PURE BLOOD Necessary to Life. Vinol Makes It.

POOR BLOOD CAUSES ERUPTIONS AND WEAKNESS. Vinol Makes Pure, Rich, Red Blood.

BECAUSE WE KNOW THIS WE GUARANTEE ITS ACTION.

Impoverished blood is a sure sign of internal disorder. We see every day too many people whose faces plainly show that there is something radically wrong.

We want all of our fellow-citizens to know of our splendid blood purifier and blood maker. We refer to Vinol.

Vinol, as we have before stated, is a purely scientific preparation.

Vinol owes its virtue to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated state the active curative principles taken from the livers of five cods—the same elements that formerly were found in cod-liver oil, and which made it famous.

Vinol does not contain the grease or fat that characterized cod-liver oil and made it in many cases worthless.

Vinol acts upon every one of the great vital organs, and by invigorating and giving them strength enables them to properly perform their functions.

Vinol's effect on the stomach is marvelous. It tones up this, the greatest of the organs of the body, and enables it to obtain from the food which is taken into it the necessary elements to create flesh and muscle tissue, bone structure and pure, rich, red blood.

We are in receipt of a letter from a Salvation Army woman which reads as follows:

"I took Vinol after a bad attack of grippe, and so much good did it do me that I persuaded my sister to take it. She was all tired out. Had no appetite and her blood was very poor. It did her as much good as it did me."—BETSY HAYERSHAW, 718 River at, Fall River, Mass.

Don't you please come in and see us? We are always glad to extol the merits of Vinol.

We will give you back your money if you don't find Vinol will do all we claim it will. Could any one do more for you?

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

A WELCOME QUIET HAS SETTLED DOWN.

Only Disturbed by Rumors of the Future-Interesting Personal.

The evenness which usually characterizes the Lenten season will soon be manifested. Only an occasional festivity, with some good reason attached, breaks the calm, which latter in a measure, after all the fuss and feathers consequent upon the inauguration, is very welcome. The usual opportunities for improving the mind or increasing one's facility at bridge whist are not lacking, and it is said that the pentential spirit displayed by a few, in remaining with the people in the city, is really very edifying. It is also amusing to the lookers-on. The departures for the south or New York, where still the opera charms, are quite numerous the last few days. Invitations for Easter week are beginning to get about. After Mid-careme, which is next Thursday, the time will not be long slipping away.

Miss Helen Cannon and Mrs. Ernest Leissure of Danville, Ill., daughters of Representative Cannon, will leave in the afternoon for the Hot Springs for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lathrop, after spending the last five weeks in New York, Elizabeth and Philadelphia, are en route to San Francisco, Cal. Mrs. Lathrop was formerly Miss Flora Cluss of this city.

Representative and Mrs. Dalzell will leave next Wednesday for Cuba to visit their daughter, Mrs. Major and Mrs. Dunn. They will return in April.

Senator Keane's dinner Tuesday night for Vice President Roosevelt was one of the largest given here for a long time. The decorations were very little. The table was a long plateau of ferns, extending the entire length of the table, studded with pink roses and white lilies. Covers were laid for fifty guests. Secretary and Mrs. Hay and the rest of the cabinet were present and among others were: Senator and Mrs. Spooner, Senator and Mrs. Platt of Connecticut, Senator and Mrs. Sewall, Senator and Mrs. Wetmore, former Senator and Mrs. Chandler, Senator Hale, Senator Hoar, Senator and Mrs. McMillan and Senator Aldrich.

Mrs. de Wollant's guests at her pretty luncheon yesterday were: Countess Quast, Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, Mrs. A. S. Deane, Mrs. Original and Mrs. Harry Hill, Miss Mollie Elliott Sewell, Mrs. Mabel, Mrs. de Measser, Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. Ticeol, Mrs. David J. Hill, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Susan M. Hill. Last Thursday evening the Vermont Avenue Christian Church was the scene of a pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Mr. William Wallace Maxwell and Miss Jennie Kenney Lyle of Paris, Ky. The bride was a handsome blonde, wore an ivory satin gown and tulle veil. She entered the church with her father, Mr. Thomas A. Maxwell, and was preceded by four ushers—Messrs. Thomas Penick, Jr., Allen Alberts, Willis Spear and Fred Roberts. Mrs. Jennie Penick, the bride's sister, acted as matron of honor. The best man was Mr. Almus Spear. Rev. F. D. Power performed the ceremony after which the bridal party repaired to the future home, where a sumptuous supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell will be at home to their friends on Tuesday, March 24 at 1002 East Capitol street.

FIGURING UP THE LOSSES.

Detectives Investigating Accounts of Damage Done by Soldiers.

