"The Busy Corner."

ALWAYS THE BEST OF EVERYTHING FOR THE LEAST MONEY!

We Have Entered on Our Third Week of the Saks & Co.'s

Stock selling, and it's gratifying to state what elegant results met the announcement. Those that were here to see know only too well how they had to push and crowd through the throng of so many anxious buyers, but it was no more than we expected with such unlimited quantities, and such standard qualities with such pricings made us feel that with tinge of confidence that all the good things advertised would be called for throughout the entire day.

The Biggest Silk Offering

Which our courage has yet allowed us to make. It represents fully 10,000 yards of Saks & Co.'s fine Silks. They are reasonable and desirable, and will be sacrificed to such an extent that one understanding the quality of silk cloth will surely imagine that the price is next to give-away. This great aggregation of pretty and popular Silks embraces a line of All-silk Printed Satin Foulard, Plain and Glace Taffetas, Wash Taffetas, Jacquard Taffetas, Faconne Taffetas, Faconne Pongee, and All-silk Flannel—these goods Saks & Co. sold for $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75; 30c. will be sold tomorrow for, per yard.

Saks & Co.'s Laces and Embroideries

Have received another setback in price. The bona fide reductions made on these goods will surely force us to double our help in order to accommodate and serve our patrons quickly, who will grasp this opportunity for bargains: 50 pieces of Lace All-over, 18 inches wide, 12 different patterns, elegant for yokes, sleeves and necks, which Saks & Co. sold for 29c. we shall sell for 29c. A special lot of White and Butter-color Applique and Veilings Lace, which Saks & Co. sold for 2 1/2c. we shall sell for 2 1/2c. 40 cartons of fine French Valenciennes Lace Edging and Inserting, twenty neat patterns to select from, which Saks & Co. sold for 25c. we shall sell for 25c. Black Arabian, White and Butter-color Irregular Laces, a great collection of patterns, which Saks & Co. sold for 12 1/2c. we shall sell for 12 1/2c. White Point d'Esprit Dresses, trimmed with two rows of pleated tulle, edged with tulle trimming, which Saks & Co. sold for $11.48 we shall sell for $11.48.

Saks & Co.'s White Goods.

Way below par! We are selling these snow-white fine weaves at less price than they have ever been known to be sold for. The large quantities and the chances for an immediate outlet make us take this stand: 20 pieces only of Fine Sheer Batiste Mull, 48 inches in width, which Saks & Co. sold for 20c. we shall sell for 20c. Sample pieces of Fine Imported Fancy Self-colored White Goods, all this season's latest novelties, which Saks & Co. sold for 39c. we shall sell for 39c. Extra Fine Sheer Quality White Organdy, which is 48 inches in width, was sold by Saks & Co. for 25c. per yd., we shall sell for 16c. 50 pieces of Sheer White India Linen, regular width, which Saks & Co. sold for 5c. we shall sell for 5c. 1 case of Fine Victoria Lawn, these goods no 48 inches in width and were sold by Saks & Co. for 10c. per yd., we shall sell for 6 1/2c. 30 pieces of Fancy Striped Pique, assorted patterns, which Saks & Co. sold at 15c. per yd., we shall sell at 9c. 20 pieces of White French Organdy, very near 2 1/2c. per yard, which we shall sell for 28c. Colored Silk Mull, these goods no 48 inches wide and were sold by Saks & Co. for 29c. per yd., we shall sell for 15c. This department is located sections F and G, first floor, Busy Corner.

Saks & Co.'s Domestic and Cotton Goods.

As a general thing, cut prices on domestics are very scant, but on this occasion we have cut deeper than any time during the sale because we wish to outclass any day of the Saks sale: Fine sheer, yard-wide Bleached Cambric, the very thing for women's undergarments, which Saks & Co. sold for 53 1/2c. we shall sell for 53 1/2c. Standard Indian Prints, which Saks & Co. sold at 7c. per yard, we shall sell at 7c. Apron-cum-Gingham, in all the staple checks, such as brown, blue, green and red, which Saks & Co. sold for 7c. per yard, we shall sell for 7c. Fancy Satens, in all this season's designs, which Saks & Co. sold for 12 1/2c. we shall sell for 7 1/2c. Belfast Ticking, guaranteed to be feather-proof, which Saks & Co. sold for 12 1/2c. we shall sell for 12 1/2c. These special No. 1 Shirts, size 42 by 90, hand-torn and ironed, which Saks & Co. sold for 36c. we shall sell for 36c. 36 down Anne Sheets, size 90 by 90, full hem, hand-torn and ironed. This Sheet is equal to the best on the market, which Saks & Co. sold for 45c. we shall sell for 45c. Domestic Department—Third floor near—Busy Corner.

