Our Two Great $2.50 New Shoe Lines

The "WASHINGTON BELLE" for Women.
The "METROPOLIS" Shoes for Men.

These are two Shoe-names that have captured Washington's well-dressed community. Deservedly so, too. For their equals were never before sold even at $3.

There's a superiority about the way these shoes are made that distinguishes them immediately from commonplace Shoes.—And there's a strong tone to their style that classes them among the $3.50 and $5 Shoes.

As for wear—we guarantee you never bought any quite as durable at $2.50.

Both of these lines are made on the Goodyear hand-sewed process,—which is in every respect equal to bench hand-sewed—making them flexible and comfortable to the foot and free from tacks and rough places inside of the Shoes.

The "Washington Belle" Women's $2.50 Shoes

Comes in 18 popular styles of Laced, Button and Winter Oxford, among which are included: Reliable Patent Leather Boots, Highest Grade Box Calf Shoes, Finest Vici Kid Boots, Guaranteed Patent Kid Boots, Extension-heel Box Calf Oxfords, with or without flexible cork soles; close edge or extension soles and heels. Heels from lowest common sense to the most graceful high Cuban heels.

The "METROPOLIS" Men's $2.50 Shoes

In 21 different kinds, enough variety to please all tastes, of the following splendid leathers: Riehl's Famous Enameled Leather, Riehl's Reliable Patent Leather, Soft Velours, Velvet Calf, White Bro., Best Box Calf, Best American Wax Calf, Cheapest Black Vici Kid, Close or wide extension soles or heels. Single, double or triple soles. Lined with leather or best drill.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MISS EARLY BECOMES THE WIFE OF MR. FAIRFAX.

Quiet Ceremony Followed by a Northern Trip—A Crystal Wedding Party—Future Events.

Only a family party witnessed the marriage today of Miss Annie Ridge Early, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Early, and Mr. Arnold Randolph Fairfax of Roanoke, Va., which took place at the home of the bride's parents on Connecticut avenue. Rev. Frank H. Barton of St. John's P. E. Church, Georgetown, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax left shortly afterward for a northern trip, and will reside at Roanoke, Va., where a fine home, the gift of the bride's parents, awaits them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rogers celebrated their crystal wedding last evening, the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage, at their residence, 1230 M street northeast. After congratulations were extended the large number of guests adjourned to the parlor, where a most interesting music was enjoyed. The Monday Night Club was present, and its members rendered very entertaining music throughout the evening. Miss Ritchie was its accompanist, and also gave some pleasing solos. Mr. W. J. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, acted as the master of ceremonies. The guests were ushered into the dining room, where a bountiful collation was served. The table was set with a most elegant and decorated with cut roses, carnations, ferns and evergreens, and the effect was strikingly picturesque. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers received a large number of well-wishers. They were so arranged on tables in the parlor annex that the guests could easily find them. Among those present during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Easley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry, Dr. and Mrs. Heide, Mr. and Mrs. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rogers, the Misses Ritchie, Alice Brannan, Katie Hamilton, Agnes Eddell, Katie Daugherty, Mrs. Cook, Mr. Kane, Mr. Pollock, Mr. William Penneyson, Mr. Chilton, Mr. John Rogers, Mr. William Eckard, Mr. Pierce Rosen, Mr. Albert Eckard, Mr. Talbert, Mr. W. J. Rogers, Jr., and Mr. Grabe.

Laise-Phillips Select School.

Individual instruction is one of the advanced features of the Laise-Phillips select boarding and day school for young ladies and children, which is being conducted by Mrs. J. Sylvester Phillips, as principal, at 1624 P street northwest. Preparation for foreign travel is also given special attention.

Injury to Alabama's Gun.

In regard to the report that one of the forward 13-inch guns of the battle ship Alabama had been disabled in the recent gun tests off the Virginia capes, Rear Admiral O'Neil, chief of the naval bureau of ordnance, said today that the injury is not a serious one, that the gun will not have to be taken from the ship and that at present the bureau does not contemplate making any repairs on the gun at all, as its usefulness has not been impaired. Admiral O'Neil states that a shell exploded within the bowels of the gun and scattered it somewhat, but did no serious injury.

Open to All.

Howard University School of Law, which was founded in 1869, is open to all without distinction of sex, race or creed, provided they are above eighteen years old and possess the proper qualifications. The tuition is free. James F. Bundy, secretary, will send a circular on request. Preparation for foreign travel is also given special attention.

Personal Mention.

Kenneth of Patent Office, who has been on a trip through the west, has returned and resumed his duties.

Mrs. Mary M. Rose, national president of the Ladies of the Union Veteran Legion, is on the city stopping at 212 F street northwest. She will remain until Saturday.

Mr. Robert C. Greene of Washington has entered the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y. He will take a course in civil engineering.