Detectives Watson and Proctor have been detailed by Major Sylvester to visit all the alleged victims of the Pennsylvania soldiers and make a report concerning the amount of damage done. Yesterday they spent the entire day making the rounds of the places.

Major Sylvester referred to a number of cases. One of the complaints was that of Harry R. Hall of 436 L street northwest alleges that liquor, besides glassware and other property, was destroyed by the soldiers, and that they destroyed showcases, glassware and other property.

The large number of complaints made, the detectives will not be able to finish their work for several days.

Major Sylvester referred to a number of cases. One of the complaints was that of Harry R. Hall of 436 L street northwest alleges that liquor, besides glassware and other property, was destroyed by the soldiers, and that they destroyed showcases, glassware and other property.

Members of the 4th, 8th, 9th, 12th, 13th and 15th Pennsylvania Regiments are mentioned in the complaint of E. Sullivan, who claims that knives, forks, pies, sardines and cigars, worth $42, were taken from his place.

William McMillan mentions Company H, 9th Pennsylvania, and Company F, 12th Pennsylvania Regiments, in his complaint. Members of the 12th Pennsylvania Regiment stole fifteen quarts of whiskey and a quantity of beer, valued at $38, from his place.

John McMillan, 1710 Pennsylvania avenue, charges members of the 12th and 13th Pennsylvania Regiments with having taken $50 worth of fruit from him.

Mr. C. F. Cogart, a grocer, makes affidavit that Pennsylvania soldiers who were stationed in the State, War and Navy building robbed him of goods to the value of $100. He was indignant at one of the officers, he says, to have a wagon load of groceries near the 17th street entrance to the building, for many days.

He was there on time, as he reported, he alleged, appropriated and damaged his property to the amount stated.

Mr. Cogart spoke to the officer of the day of the Pennsylvania troops stationed at Convention Hall, when members of the command had robbed fruit vendors, and the officer told his men that fruit wagons should not come near the hall. A number of charges against the Pennsylvania troops, in addition to those mentioned have also been made to the police.

The Connecticut Pie Company denies that it lost a stock of pies in front of the Treasury Department on Monday. It reported. Some pies were taken from a wagon on K street, but they were paid for.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT.

Representative Cooper Wins Suit for Damages.

The proceedings instituted by George G. Barker of Maine against Representative Samuel Cooper of Texas, was terminated today in Criminal Court No. 2, by a session for the transaction of civil business, when the verdict of the jury, deciding in favor of Representative Cooper, was recorded.

Mr. Barker, it will be recalled, sued to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 because of an assault committed on him by Representative Cooper the 31st of last May. At the time the parties were on a railroad train en route to this city.

Mr. Barker declared that Representative Cooper made himself offensive by repeatedly expecting on the car in the aisle of the Pullman car, in which both were passengers. A passage of words occurred between the two, during which, Mr. Barker, it is said, insulted Representative Cooper that the place for the latter was in a cattle car.

Several hours later the two men met in the smoking compartment of the car. Representative Cooper, it was stated, took occasion to apply certain very plain language to Mr. Barker, after which, as he testified, he resumed his seat. According to the defendant, Mr. Barker followed him and again presumed to "lecture" him. Representative Cooper testified that he was sitting in the face, knocking his eyes across the car.

At the time of the journey, so said Representative Cooper, he had a sick headache. He spat but once on the carpet, he declared, and then not in the aisle, but in the aisle of the Pullman car, in which both were passengers. He did not use the cuspidor in his section, he explained, because, when about to expectorate, he found that a fellow passenger had his foot over that receptacle.

The jury retired to consider the matter shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and at 6 o'clock last evening handed the verdict, sealed, to the clerk of the court. The verdict was not announced until today.

The Grant Monument Site.

To the Editor of The Evening Star: I read with supreme disgust in this evening's Star William Howard Mills' silly protest against the Grant statue site. What does it signify to what use any tract of land was once subjected, when it is to be utilized for a more grand monument, statue or work of art? A consideration of that kind is not worthy of a moment's thought. The only thing to consider is, not is the spot some especially holy or consecrated place, but whether it is a suitable place as regards the grand monument. My opinion is that the vast majority of people will highly approve the location selected by the commissioner. I for one most enthusiastically desire to place a grand statue in a small, insignificant park surrounded on all sides by streets much traversed, in a great mistake, and doubly so when the statue is placed in the corner of the park, as Mr. Mills suggests. Why likes to stand and leisurely contemplate some grand statue on the corner of some little park, while pedestrians intent on their business missions are all day long hurrying past and around him, thus distracting his mind from the object of contemplation? The right place for any statue of a man so important and great as