Wash Goods.

Now comes the final cutting of the Saks & Co.'s superb line of Wash Fabrics. Of course, we have always been known as the Cotton King, because our own beautiful, well-bought Wash Goods always maintain the highest standard, and yet during this sale we have given them a setback in order to make a hurried cleaning of the other purchases: Saks & Co.'s 10c. and 12c. quality Organdy stripes, plaids and checks, as well as linen cloth, blue, pink, navy and black, which we shall sell at 63 1/2c. Saks & Co.'s 12c. 15c. and 18c. qualities in Batiste, Dimities, Swiss Cord, English Batiste and Lace Valenciennes; fully 5,000 yards, and hard to get, which we shall sell for 83 1/2c. Saks & Co.'s 35c. quality Imported Shirting Madras—they are very exclusive effects, and they are adapted for men's buttoned shirts as well as the popular ladies' shirt waist suits, which we shall sell at, per yard, 15c. Saks & Co.'s 35c. quality of 38-inch-wide Colored Linen madras, in old rose, tan and brown, which we shall sell at, per yard, 25c.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

SPEAKER HENDERSON'S VACATION IN FOREIGN CLIMES. Recent Out-of-Town Events in Which Home Friends Have Great Interest—Personal Notes. Speaker Henderson and his wife and daughter have left Paris for London. They will go shortly to Scotland for a visit to Mr. Carnegie, and later to Aberdeenshire, where General Henderson was born. Mrs. Pierre de Marguerite, wife of the secretary of the French embassy, sailed for New York Saturday from Havre with her infant child. Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell and daughter returned from Europe Saturday. The Russian ambassador sails tomorrow for Europe. Passengers on the same ship with him will be Mr. and Mrs. Cruz of the Chilean legation and Mr. Corea, the Nicaraguan minister. Mr. Wauters, charge d'affaires of the Belgian legation, will go west this week, and at Glenwood Springs, Col., will visit Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh. Although the name of Mr. Algernon Sartoris appeared on a steamer list last week he has not been reported to have sailed. A message from his sister Vivian stating the indefinite postponement of her marriage made it unnecessary for him to go abroad at the bride's mother, Mrs. G. B. Morrison, Salem, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Wagg, assisted by Rev. Benjamin Patterson. The couple entered to the strains of music played by Miss Hires, and were preceded by the ushers, Mr. B. Carl Patterson and Mr. George H. Morrison, and the maid of honor, Miss Mary A. Morrison, sister to the bride. After partaking of a wedding breakfast, Dr. and Mrs. Howard departed for the Atlantic coast. They will be at home July 7, at 1904 3d street after September 1. Miss Bertha Louise Robinson sailed Saturday for Liverpool. Among the Washingtonians at Capon Springs, Va., are Col. George A. Woodward, U. S. A., and family of 2119 Massachusetts avenue. A surprise party was tendered Thursday evening to Miss Josephine Myers of No. 33 K street northeast by her friends. During the evening vocal and instrumental music was rendered by Miss Mary Keiser, Miss Keyser and Miss Hart. Mr. Trodden sang comic songs, which were greatly appreciated. Those present were Miss Josephine Myers, Miss Mary Keiser, Miss Keyser, Miss Hart, Messrs. T. J. Trodden, Jr., Thos. Crook, John Myers, William McGrath, W. Barnston and T. B. Stevens. At a wedding at Saint Andrew's Church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock Miss Fannie Whiting Washington and Mr. Henry Elliot Grace four pretty bridesmaids, a matron of honor, ushers and a groomsmen, were the chief of the chorus singing the bridal music, will tend to make this one of the most attractive of the season's marriages. Miss Alma Knobloch sailed Wednesday last for Europe, expecting to visit points of interest in Germany. After a few months' sojourn there she will join a party of friends and return to Washington. She will probably return home the latter part of the winter. The many friends of Mr. Chas. L. Gleason will be interested to hear of his marriage with Miss Helen M. Gleason, daughter of Sargent of Spokane, Wash., and the ceremony took place in Chicago, Ill., Thursday, June 20, at the Holy Name Cathedral residence, Rev. Father Coffey officiating. Sargent is a popular member of the young-er Spokane set, and her father, Mr. James B. Sargent, is identified with mining interests. The young lady is an accomplished musician and fine linguist. Mr. Gleason is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Gleason of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Gleason are on their way east, and will visit his parents in this city. Mrs. Anna F. Crossman and her daughter, Miss Fannie Crossman, are spending the summer at Blounton, Va. Mrs. Frank B. Ketchum has returned to her home in New York, accompanied by her sister, Miss Anna Johnson. Gen. and Mrs. Moore left the city this morning for Greenwell, Conn. Mrs. Moore is spending the summer there. Later they will go to the coast of Maine. Justice and Mrs. Brown, who sailed last week for Genoa, are accompanied by Mrs. Frederick Halsey Tyler of Boston, who will be their guest for the summer. Miss Ida C. Burroughs of Georgetown and Mr. John H. Johnson, Jr., were married by Rev. Father Cutler at the parsonage, St. Mary's Church, Alexandria, Va., Thursday evening, June 20. Cards are out announcing the marriage of John F. Gallagher to Miss Mary E. Pallas, both of this city.

