This department bears a more direct relation to the holidays than in any season gone, as we have, to a greater extent than ever before, purchased rare and beautiful things, both practical and ornamental, for Holiday and Wedding Gifts, adaptable for the modest home and the stately mansion.

We show luxurious cushions for the cozy corner, the den and the smoking room; richly carved Tabourettes; superb Screens; artistic Tapestry Picture Panels; elegant examples of Italian and Spanish Furniture; specimens of Brass and Copper Repousse Work; Gilt Mirrors and Chairs of the Louis XIV and XV and First Empire Periods.

Pyro-etched Furniture in Tabourettes, Tables, Chairs and Pedestals. Also fine specimens of Teak Wood Furniture.

Also rare specimens of Anglo-Persian and Franco-Persian Rugs.

We also show choice bits of L'Art Nouveau, in dainty Tables and Chairs; examples of Antique Dutch Chairs; very fine examples of the Italian Renaissance period in Chairs and Pedestals; French Illuminated Leather Screens and many other interesting pieces of Art Furniture.

We also show foreign and domestic fabrics of the most elegant and elaborate sorts, as well as the medium grades for draperies, hangings and furniture coverings.

We are now showing The New Satin Foulard Petticoats.

They have a rich gloss that resembles satin crepe de chine, and supply every requirement as to beauty and durability. Made with deep flaring accordion plaited flounce, finished with full pinked ruche, producing a very pretty effect.

We are also showing The Jersey-Top Petticoat,

With a deep circular silk flounce. The jersey part of the skirt extends a little below the knees, and its clinging propensities commend it to stout women both for warmth and the desired lack of superfluous material around the hips. For steamer and railway travel these petticoats are invaluable.

We are also showing the popular Black and White Striped Silk Petticoats, in the latest and richest effects. Those desiring Silk Petticoats for Xmas gifts had best select them now, as the assortment is unusually complete and attractive.

The Sectional Bookcase

Is the ideal case for the home or office. Every one has some books which he wishes to protect. When there are not enough to fill an ordinary book case, one or two sections may be had at a very small expense, and as the number of volumes increases additional sections can be added—and the bookcase grows as book space is needed.

Whether you have one section or more, you have always a complete bookcase.

We carry the Gunn, the Casler and the Danner—and each has its special features—in the most popular woods and finishes.

$1.15 per section, in solid oak, up.

A special finish to suit the woodwork of any particular room made to order without additional cost.

We also show a splendid line of Combination Bookcases, suitable for holiday gifts. We shall be pleased to have you call and examine them. For sale in Office Furniture Dept.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MISS JULIA GOLDSBOROUGH'S ING-OUT PARTY.

Miss Fitch and Miss Childs Are the Buds Today—A Silver Wedding
—Personal Notes.

A notable and at the same time one of the largest companies of the early season offered welcoming congratulations yesterday afternoon to Miss Julia Goldsborough, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edmund K. Goldsborough, whose spacious K street home has been so long and so charmingly identified with the best of the social life at the capital. The doors were opened by the brilliant and fragrant pathway from room to room, the long-stemmed roses nodding over the heads of the guests from the mantels and cabinets. Mrs. Goldsborough, in black lace and crepe de chine, and her attractive young daughter, who was daintily dressed in white crepe de chine, with many insertions of lace, stood in the front drawing room. Assisting in the entertaining mark of the guests were Mrs. Richard Goldsborough, Miss Woodhull, Miss Kibbey, Miss Glover, Miss Ashton, Miss May, Miss Walsh, Miss Loring, Miss Helen Bell, Miss Grace Bell, Miss Van Reypen, Miss Grossman, Miss Anita Poor, Miss Helen Ray, Miss Sanger, Miss Sadie Cobb, Miss Barnes, Miss Edith Loring, Miss Linton, Miss Fitch, Miss Elsie Sargent, Miss Mackay Smith, Miss Bertha Hill and Miss Lincoln.
