

REBELS DEFEATED AGAIN

Make Attack in Force on MacArthur at San Fernando.

They Lose 75 Killed, 30 Prisoners and Many Wounded—Killing of Luna.

Dispatches from Manila give the following account of yesterday's fighting: After cutting the railroad and telegraph at Apalit, seven miles south, for the purpose of severing connection, the rebels attacked General MacArthur's lines at San Fernando at 4:30 this morning. They met with an unexpected reception and were repulsed, with a loss of seventy-five killed, 30 prisoners and many wounded. The rebel force, estimated to have numbered 5,000 men, advanced stealthily from the jungle north of the city, and then divided, with the evident purpose of surrounding the Americans.

The outposts of the Iowa regiment discovered the enemy and retired to their lines, where the entire division awaited in trenches. The Iowa regiment and the Kansas regiment received the first shock of the attack. Reserving their fire until the enemy was within 600 yards, the Iowa regiment of the Americans hit the rebels, who returned the fire wildly, the rest of their line falling to advance.

The Americans, who thoroughly enjoyed the novelty of the situation awaiting them, attack, sallied forth and fled into the jungle. Their loss was fourteen men wounded, and the majority of them were taken to the General Funston's brigade of Kansas and Montanans, and General Hale's brigade, the 17th Regiment and the Iowa regiment, constituted the remainder of the force.

Aguinaldo is reported to have personally conducted the attack, and preparations were made for several days to bring forward troops from Candaba, and troops from Dagupan were transported by rail. Along the front of the Kansas regiment thirty-nine rebel dead were counted.

The first news of the Filipino advance was reported by a telegraph operator, who was sent to the bridge at Apalit to ascertain the cause of the break in the line of wires. He was compelled to beat a hasty retreat under fire.

A Spanish officer who has been a prisoner in the hands of the rebels, and who was released by Aguinaldo, has come through our lines to Manila. He claims to have been a witness to the assassination of Gen. Luna. According to his story, the relations between the two Filipino leaders had been strained to the breaking point because of Luna's attempts to assume control of affairs, and the final rupture was caused by Aguinaldo issuing secret orders to the provincial governments. Luna thereupon notified Aguinaldo, demanding copies of the documents, and Aguinaldo replied that Luna was a general of the army and that the civil government did not concern him. Luna, on opening the reply to his chief, exclaimed hotly:

"He will be dead tomorrow." One officer, who was friendly to Aguinaldo, assisted to arrange him, and Aguinaldo called together twenty trusted soldiers, fellow townsmen of his, and stationed them around his house with instructions to kill any one attempting to enter, regardless of rank. Luna appeared the next day and saw Aguinaldo at the window. A member of the guard said to him:

"Aguinaldo has gone to inspect troops." Luna then exclaimed, "You are a liar," drew his revolver, struck the guard, and then fired at Luna, who fell to the ground. Before he could use his revolver one of the guards bayoneted him, another shot him in the back, and a third shot him in the head. Luna's aid-de-camp was killed in the same way.

The Spaniard's story has not entirely dispelled the doubts of our officers, and he believes that he is alive are freely made at the clubs. Some people think Aguinaldo has taken pains to send the Spaniard here with the intention of spreading a false report. Since the Americans withdrew from Manila recently they have returned and have wreaked vengeance upon those who befriended the natives. They slaughtered the natives with their bayonets and displayed their heads on poles in the public squares.

The hostile natives of Cebu are more meretricious. Mail addresses, they say, against the Americans have begun here. Col. Hamer, the American commander, has asked for reinforcements, and four companies of the Tennessee regiment have been sent him from Manila. The Nebraska regiment has been ordered to sail for home early next week.

AFFAIRS IN ALEXANDRIA

Street Improvements Present and Prospective, of Value to the Community.

Closing Exercises of Miss Angelo's School—Postponement of Hearing of Legal Case.

Evening Star Bureau, No. 727 King st., Bell Telephone No. 106.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 17, 1899. Various street improvements, which were commenced in the spring, have recently been finished, and the completion of others now going on will, it is stated, very materially better the general condition of the city's streets. The Patrick street sewer has been finished and is in use. This sewer extends from an alley back of Prince street down Patrick street to Grace Church alley, which follows the sewer on Henry street a distance of about 300 feet. The pipe is fifteen inches in diameter. The small sewer on North Pitt street has also been completed.