STRIKE OF THE MACHINISTS. No Attention to Be Paid to the Milwaukee Injunction. President James O'Connell of the International Association of Machinists left for New York last night to confer with the president of the Delaware, Lackawana and Western railroad regarding the strike of the machinists on that road. President O'Connell also has strong hopes that a settlement of the entire trouble is now near at hand. Editor D. Douglass Wilson of the Machinist Journal is the only officer of the national organization now in the city. Referring to the injunction granted in Milwaukee Saturday restraining members of the organization from picketing the shops of the Vilter Manufacturing Company, Mr. Wilson said this morning that no notice would be taken of the injunction in any way by the organization. "We have already had as many as a hundred injunctions issued against us since the strike began," he said, "and we have paid no attention to any of them. This one is no broader nor more sweeping than any of the same as we have before. It was issued between five hundred and a thousand machinists will go to work this morning in the city. It is a strike in Michigan, having won the nine-hour week at a strike in Michigan. The first violence which has been reported since the strike began occurred Friday evening in Chicago. Two men, who have been working in a West Side machine shop on the ten-hour basis, were knocked down and injured, one of them severely, as the result of a fight which broke out at evening stated. The man who was injured by two men, who made the attack from behind, it is said, and knocked their victim down with a blow on the head with a blunt instrument. The men made their escape before they could be captured or their identity made known. One of the injured men was taken to a hospital next day, but the other was not able to be up.

Two Well-Known Young People Surprise Their Friends. It was an occurrence somewhat out of the ordinary when Mr. John R. Young, clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, received a visit at his residence on 12 street about 9:30 o'clock last Thursday evening from a party of three—two gentlemen and a lady—and was requested to issue a marriage license forthwith. Mr. Young is an obliging official, and as his visitors had at the door a stylish equipage drawn by a handsome team of horses he offered to proceed to the city hall and issue the license. The suggestion was acted upon. It soon developed that authority to wed was desired for Lloyd A. Turner and Adeline L. Mayo. The other young man of the party was Fred Vincent. The license having been issued the party returned to the carriage. Mr. Young was honored with a seat beside the bride-elect, Mr. Vincent mounted the box next the driver, while the bridegroom, Mr. Turner, was forced to occupy a cramped position on the box of the victor. The route was along F street to 15th street. Proceeding to 1405 15th street Rev. John M. Schick, who resides there, promptly united Mr. Turner and Miss Mayo in matrimony. Mr. Vincent and Mr. Young were the witnesses. It is said that the couple sailed Saturday for Europe. For some time past Mr. Turner, who is a young man of wealth and whose permanent home is in San Francisco, has been at the Portland, at 14th street and Thomas street, with his mother. The latter has been very anxious to secure for her son a commission in the navy. The family is well known. Miss Mayo is from Richmond, Va. It is said that when she married Mr. Turner she had known him only a week. Those who have heard of the wedding Thursday evening express the deepest interest in the affair. Rumor has it that Miss Mayo was engaged to be married to a New Yorker. When the day set for the wedding approached, she, not being desirous of marrying her fiancé, who had departed from Richmond and came to this city, and proceeded to the home of some friends. The affair has been the chief topic of conversation at the Portland during the past two days. Miss Mayo, now Mrs. Turner, is said to be a daughter of George W. Mayo of Richmond. Her girl associates called her "Lan." She has an extended acquaintance in this city, having made many friends on the occasions of visits to relatives who reside here.

