Big Bargain Saturday. "SMOKE SALE"

The sneers of jealous competitors do not affect us—"The truth is mighty and shall prevail."

The crowds are headed this way—and as long as we can treat them to such luscious bargain-plums they will continue to come.

We expect tomorrow to be the busiest day in the history of this house—and we have made all preparations to handle a big crowd with the least possible delay.

The damage done was only slight—a little smell of smoke here and there—and after a twenty-four hours' airing every trace of smoke will be removed from any goods you buy.

Every article in the house is reduced—and as we only handle the finer goods, you may come expecting the biggest bargains of your life.

No alterations—no exchanges.
