago and Brooklyn nines. Both clubs fielded perfectly, neither side having an error, but the Bridgegrubs outbatted the Windy City aggregation in the matter of long and timely hits and errors.

Georgetown's Nine Defeats the University of Virginia. Georgetown defeated the University of Virginia Saturday by heavy hitting. Virginia has defeated all the college teams of the south, with the exception of Georgia, and leaving out this team Georgetown has now the championship of the south.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

was Anson's outrunning of a pretty hunt, "struck" that broke the hoodoo's back. Brodstein hadn't won a game by his good pitching. There has been a sooty finish to all of them. Don't "holer" too much, though. He'll get there after a while.

There are five ex-Pittsburg players on the Senators' pay roll at present, namely, King, Rully, Brown, Farrell and De Montreville, although the latter never played in this city—Pittsburg News.

The Senators have two splendid catchers and hitters in McGuire and Farrell, the former being one of the most reliable of batters with men on bases.—Exchange.

Charley Farrell is still handsome enough to be a dicker. His throwing wing is in better shape this season than it has been for some time.—Exchange.

Just at present eastern writers have Uncle Sam's "holer" on the Washington present, but they are protesting on decisions of his. This is the basis for so many sarcastic remarks that the man for whom the west enters the highest regard must feel that he is "has been"—Ex.

Speaking of purchasing gold bricks, there is a rumor that the proprietor of Joyce's Japanese Toy Store introduced the handsomely handshaking game at Louisville, and is now the proud possessor of as fine a brick as ever went over the bunco counter.

Charley Farrell tries to work a bunco game by making bluffs at having a poor throwing arm during the preliminary practice. The Duke's arm was well in the right, as was demonstrated when the nabbed Donovan, who tried to purloin the second bag—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

A Cincinnati man who attended one of the Cincinnati games at Chicago asked Comby how it was that with his good playing nobody had drafted Jack Glasscock, who is the best pitcher in the league. "You know," replied Comby, seriously, "that a player cannot be drafted after he is twenty-five years old?"

Just listen to this: The Cleveland Leader: "Tebeau and O'Connor cursed and abused Mr. O'Day so loudly that their profanity was plainly audible in the grand stands. There were not many ladies present, but those who did grace the game by their presence were certainly entitled to be annoyed and annoyed by the men who are paid to amuse them."

It looked very much as if Josette Meekin was sulking a bit in Saturday's game. He acted as though he didn't care whether he played or not, and Captain Lyons said Meekin had sent Burke to first on balls which did not seem to have speed enough to get into the strike zone. In the first inning, gave Josette a call-down, and he showed no improvement in his work at the end of the third inning he took him out of the game.

Charley King was honored at noon as a result of one of Gus Schmelz's historical researches. Bill Terry's leap from the only league into the western one, the oldest twirler in point of service in the league. Al Maul's sorrowful collapse on Wednesday put the list of deans at only two. Now the St. Louis ladies' league is entitled to sing "Only Me"—Pittsburg Exchange.

Tebeau, in talking on Bug Holliday's praise of the Orioles, said that the trouble with some of the clubs is shown in Holliday's remark. "They fear the Baltimore crowd," he said, "but if they were to go into the game with a determined nation to win and not to lose, the results would be far different. But I am not surprised at such a remark, for a Cincinnati player—they are always known as quitters."

Rumor has it that Freedman is having a game closely watched, and that a heavy fine will be imposed on the twirler on the least provocation. Amos is onto the trick, however, and he would not let his slip for a round. He is being fined. Arthur Bell is compelled to keep watch on the player while on the trip. Al Freedman makes a tour of the players' rooms, and Captain Lyons is appointed to be fined a season's salary.

Those six years on Charley Rully's head since he was a Pittsburgher have made him a man of the level-headedness of a round ball. In his Pittsburgh experiences with a friend, he said: "1891 was my foolish year, and I always regret it. There was a big lesson taught me that I have profited by. It almost wound up my career, and my error before that season was over. I was not a trainer. Previous to meeting him I wasn't exactly a round ball, but I would say: 'Come on, Bill, let's have some fun.' I couldn't hold back." A man who would play with Rully, the Eau Claire, Wis., team in 1888, when he was 17, and made the good boy assertion long wrong, was personal proof of the fact that although the manager of the Eau Claire club ran a bar room, nothing could be done to get Rully to cross the threshold.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Pitcher McFarland has been released by the Louisville Club to Rochester. Manager Schmelz is trying to buy the pitcher of the Newcastle Club of the Interstate League.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

was Anson's outrunning of a pretty hunt, "struck" that broke the hoodoo's back. Brodstein hadn't won a game by his good pitching. There has been a sooty finish to all of them. Don't "holer" too much, though. He'll get there after a while.

There are five ex-Pittsburg players on the Senators' pay roll at present, namely, King, Rully, Brown, Farrell and De Montreville, although the latter never played in this city—Pittsburg News.

