STRIKE IS SPREADING

Teamsters at Chicago "Fair" Quit Work Today.

CHICAGO, May 31.—The teamsters' strike today spread to the department stores. Eighty-nine men working for the Fair department store, 115th Street, quit their work today. They were joined by 100 more men, employed by other big downtown stores, would be out by night. The effect, it is said, will be practically to shut off the bringing of goods to customers and the delivery of new stock. The department store teamsters' union was recently formed and is affiliated with the national organization on the same footing as the one at the stock yards. The men make the same demand as do the warehouse teamsters for better hours, higher wages and recognition of the union.

THE GAUTEMALA EARTHQUAKE.

Later Details Make the Disaster More Appalling.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—Later details of the earthquake in Guatemala only add to its horrors. Passengers arriving here on the steamer City of Sydney say they understood that 1,400 dead were taken from the ruins of Quetzaltenango. One man who was there and aided in the work of taking out the bodies, says that over 1,000 had been taken out when he left there on May 13. Thousands of days after the quake had been destroyed. Reports of loss and damage on the coffee plantations are beginning to come in, and they practically double the total reported from the towns. The estimated figures run into the millions.

STREET DUEL WITH KNIVES.

Crowd Encouraged Two Negroes to Kill Each Other.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Two colored men fought a duel to the death with knives last night at 22d and Dearborn streets. As they slashed and plunged the weapons into each other's body a crowd of more than fifty negroes formed a circle around them and cheered the combatants when one or the other drove the knife to the heart. The fight lasted ten minutes of fierce fighting. Alexander Shirley staggered and fell with his adversary's weapon sticking in his body. The long, keen-edged blade had pierced his heart. He was dead when the police arrived. His slayer, Charles Thomas, was held from the scene. Shirley, it is said, hurled him to a hospital, and after his wounds were dressed, locked him up. Shirley came to Chicago recently from Mississippi. He met Thomas last Monday, and having known him in the south tried to borrow money from him. Thomas refused, and Shirley, who is a native of Mississippi, threatened that when they met again, one or the other would die.

Both prisoners were serving long terms for desertion and had been sent to Fort Sheridan from some other post. The affair is the second of the kind that has happened at the post in less than a month.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Comment at the Capitol on His Arlington Address.

REPUBLICANS PLEASED

DEMOCRATS SAY THE OCCASION WAS INAPPROPRIATE.

The Reply to That is That It Was a Defense of the Army and Was Thoroughly Opportune.

President Roosevelt's address delivered yesterday on the occasion of Memorial day at the Capitol today. The speech was considered a notable event. The occasion was addressed in its political bearing, and as such was commended and deprecated according to the politics of the commentators. Republican politicians in Congress were delighted over the President's vigorous talk. They regard it as the keynote of the answer to be made to the attacks on the American army which have been made by the democratic senators persistently within the past six weeks or more during the consideration of the Philippines civil government bill.

Criticism of Military Power.

The republican managers, who are keeping in touch with the political situation, have not failed to notice that the discussion of the administrative features of the bill designed to promote civil government in the Philippines has been subordinated almost entirely to the criticism of the military power. Isolated acts of cruelty, all of them, as Senator Lodge stated, at least a year old, have been cited to stigmatize the entire army. Senator Carmack, for instance, asked how long it would be before the army would sink to depths of brutalization and degradation which would make it a fit company to relieve the world of its solitude of his infamy. Senator Rawlins bitterly scolded the army. Another democratic senator said the atrocities of the army were not to be public property for glorification. There has been a steady volume of condemnation of the army. Outside of the remarks of Senator Rawlins, Mr. Little was said about the relief of the Philippines.

Spirited Defense of Army.

There is no doubt that the party managers are very much heartened by this spirited defense from the commander-in-chief of the army, and his words are refreshing to them, coming after the simoon of withering denunciation which has swept over the Senate recently. The political significance of the incident is that hereafter the guns are to be turned against the democratic senators, and they are to be held up to public judgment for slandering the American army fighting in the field. The President's speech naturally will have wide circulation, and is expected to exert a salutary influence on the Philippine senators have from time to time repeated the assaults upon the army, and in every instance they have been rebuffed. Some such an incident as this, which could get through that body at this session, would suggest to the President that he should pass the measure the party managers would pass at the whole thing like a bill does at a red rag, thereby pitching the onus of the fall on financial issues. Some such an incident as this, which could get through that body at this session, would suggest to the President that he should pass the measure the party managers would pass at the whole thing like a bill does at a red rag, thereby pitching the onus of the fall on financial issues.

The Occasion Defended.

But republicans say in answer to the criticism of the inopportune of the speech that yesterday was soldiers' day; that soldiers constituted the topic; the colleagues and former officers of the men who yesterday celebrated are the officers now under fire; the sons and relatives of the fighting men of '91 are among the boys now in the field who are being maligned; and that all together they fail to see why the address was not very apt, indeed.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Statement of Revenues and Expenditures Since American Occupation.

The president pro tempore of the Senate today laid before that body a statement of the public revenues and expenditures in the Philippine archipelago from the date of the American occupation, August 29, 1898, to June 30, 1901, which was transmitted to the Senate by the Secretary of War. The statement shows the revenues for each fiscal year by items and places of assessment, and separately also expenditures at the several customs houses, the postal expenditures, the expenditures by the auditor and the treasurer and by captains of ports and the general expenditures under several headings. The amounts given are in American money. The revenue for 1899 was $3,577,863.61; 1900, $5,764,406.95; 1901, $10,672,751.95; total revenue, $20,944,962.51. The expenditures were $180, $237,608.62; 1900, $1,708,977.75; 1901, $3,052,975.82; total expenditures, $12,789,722.20. This makes an excess of revenue over expenditures of $8,155,240.31. The revenue for 1902 is $12,000,000.00. The expenditures for 1902 are $1,000,000.00. The revenue for 1903 is $12,000,000.00. The expenditures for 1903 are $1,000,000.00.

Presented With a Cuban Flag.

The first Cuban flag to float alongside of the first American flag planted in Cuban soil was presented to President Roosevelt today by Gen. E. M. Whitehead, who was colonel of the 10th Infantry and military governor of Santiago and Puerto Principe provinces after Gen. Wood went to Havana. When the marine forces first landed at the mouth of Guantanamo bay, during the Spanish war, the 4th Guards Brigade, regiment reported to Col. Huntington for assignment. A temporary flag was built, and upon it were placed the United States flag and the flag of the Cubans. The latter is the flag that now belongs to the President. It was given to Gen. Whitehead upon his return to the United States, with a request that it be handed the President. With the flag, which is a large one of regimental size, was the following letter:
