

THE EVENING STAR.

WASHINGTON. SATURDAY, January 11, 1902.

CROSBY S. NOYES, Editor.

THE EVENING STAR has a regular and permanent Family Circulation much more than the combined circulation of the other Washington dailies.

In order to avoid delays on account of personal absence, letters to THE STAR should not be addressed to any individual connected with the office, but simply to THE STAR, or to the Editor or Business Department, according to tenor or purpose.

England and Germany.

The controversy as to whether England or Germany is the more cruel in warfare has broken out again. For a time it was confined to the newspapers of the two countries, and to all outsiders was a source of entertainment.

Congress and Cuba.

The announcement that General Wood is to appear before the ways and means committee next week when the Cuban question is to be taken up is a subject which lends itself so readily to mere partisan exaggeration.

A Man With a Motive.

"I'll go to dinner with you," said the friend, "on one condition. You must not make company of me. You must assure me that there won't be any special preparation on my account."

His Idea of Friendship.

"The best way to destroy your enemies," said the man with a gentle nature, "is to make them your friends."

A Cynic's Apprehension.

When'er I see my fellow men All chattering in their glee, I wonder if my talk bores them As much as theirs bores me.

Fancy and Reality.

The country lass delights to read Of fashion's gilded train; Her hero is a noble youth; She sighs, and sighs in vain.

Government Salaries.

The main objection of ex-Governor Shaw to accepting the office of Secretary of the Treasury was in his salary of $8,000 a year. Nearly if not quite the whole of this would go for house rent of the other heavy expenditures for entertainments, etc., required by the position.

Bryan and Jackson.

It is taking Mr. Bryan a week to deliver all of the Jackson speeches he has in stock, but in none of them will he remember to say that Jackson's administration first delivered the United States over to a gold standard. Nevertheless it is a fact.

Permanent Census.

The argument in favor of a permanent census bureau is self-evident, and there is no good argument against it. Congress will do much to be desired in the way of establishing such a bureau on the basis of the present temporary census establishment and providing for the issuance of its statistics from time to time as they may be needed.

Won in Rhyme.

And now one of the flannelled fools at the wicket gets back at Mr. Kipling by calling him a spectacled fool with an ink-pot and a muddy-brained oaf with a pen. Obviously, the poetic campaign in Great Britain is waxing hot.

A Guess.

Well, we guess that the next democratic national convention will not reiterate the demand for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without the aid or consent of any other nation on earth. We have got past that at last.

Indiana and Bryanism.

It is worthy of note that while Mr. Bryan is in the east adjusting his party friends to be steadfast in their devotion to the Chicago platform, the democrats of Indiana have elected a gold man chairman of their state committee.

All Know It.

Of course, D. B. Hill is right in telling the democracy that if it wants to win in 1904 it must quit its nonsense and get ready to fight its enemies instead of its friends. But the party does not need an ex-governor and ex-senator to tell it that.

Cold Comfort for the Consumer.

Kansas is already finding some comfort in the fact that the wheat crop has been damaged. This is a little in advance of the peach crop alarms, but then Kansas is early in discovering sorrow.

A Musical Note.

It is reported that 150,000 pianofortes were sold in the country last year. How many of them conduced to thoughts of harmony?

Venezuela.

Venezuela is fast degenerating to the level of a ward county.

Mardi Gras.

Even Memphis is going to quit the Mardi Gras habit. Let us all sing "While the light holds out."

Queen Lidluokalani is still hoping for an award of the crown lands.

She is willing to keep out of politics, but would like a start in the real estate business.

The effort to secure the release of a Montana man imprisoned for forgery by forging names to a petition for his pardon was adding insult to injury.

A little abuse more or less will not matter to a man who has had as much of it as Joseph Chamberlain.

A number of promising members of Congress will, as usual, finish in the "also talked" class.

SHOOTING STARS.
