CHERY & MORAN CO., The Men's Store, Eight-Eleven Penna. Ave. The Attention of Investors Is called to the property recently known as Graceland Cemetery.

Only a small portion of this tract was ever used as a cemetery. On account of the rapid growth of the city in the immediate neighborhood, Congress, by an act passed August 3, 1884, prohibited the further interment of bodies, and vested the title in the five undersigned Trustees, who were empowered and directed to remove all bodies interred therein and to sell and convey the said tract of land.

JANITORS GIVEN POLICE BADGES

Mr. J. W. Whelpley, trustee of the third division of the public schools, recently reported to District Commissioners to appoint the following janitors to the members of the police force for duty at their respective schools: Peabody school, Clinton Vermillion; Carberry, Henry Bess; Maury, W. H. Lee; Towers, C. L. Withcrouth; Mulharg, Joseph Parsons; Grant, H. L. Wood; Lenox, J. S. Hayre, and the Hilton, Frank Barstow.

CHARGE DISMISSED

In recommending that the charge against Policeman Dennis O'Donoghue of entering a barroom attached to a brewery and remaining therein twelve minutes be dismissed, Chief Sylvester today requested the Commissioners to dispose of the matter without prejudice to the sergeant who made the charge. District Commissioner said he would be commended for vigilance in the matter. Chief Sylvester also states that although the charge is dismissed because the officer was found not guilty by the trial officer, it should be understood by Officer O'Donoghue that it is well for members of the force to place themselves above suspicion and to be men of whom the Commissioners have approved.
