Rich's, Ten-Two F. The Shoe Sale of which Everybody is talking

—is at "ten-two" F—Rich's old store. You hear of the enormous values being distributed wherever you go. Other shoe merchants from day to day, in their advertisements, speak of it—and thus give it additional publicity.

We have tried our best to have you understand that it is a sale of odd lots and "off styles," —but being the very highest grade of footwear and offered at prices which are but fractions of what they were formerly—the values you get are immense. These two lots are but hints. All shoes bear their original price-marks.

Women's $3 to $5 Shoes, $1.00 —odds and ends of High-grade Footwear, but broken in sizes and widths.

Men's $3.50 to $6 Shoes, $1.50. A table full of Men's Tan Russia and Black Calf and Patent Leather Button and Lace Shoes—mostly narrow and medium toes, which sold at $3.50 to $6, to go at $1.50.

All the better grades and styles in Men's and Women's Shoes at exactly half former prices.

$3.00 shoes for $1.50. $3.50 shoes for $1.75. $4.00 shoes for $2.00. $4.50 shoes for $2.25. $5.00 shoes for $2.50.

B. Rich's Sons, "Ten-two" F (Old Store).

TRUNKS REPAIRED AND COVERED. Officers' Trunks.

Many officers of the United States army and navy are using with entire satisfaction those excellent SPECIAL TRUNKS.

We are making at only $10.00. Special compartments for sword, uniform, cap, shoes, gloves, etc. All cloth lined and strongly built.

Suit Cases. Are cheap enough for every citizen almost to own one. Well finished, strong and light—real grain cowhide leather.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

Dancing Sweet Charity's Sake. THE BALL A DREAM OF SPLENDOR. Recent Hospitalities and Others Coming.

PERSONAL NOTES

The charity ball last night at the Arlington was all that fame has pictured or reality ever presented in Washington as the ideal festivity. The ball room and drawing rooms were thronged by an assemblage which reflected every attraction of a great capital—beauty, wealth, gallantry, political influence, official place, allied with that meek subtle and delicate flavor which is the presence of residential society gives. It has commenced a new era for charity balls, which for the future must resume the paramount importance undeniably theirs a decade ago.

Flowers and fine plants adorned each room, arranged in rich masses over the mantels and in the window recesses. The walls were sprayed with southern smilax in each of the parlors, and in the ball room, where the lights were softly shaded, embowered the big room in green. Four large flags had places of honor on the walls. The Marine Band played in the ball room, and the Meyer and Lovett's private parlor, which became soon the bettering place for those resting after the dance.

The reception committee representing the board of managers of the Children's Hospital made a most imposing line of handsome women in superb gowns and wearing magnificent jewels. It was headed by Mrs. Davis, president of the board, richly dressed in white satin and lace. Mrs. McMillan, in white satin, also wearing magnificent jewelry, followed next with Mrs. Bates, who as the head of the ball committee, gave to each committee his tokens of office—a bougainvillee and ribbon badge. Mrs. Bates' toilet was of silver embroidered white satin, diamond necklace and earrings, white and gold brooch, Mrs. Bates' toilet was of silver embroidered white satin, diamond necklace and earrings, white and gold brooch, Mrs. Bates' toilet was of silver embroidered white satin, diamond necklace and earrings, white and gold brooch.