The Senators have two splendid catchers and hitters in McGuire and Farrell, the former being one of the most reliable of batters with men on bases.—Exchange.

Charley Farrell is still handsome enough to be a dicker. His throwing wing is in better shape this season than it has been for some time.—Exchange.

Just at present eastern writers have Uncle Sam's "holer" on the Washington present, but they are protesting on decisions of his. This is the basis for so many sarcastic remarks that the man for whom the west enters the highest regard must feel that he is "has been"—Ex.

Speaking of purchasing gold bricks, there is a rumor that the proprietor of Joyce's Japanese Toy Store introduced the handsomely handshaking game at Louisville, and is now the proud possessor of as fine a brick as ever went over the bunco counter.

Charley Farrell tries to work a bunco game by making bluffs at having a poor throwing arm during the preliminary practice. The Duke's arm was well in the right, as was demonstrated when the nabbed Donovan, who tried to purloin the second bag—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

A Cincinnati man who attended one of the Cincinnati games at Chicago asked Comby how it was that with his good playing nobody had drafted Jack Glasscock, who is the best pitcher in the league. "You know," replied Comby, seriously, "that a player cannot be drafted after he is twenty-five years old?"

Just listen to this: The Cleveland Leader: "Tebeau and O'Connor cursed and abused Mr. O'Day so loudly that their profanity was plainly audible in the grand stands. There were not many ladies present, but those who did grace the game by their presence were certainly entitled to be annoyed and annoyed by the men who are paid to amuse them."

It looked very much as if Josette Meekin was sulking a bit in Saturday's game. He acted as though he didn't care whether he played or not, and Captain Lyons said Meekin had sent Burke to first on balls which did not seem to have speed enough to get into the strike zone. In the first inning, gave Josette a call-down, and he showed no improvement in his work at the end of the third inning he took him out of the game.

Charley King was honored at noon as a result of one of Gus Schmelz's historical researches. Bill Terry's leap from the only league into the western one, the oldest twirler in point of service in the league. Al Maul's sorrowful collapse on Wednesday put the list of deans at only two. Now the St. Louis ladies' league is entitled to sing "Only Me"—Pittsburg Exchange.

Tebeau, in talking on Bug Holliday's praise of the Orioles, said that the trouble with some of the clubs is shown in Holliday's remark. "They fear the Baltimore crowd," he said, "but if they were to go into the game with a determined nation to win and not to lose, the results would be far different. But I am not surprised at such a remark, for a Cincinnati player—they are always known as quitters."

Rumor has it that Freedman is having a game closely watched, and that a heavy fine will be imposed on the twirler on the least provocation. Amos is onto the trick, however, and he would not let his slip for a round. He is being fined. Arthur Bell is compelled to keep watch on the player while on the trip. Al Freedman makes a tour of the players' rooms, and Captain Lyons is appointed to be fined a season's salary.

Those six years on Charley Rully's head since he was a Pittsburgher have made him a man of the level-headedness of a round ball. In his Pittsburgh experiences with a friend, he said: "1891 was my foolish year, and I always regret it. There was a big lesson taught me that I have profited by. It almost wound up my career, and my error before that season was over. I was not a trainer. Previous to meeting him I wasn't exactly a round ball, but I would say: 'Come on, Bill, let's have some fun.' I couldn't hold back." A man who would play with Rully, the Eau Claire, Wis., team in 1888, when he was 17, and made the good boy assertion long wrong, was personal proof of the fact that although the manager of the Eau Claire club ran a bar room, nothing could be done to get Rully to cross the threshold.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Pitcher McFarland has been released by the Louisville Club to Rochester. Manager Schmelz is trying to buy the pitcher of the Newcastle Club of the Interstate League.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Whit Players Practicing. The practice match between the C. A. C. and the C. B. C. came off Saturday night. Twenty-four boards were played. The first two teams played were between the first teams of each club, resulting in a victory for the C. A. C. by one trick.

Britton took the place of Barrick, and there was not a trick lost by the substitution. Borden and Swenson by their plays showed the pace was too swift for them, and were twice behind Wootton and Walls, who played the same cards. These sixteen, with four additional players to be selected by the C. B. C.'s, will play Baltimore and Walbrook combined next Saturday at the C. B. C.'s club room.

An effort is being made by the members of both clubs to have these practice matches every week until the time to start for Put-in-Bay, as these teams are so closely matched that the practice is of mutual benefit. Pillsbury, the great chess player, who is an ardent lover of all games, was an interested spectator during the match.

ROWING. The Naval Cadets' Eight Rowed a Good Race With Cornell. In a race over a two-mile straightaway course on the Severn, at Annapolis, Saturday, the second crew of Cornell University defeated the Naval Academy eight by two lengths, or seven seconds. Time, 11.15.

The officers of the race were: Referee, Mr. C. S. Francis of Troy; judges, for Cornell, Prof. B. T. Wheeler; for the academy, Lieut. Commander R. T. Jasper; timekeepers, Coraell, Henry O. Ickelheimer; academy, Richard Armstrong.