AGAIN IN THE TOILS. William Evans, lately returned from Prison, Charged With Larceny. William Evans, colored, twenty-eight years old, who recently returned home from the penitentiary at Trenton, N. J., where he served a term of three years for larceny, is now under arrest on many charges of theft. He is held a prisoner at the city precinct station, and until the officers finish their investigation he will not be taken to court. A photograph of Evans is in the gallery at police headquarters, but as it was taken several years ago, he will have to sit for another picture. The plunder already recovered, which consists of carpets, lace curtains, portieres, clothing and other articles that are usually packed away for the summer, is valued at more than $200. Fully a dozen reports of the thefts of articles such as those mentioned have been reported to the police. Captain Boardman realized the importance of apprehending the thief and had the whole detective force on the case. Precinct officers were also interested in the developments, especially those in the second, third and eighth precincts, in which most of the robberies were committed. Precinct Detective Patrick O'Brien and Policemen Buckley and Cooney of the third precinct succeeded in making the arrest. They found Evans in a house in Linger's alley late at night, where a colored girl was playing an organ for him. Knowing Evans might possibly get out the back way if they started arday him, thinking members of the window and enjoyed several of the organ selections. Finally, Policeman Cooney went to the back door and the other officers started after him. Evans made a dash for the back door, and when he discovered Policeman Cooney waiting there he halted. He was then taken into custody. Shortly after the arrest Evans was taken to the station and put with him. Yesterday morning the prisoners were separated and then the interesting scene occurred when the thief reached a row of houses on 20th street occupied by colored people. Carpets, curtains and other articles were turned over to the officers, and the police now has the appearance of a second-hand store. Several pieces of carpet held at the station have not been identified. Evans may be taken to court tomorrow. STRIKE OF THE MACHINISTS. No Attention to Be Paid to the Milwaukee Injunction. President James O'Connell of the International Association of Machinists left for New York last night to confer with the president of the Delaware, Lackawana and Western railroad regarding the strike of the machinists on that road. President O'Connell also has strong hopes that a settlement of the entire trouble is now near at hand. Editor D. Douglass Wilson of the Machinist Journal is the only officer of the national organization now in the city. Referring to the injunction granted in Milwaukee Saturday restraining members of the organization from picketing the shops of the Vilter Manufacturing Company, Mr. Wilson said this morning that no notice would be taken of the injunction in any way by the organization. "We have already had as many as a hundred injunctions issued against us since the strike began," he said, "and we have paid no attention to any of them. This one is no broader nor more sweeping than any of the same as we have before. It was issued between five hundred and a thousand machinists will go to work this morning in the city. It is a strike in Michigan, having won the nine-hour week at a strike in Michigan. The first violence which has been reported since the strike began occurred Friday evening in Chicago. Two men, who have been working in a West Side machine shop on the ten-hour basis, were knocked down and injured, one of them severely, as the result of a fight which broke out at evening stated. The man who was injured by two men, who made the attack from behind, it is said, and knocked their victim down with a blow on the head with a blunt instrument. The men made their escape before they could be captured or their identity made known. One of the injured men was taken to a hospital next day, but the other was not able to be up.