On South Pitt street the construction of a sewer, which will be about 700 feet in length, has just been started. This will extend from a short distance below King street to a point between Prince and Duke streets.

The grading and grading of four blocks of roadways in the vicinity of the new street improvements, and other street improvements in this vicinity will probably be taken up soon. Wm. B. Corse, the temporary city engineer, is superintending the work.

It is understood that council will make a permanent appropriation for the position of city engineer next fall.

School's Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of Miss Bernice Angelo's school for primary instruction were held last evening at the home of the teacher on North Washington street and were witnessed by many relatives and friends of the pupils. Rev. J. E. Thacker of the Second Presbyterian Church made an address and delivered the certificates.

Miss Ruth Smith rendered instrumental music, Master Stewart and Miss Mabel Angelo took part in a dramatic recitation, and Miss Marion Beach. Those who took part in the various recitations were Misses Lillian Baumgardner, Marion Beach, and Stella Cooker, Zella Smith, Mabel Angelo, Alice Gronan and Masters Stewart Angelo, Edward Eward, Raymond Baumgardner and Miss Lillian Baumgardner.

The prizes were awarded to Misses Zella Smith, Marion Beach, Lillian Baumgardner and Master Harbor Beach. Miss Angelo was presented with a handsome umbrella by the school.

Argument Postponed.

Argument in the case of Mrs. Sarah V. Smith against the Southern Railroad Company, which was to have been heard before Judge Holt today, has been postponed. The suit, which has been pending for a considerable time, is brought to compel the railroad company to remove its tracks on Wilkes street. The removal of this track would cost the defendant company ten thousand dollars to the defendant company. Attorneys Wm. H. Payne, Eppa Hunt, Jr., and Leonard Marbury represent the railroad company, and Messrs. Burke and A. W. Armstrong the plaintiff.

Four-Hundred-Dollar Fire.

A fire last evening about 9 o'clock at the residence and barber shop of Mr. John Parker, No. 1116 King street, called out the entire department. In a half hour the flames were subdued. The damage will probably amount to $400.

The fire started in the rear of the building, where the building and the roof. How the fire started is not known. For about an hour King street near the fire was so packed with people that the electric cars were blocked.

General Matters.

At a recent meeting of Andrew Jackson Lodge, No. 120, A. F. and A. M., the following officers were elected: C. B. Marshall, W. M.; A. A. Paul, S. W.; W. J. Thompson, W. J.; C. F. Steiner, treasurer; J. B. Alexander, secretary; R. Lee Field, S. D.; W. S. Schwarzman, J. D.; W. A. Moore, clerk; and R. D. Wiggins and J. E. W. Timberman, stewards.

The local officials of the Southern Railroad yesterday afternoon stated to a Star reporter that so far as they are concerned there was no foundation in a report circulated locally that an effort had recently been made to wreck the southern express No. 10, which has been running south of this city.

The funeral of Mr. James Fones, whose death occurred in Charlottesville Wednesday evening, will be held at 10 o'clock from the residence of his son, Thos. Fones, No. 115 Duke street. Rev. J. H. Butler officiated, and the interment was at the cemetery.

The sequel-centennial committee on printing met last night, but transacted little business of interest. The committee will meet on Monday night. A joint meeting of the executive committee and the committee on finance will be held this evening.

ANACOSTIA HAPPENINGS.

Church Choir Gives an Entertainment—Brief Mention.

