AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Quite a Demonstration on the President's Arrival.

GREAT MANY CALLS RECEIVED

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGES BY WIRE AND MAIL.

MANY FLORAL OFFERINGS

Five of the most enthusiastic people of the capital were present at the White House on Saturday afternoon to welcome the President on his return. Among these were Mrs. J. C. Phipps, Mrs. E. H. Fairbanks, Mrs. W. H. Seaton, Mrs. G. M. Price and Mrs. C. M. Flynt. The former two were present in person, and the others were represented by their respective husbands. The President was accompanied by the Secretary of War, and the Secretary of the Treasury, and was accompanied by the Secretary of the Treasury, and was accompanied by the Secretary of War.

THE EVENING STAR

WASHINGTON, D.C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1900—SIXTEEN PAGES. TWO CENTS.

CLOSE IN NEBRASKA

The Omaha Bee asserts McKinley Will Carry.

DATE FLATLYLL WILL BE 5,000

Boyes Claims the State Will Be 2,000 Democratic.

LEGISLATURE IN DOUBT

The prospects of the Nebraska legislature are in doubt, as the Republican and Democratic parties are evenly divided.

REBELLION IN CHINA

The Chinese government has issued an order to the Chinese forces in the interior, directing them to enter into a state of rebellion against the Chinese government in order to prevent further bloodshed.

THE ELECTION IN CANADA

Liberal Will Have Majority in New Brunswick.

YELLOW PEST IN NATIVITIES

The Yellow Pest is prevalent in the United States, and many cases have been reported.

CALIFORNIA'S PENDENCY AID

The California legislature has passed a resolution to aid the state in the preservation of the United States.

THE ROAD TO HELL

The Road to Fortune is through Prison's Ink—P. T. Barnum.