SUCCESS ASSURED Confidence of National Peace Jubilee Promoters Supreme. ACTIVITY OF THE CLOSING DAYS Further Reduction of Railroad Rates Announced. PROGRESS OTHERWISE

Everything seems to be coming the jubilee way, and another indication of this was added today, when Chairman L. M. Saunders of the railroad committee received from Mr. S. B. Hoge, general agent of the passenger department of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, a letter dated yesterday: "For your information," wrote Mr. Hoge, "I beg leave to give below copy of letter just received from our general passenger agent, which explains itself: "Referring to yours of the 12th instant, relative to the national peace jubilee to be held in Washington, May 23 to 25: All lines in the territory of the central passenger committee will sell tickets for this occasion at the rate of one fare for the round trip on May 21 and 22, good for continuous return passage, leaving Washington within ten days from date of sale."

Stoppages of Street Cars. In order to avoid interference with the national peace jubilee parades the District Commissioners today ordered that the running of street cars in the following localities be discontinued: 1. Between 14th and 15th streets, N.W., from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on May 21 and 22. 2. Between 14th and 15th streets, N.W., from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on May 23. 3. Between 14th and 15th streets, N.W., from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on May 24. 4. Between 14th and 15th streets, N.W., from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on May 25.

Dr. D. Percy Hickling, Chairman Public Health Committee. Commencement today ordered that the running of street cars in the following localities be discontinued: 1. Between 14th and 15th streets, N.W., from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on May 21 and 22. 2. Between 14th and 15th streets, N.W., from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on May 23. 3. Mr. Young, representing Bailey, Banks & Biddle of Philadelphia, visited headquarters this morning and brought a framed copy of the souvenir of the jubilee. It is a remarkably perfect work of art and easily surpasses anything of the sort gotten out in connection with a local celebration. In the center is a reproduction of the dome of the Capitol, with a sunburst behind it, and a dove bearing the olive branch hovering above. Beneath the dome are the crossed flags of the United States and Spain in colors, and at the top of the souvenir are the crests of arms of the United States and Spain, also in colors. On either side of the center are engravings in medallion showing the charges up San Juan hill and the battle ship Oregon. Below are striking medallion portraits of President McKinley and Admiral Dewey, separated by a reproduction of the photograph of the peace commission at the signing of the treaty in Paris. A hand-painted souvenir will be presented to President McKinley by Mr. Young. The inscription engraved on the souvenir is as follows: "National Peace Jubilee. Held at the City of Washington, D. C., May 23, 24 and 25, 1899."

Inspiring Evening Program. Capt. Charles Campbell and Mr. Barry Buckley have prepared a most attractive dancing program for the ball with which the jubilee festivities at Convention Hall will close, and even its personal is sufficient to make the toes of the votaries of terpsichorean tangle with pleasant anticipation. The program of dances is as follows: Two-step, 10:30; waltz, Le Susanna; two-step, 11:00; waltz, The Blue Bird; two-step, 11:30; waltz, The Blue Bird; two-step, 12:00; waltz, The Blue Bird; two-step, 12:30;