An entertainment was given at the Anacostia Baptist Church last evening under the auspices of the church. The affair was well attended and proved a success in every way. Rev. E. W. Bliss, the pastor, opened the program with prayer, after which numbers were rendered as follows: Chorus, "O, Come, Let Us Sing"; choir; recitation, Miss Hendricks; male quartet, "Memories of Home," Messrs. Quackenbush, R. B. Euer, Frank McClean and Maurice Haines; tenor solo, "A Cup of Tea," Mr. H. R. Gann; soprano solo, "If I Were a Voice," Miss Katherine Stickey; chorus, "Just As I Am," choir; bass solo, Mr. H. E. Griffith; chorus, "Evening Memories," Messrs. E. H. Jones, George M. Hunter, Wardlaw Mason, Bowie Vinson, Braden Vandewater, Wm. H. Lamar, James P. B. Veirs, Robert Hilton, Ohio Rocking bridge and a bull fight. L. H. Akerfeldt sang "Shut Yo' Eyes and Pray Up Yo' Lips" and the "Camp's Sweet Singer." Mr. and Mrs. Harry Park performed several difficult feats on bicycles and were highly applauded. Mr. W. H. Conley caught the house with several songs and imitations, and pleased the length of the program by satisfying the demand for more. The Ladies' Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Ernest Lett, rendered three numbers, "Narcissus," "Bocherius' Minuet" and "The American Republics." The orchestra, comprised Misses Eva Bowers, Jessica Cowling, Florence Wisner, Mary E. Cook, Ella A. Knight, Clara Bath, Anna Davidge, Ida Gilman, Hattie Bugbee, Mamie Eugenie, Annie Creighton, Alice Harvey, Florence Edson, Annie Endicott, Lily S. Gerry, Pauline Tamam, Lena Zimmermann, Blanche H. Old, A. Ulke, Johanna M. Gjoetsner, Mattie Rochon, Florence A. Morrill, Louise Mae Farrow and Janet Stearns.

Miss Mabel Sullivan of Philadelphia, who is visiting in the household of Sarah Spring, met with quite a serious accident yesterday morning. While riding a bicycle through a narrow alleyway, she was struck by a wagon. The young lady was thrown to the ground and received a fracture of the collarbone. The young man was also thrown, but was not hurt.

FUGITIVE ARRESTED.

Herbert Henry, a former resident of Tiffin, Ohio, who recently enlisted in the Marine corps under the name of Henry Hampton, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Gordon as a fugitive from justice. According to the information received by the police, Henry escaped from the Ohio state reformatory at Mansfield. He had served time in the reformatory and was on parole. He was arrested in Parkersburg, W. Va. His arrest followed, and he admitted his identity.

Just one month ago he knocked down one of the guards and escaped. A reward of $100 was offered for him. He was traced to this city by letters sent to his father, Parkersburg, W. Va. His arrest followed, and he admitted his identity.

William Fasset, a resident of Boston, who is employed as mate on an ice boat, fell from a bicycle on 4th street southwest early this morning and was slightly injured. The accident was caused by an electric car. The injured man was removed to the Emergency Hospital.

DINNER TO MARK TWAIN

Noted Humorist a Guest of White Friars Club.

Many Distinguished Literary People Present—Chauncey Depeu Talks of England's Friendship.

A dispatch from London says: The dinner which the White Friars Club gave Mark Twain last evening, at the Hotel Cecil, was a remarkable tribute to the author, and at the same time to the friendly relations existing between Great Britain and the United States.

Each of the speakers, among whom were the Very Rev. St. Reynolds Hole, United States Senator-elect Chauncey M. Depeu and Mr. Poulteney Bigelow, dwelt upon this theme. Mr. Bigelow presided, with the guest of the evening on his left, and Mrs. Clemens on his right. The company included Max O'Rell (M. Paul Blouet), Mr. Robert Barr, the Misses Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Parker, Mr. T. F. O'Connor, member of parliament; Sarah Grand, Mrs. Frank Leslie, Miss Beatrice Harraden and 200 other representatives of literary London.

Mr. Louis Frederic Austin, in proposing Mark Twain's health, said: "What most impressed me in men and women in his own calling, and what will ever cause his name to be associated with Sir Walter Scott's in the history of literature, is his noble courage in misfortune, the high honor which accepted the penalty of disaster, and the undaunted toll that now enables him again to lift the colors of victory."

The reply of Mr. Clemens, who was received on rising with prolonged cheers, was in his happiest vein, causing much laughter and applause.

Dr. Depeu, after some light bantering and tributes to Mark Twain, struck a serious note, which received hearty endorsement. Alluding to the change of sentiment in America, produced by Great Britain's attitude and action during the Spanish-American war, he said: "When Captain Coghlan of the Raleigh sailed from London he told us about the attitude of Admiral von Diederich and Sir Edward Chichester of the Immortale; and he told us what we all in our hearts already knew—that the European powers would save England, sympathized with our enemies, and that it was only their knowledge and their resources, which prevented their interference (applause); and it was this knowledge which made it possible for the citizens of this political gathering of 20,000 people in America the other day to take the stars and stripes in one hand and the Union Jack in the other and not to hear one dissenting voice in that vast audience."

