

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now on every bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA" which has been used in the homes of the mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought, and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

March 8, 1897.

Samuel Pitcher, M.D.

Do Not Be Deceived.

Do not endanger the life of your child by accepting a cheap substitute which some druggist may offer you (because he makes a few more pennies on it), the ingredients of which even he does not know.

"The Kind You Have Always Bought"

BEARS THE FAC-SIMILE SIGNATURE OF

Chas. H. Fletcher

Insist on Having

The Kind That Never Failed You.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

EVERY DAY

We're taking orders for our ROYAL BLUE SERGE SUITS from men that heretofore have only worn ready-made clothing. The reason is obvious. A royal good suit made to your order is preferable to a ready-made one, especially so when the made-to-order one does not cost any more. How we produce such a remarkable suit for TEN DOLLARS is our secret. We'll tell you if you ask us.

Mertz and Mertz,
"New Era" Tailors,
906 F Street.

BICYCLES REPAIRED FREE OF COST!

Every part of every bicycle sold by us is kept in perfect repair for one year free of cost. This guarantee not only includes the wheel—but the saddle and tires as well—and protects the owner against all breaks—whether caused by accident or otherwise.

We Sell Bicycles On
The Smallest Monthly Payments
Ever Known!

You can get a Bicycle of us—including lamp and bell—on the easiest terms ever offered—no notes—no interest. Any height of frame—any color of enamel—and a choice of several well known tires.

We not only furnish the bicycle—but we furnish your house—from top to bottom—on credit; we tack the matting down free—make, lay and line the carpet free—no charge for waste in matching figures.

Solid Oak Chamber Suits.....$10 up
Solid Oak Extension Tables.....$10 up
Baby Carriages, from $5 to.....$50
Woolen Wire Suits.....$1.75
40-pound Hair Mattresses.....$1.75

Grogan's

Mammoth Credit House,

817-819-821-823 SEVENTH ST. N.W.,
Between H and I sts.

THE DUTIES ON WOOLENS

Agreement Reached in the Senate Yesterday.

Democrats Criticize the Rates as Excessive—Attempt to Substitute Wilson Bill Rates.

In the Senate yesterday afternoon, after the Star's report closed, during a discussion of wool and cotton fabrics, Mr. White of California asked Mr. Allison if it was true that there was a twelve months' supply of raw wool in the country. Mr. Allison replied that he had received letters stating this to be the case. Acting on this statement, Mr. Jones moved to postpone for twelve months the operation of the specific duty provided in paragraph 364.

Mr. Vest declared that with the admission that twelve months' supply of wool was on hand, the immediate operation of the specific tax would be bold and naked robbery.

Mr. Platt of Connecticut explained that the amount of wool imported in anticipation of the passage of the tariff bill was in the main held by speculators and not the manufacturers, so that the latter should not be punished for the action of the speculator.

When Mr. Rawlins of Utah asked Mr. Platt if the republican doctrine was that the foreigner pay the tax, the Connecticut senator courteously asked to be excused from replying, because, said he, senators who are amply able to uphold the republican doctrine are probably not so easily compelled to sit silent in the presence of the tariff bill within a reasonable time.

Several amendments offered by Mr. Jones were defeated, and then the paragraph relating to woolen cloth was agreed to.

Formal changes in accordance with the previous notice of Mr. Allison. Mr. Jones moved to confine the duties to the actual wool in the fabrics. Rejected, 21-24.

Mr. Vest criticized the rates as excessive, and moved to substitute the Wilson rates. Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota gave notice of an amendment placing a tax of 10 per cent on articles manufactured by a trust.

In paragraph 366, women's and children's dress goods, cotton warp, the rates were changed to 6 1/2 cents per square yard on yard, and 7 1/2 cents on those valued above 10 cents a yard, and 50 per cent ad valorem.

Mr. Gray exhibited samples of henriettes, serges and other women's dress goods, pointing out that the cost on them would be advanced from 25 to 57 cents a yard, or from $1 to $2 25 cents a yard, etc., or 100 per cent.

Mr. Warren of Wyoming answered the goods exhibited by Mr. Gray quite as well as the foreign factory, and that competition among the American manufacturers would keep down the price to the consumer.

Mr. Jones of Arkansas also presented heavy increase of dress goods, and showed the imposition of these wool rates.

Mr. Vest's motion to substitute the Wilson rates on women's and children's dress goods was rejected, 22-23.

In paragraph 368, ready-made clothing, shawls, etc., the House provision, including "felts" was restored. The rate of duty was changed from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent on unwashed wool, and the ad valorem duty was changed from 0 to 55 per cent.

Mr. Vest said the result of these rates would be to make the tax on the ordinary goods but 200 per cent of its value. He moved to substitute the Wilson rates; rejected, 22-27.

In paragraph 370, relating to autobus, amximeter, moquette and chenille carpets, the specific rate was changed from 0 to 62 1/2 cents per square yard, the ad valorem being left at 40 per cent.

Mr. Vest moved to strike out the specific duty; rejected, 21-28.

Mr. Vest laid aside, paragraph 370 having been completed.

A message was received from the House of Representatives announcing the death of Representative Cook. His remains were returned to his home, and a committee of five senators, Mason, Spooner, Carter, Pascoe and Turner, appointed as an escort. As a further mark of respect the Senate, at 5 o'clock, adjourned.

Oddities of English Villages.

From Parsons's Weekly.

Undoubtedly the most extraordinary township in England is that of Skelton, in Cumberland. It contains but one house, the occupier of which is unable to exercise the Briton's privilege of voting because there is no overseer to prepare a voter's list and no church or other place of worship or assembly on which to publish one.

The most remote village in England is that of Farley-cum-Pittor. This truly rural spot is thirty miles and a half from the nearest railway station. As a contrast to this may be mentioned the hamlet of Estrad, about ten miles from Carlisle. This tiny settlement has two important main roads, two railways and two large rivers.

A very unique feature is exclusively furnished by Trimley, a small village in Suffolk. In the one churchyard of the parish two churches are to be seen. Service is conducted three times a week in each of these churches at the same hour.

The deepest well in England is found at Hamilton in Hampshire. It stretches 200 feet below the surface of the earth. About half way down this well shaft is a sub-way, three miles in length, which leads to the second.

On the top of the parish church tower in Bicknoller, Somersetshire, is a yew tree, now five feet high, and still growing in a hardy fashion. It is generally believed that the tree owes its origin to a seed dropped by a bird.

Perhaps the most splendidly decorated church in the kingdom is that of Whitley Court, Worcestershire. It is entirely constructed of white marble, the pews are carved with intricate designs, and the interior is richly paneled with precious stones.

On the village green at Meriden, in Warwickshire, there is a large stone cross, which is supposed to mark the central point of England.

Miss Oldbird (affianced, somewhat sadly)—"Ah! child, you love me now, but will you after our union?"
The Count (ecstatically)—"Lord! Why, main tarling, I will be yun g-r-r-r-and loafer all my life!"—Judge.

FINANCE COMMITTEE SUSTAINED.

Action of the Republican Senators in Caucus.

The republican senators decided in caucus last night by a vote of 22 to 11 to sustain the action of the finance committee in placing a duty upon hides, but did not pass upon the question of the amount of the duty to be imposed.

The committee was also sustained in the rate fixed upon imported wrapper tobacco. The only other disputed questions considered were watch and jewelry, and upon these the finance committee was reversed, the House rates being accepted on watches, and watch jewelry being made free.

Senator Lodge led the contest against the action of the finance committee in taking hides from the free lists, and was seconded by Senators Hoar, Platt, Spooner and the other republican senators, Nelson, Allison, Warren and Geary.

Mr. Lodge contended that the duty, if imposed, would not be of any consequence to the farmers, and that it would add nothing to the farmer's profits on the reverse, the House rates being accepted on watches, and watch jewelry being made free.

He said that the exports of leather goods amounted to $20,000,000 per annum, and that a tariff duty should be imposed the industry would be greatly checked.

The republican senators claimed a direct benefit to the farmer from the duty and asserted that he was as much entitled to the protection it would give as were the manufacturers. In this assistance they would receive from other duties.

The vote was on the general proposition to impose a duty without regard to rates. The fixing of this, it was understood, should be left to the finance committee, but the expressions were so general in favor of the ad valorem rather than the specific system that the committee probably will have been instructed to substitute this system for the 1 1/2-cent-a-pound rate originally agreed upon. There was also a general expression of opinion upon Indian tanned goat and sheep skins.

The debate on the tobacco schedule was carried to the floor by Senators Hawley and Fairbanks. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The representatives of the lead growers immediately began a contention for the restoration of the House rate, and the finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

The finance committee yielded to the growers to the extent of advancing the rate to 10 1/2 cents. The committee had originally fixed the rate on unstemmed wrapper tobacco at 15 per cent, but the House rate is 22 per cent.

FROM THE MAINE COAST

The Opening of the Season at Bar Harbor and Vicinity.

Summer Visitors From Washington—The White Squadron Expected—Personals.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star.

BAR HARBOR, Me., June 23, 1897. There is nothing more delightful than in a strange land to meet an old friend! How the heart beats, the cheeks flush, the hand goes straight out, to one we have "known at home." Today I went to the village Main street, to chat with the village veterinarian surgeon on a matter of news. I had learned of the death of a valuable horse brought down by Almeric Hugh Paget, who, with his wife, formerly Pauline Whitney, is at "Point d'Acadie." The surgeon told me pneumonia killed the animal; that it was a four-year-old, &c., one of three Mr. Paget had in the superb Vanderbilt stables. We were condoling with owners who met such losses, when suddenly I looked down to the pavement, and at the heels of the surgeon saw a familiar face. "Oh!" I exclaimed, "I didn't know there was but one dog in the world as hideously beautiful as Mr. John O'Donnell's!" The dog was pricked up his ears, the surgeon smiled. "That is Bulla," he said, and a wild desire to pat the animal I had walked blocks to find in Washington overcame me. Everybody who is anybody, and some who are not, in Washington, knows "Bulla." Those who don't "love him" "fear" him, so perhaps the fact that he has been ill—quite ill—but is terribly lonely in his convalescence, will give joy at the capital. My knowledge of Paget's sorrow will put half the Anglomaniacs in New York in mourning.

Joyful News.

The news received here this morning from the Navy Department at Washington that the "white squadron," not including the "white squadron," not including the ships doing patrol duty on Florida coast, but those of the North Atlantic station, will about August 1 be ordered on a several weeks' cruise "down east," fills the place with joy. Plans of department provide that a general rendezvous of the ships will take place at Portland August 17. Bar Harbor and other points will be visited later by discretion of the admiral. This means much here to cottagers, other "rusticators" and "natives." The dove and olive branch could never have been more welcome to Noah than the news of the "white squadron" here at Bar Harbor as yet, but wait!

Washington Visitors.

A dinner dance will be the formal opening of Kebo Valley Club on the evening of July 3. This club is a model affair and the center toward every social design in gravitates, the building being simple architecture, with excellent cafe, and links and tennis courts in ideal condition. It is a most exclusive organization. Mr. Sherman, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world, was primarily the constant propagator of the daily and Sunday press. So a class of fifty was started. It was put in charge of a German convict, a young man of unusual intelligence, who had learned art in one of the greatest academies of the old world,