A fitting climax was given at this point by the singing of the national anthem, which was followed by another engagement, coming earlier, entered the room and was greeted with three cheers. Sir Edward Chichester, who had been invited to the dinner by the White Friars Club, and who was accompanied by his officers and the American sailors generally. He said: "I feel that I am glad to be at this dinner, and the visit increases my respect for the American character. After all, blood is thicker than water; but I must not go on, for a friend of mine, Captain Coghlan, got into trouble through talking the other day." (Laughter and cheers.)

The stage of the proceedings Mark Twain and Chauncey Depeu, who were the honors of the evening, everybody desiring to shake hands with both.

MATTER OF EXPENSE.

Trial and Execution of John Berry Cost $900.

SPECIAL FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. UPPER MARLBORO' Md., June 17.—The execution of John Berry yesterday attracted a great many people from all parts of the county. Today the circus is here, but it does not seem to be so great an attraction. Yesterday afternoon the man who gives a cigar every time a head is struck by a base ball made his appearance on a lot near the jail. He had come here to catch the attention of the crowd, but there were a great many people in the crowd who pitched his tent yesterday and took it, nickels enough to pay his board.

There was a execution that has taken place during the term of Sheriff Robey and Deputy Sheriff Tighe, and both men were complimented by the citizens for the manner in which the affair was conducted. Some complaint was made because of the expense incurred by the county in the arrest, trial and execution of the murderer. It was stated that the case cost the county about $900. The removal of the prisoner to Baltimore for safe-keeping and the expense of the trial and execution of the murderer. It was stated that the case cost the county about $900. The removal of the prisoner to Baltimore for safe-keeping and the expense of the trial and execution of the murderer.

Had it not been for the threats of lynching it is believed that the man would have been taken to the county jail, where he would have been kept down. It was therefore argued by some of the citizens that the case should only themselves to blame in the matter.

Before going to the scaffold, Berry disposed of his few earthly belongings. His prayer book, his watch, and a pair of shoes were taken to the county jail, while his beads and watch were disposed of here, both having been given to officials.

VIRGINIA MOUNTAIN RESORTS. Elevation, 1,900 to 2,500 Feet. Four to Eight Hours From Washington by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The most healthful sections of the country in which to spend the heated term is the famous Springs Region of the Virginias, reached direct by the Chesapeake and Ohio railway. No other line can offer such a variety of mineral waters, such grand mountain surroundings, a more exhilarating climate or better train service. In this favored region there is always the feeling of energy and buoyancy that rare mountain air inspires. The days are mildly warm, the nights cool and refreshing. Dr. Joseph Holt, who ranks among the foremost sanitarians of the world, says: "I consider the mountains of Virginia as a natural sanitarium, where visitors from warm latitudes, and especially from crowded centers, may surely enjoy the benefits of waste-restoring stimulus, which insures a rapid recuperation and the very best preparation for renewed health and a long sustained activity in the occupation of a busy and often overworked life." Virginia Hot Springs—2,500 feet elevation—wonderful thermal baths—Grand Hot Springs—enlarged and improved this season. Finest resort in the mountains. Healing Springs—Unfailing health resort—Comfortable and homelike surroundings. Warm Springs—Famous for great thermal pools and old-fashioned Virginia cooking. THE DEWEY TESTIMONIAL. A Well-Arranged Program Successfully Carried Out at the Grand. An excellent program was rendered and a large audience was pleased with the features of the Dewey benefit entertainment at the Grand Opera House last night. A good-sized amount will be added to the Dewey home fund as the result of the performance. The program was a varied one, comprising singing, instrumental music, dancing and recitations. It was carried out as promised with one exception. Rev. Dr. Stafford sent word that he would be unable to appear to make his address. The entertainment had been arranged by Mr. J. Edwin Brown, general director, assisted by Dr. Frank K. Howe, Percy S. Foster, Ernest Lett, Dr. T. Ritchie Stone, Chapman, and S. A. Dougherty. W. H. Conley performed the duties of stage manager. The applause was hearty and frequent during the performance. The orchestra, comprised Messrs. Rock & Keith of Glen Echo Park. They represented battle scenes, crossing the Brooklyn bridge and a bull fight. L. H. Akerfeldt sang "Shut Yo' Eyes and Pray Up Yo' Lips" and the "Camp's Sweet Singer." Mr. and Mrs. Harry Park performed several difficult feats on bicycles and were highly applauded. Mr. W. H.
