

WILL ARRIVE IN WASHINGTON TOMORROW NIGHT. PLANNING COMING TRIP ASSISTANT SECRETARY BARNES ARRANGES DETAILS.

Assistant Secretary Barnes, who has been on the New England trip with President Roosevelt, returned to Washington this morning, having left the presidential party at Bridgeport yesterday afternoon...

Mr. Barnes, in talking of the accident yesterday, said that the road between Pittsfield and Lenox, runs parallel a great part of the way with the trolley car track. There is a driveway for vehicles on each side of the track...

Mr. Barnes did not witness the accident. He saw the car which ran into the President's carriage first with him. He was talking with members of the committee...

Although Mr. Barnes disclaims having any special knowledge as to all the circumstances of the accident, not shared by many others, yet from what he saw and heard on the spot he thinks the responsibility for the accident lies between the driver of the President's carriage and the motorman...

Mr. Barnes says, is straight for some distance, and the motorman must have seen and recognized the President's carriage with its long white horses some time before stopping or materially reducing his speed...

The driver of the President's carriage, on the other hand, could hardly have had a clear view of the track at the point of collision as the trolley car had just been obstructed in its way to some extent at least...

While it is true that the men would wish, yet they would desire to be on the ground if one did occur. Throughout the New England trip seven or eight newspaper men accompanied the President as his guests...

By reason of a great deal of additional work arising out of the settlement of rebate claims brought on by the repeal of the law...

Jerome Jones, colored, who was released on his personal bonds by Judge Bundy of the Police Court yesterday...

Chief Wile of the secret service today received a dispatch from Governor Crane of Massachusetts, saying that two brothers of Agent Crane, who was killed yesterday, had arrived at Pittsfield to take charge of the remains...

FEAR OF THE TRUSTS. EXPRESSED IN BRITISH TRADES UNION CONGRESS.

LONDON, September 4.—At today's session of the Trades Union congress there was a very heated discussion of a compulsory arbitration resolution introduced by the Dock, Wharf and Riverside Union...

"In view of the colossal growth of trusts and combines of speculative capitalists and consequent concentration of capital and monopoly of industry, this congress fears the grave danger to the nation and the others of dislocation of trade, stoppage of work and distress of wage earners."

"To avert such a calamity this congress calls upon the legislature to pass an act creating a supreme court of arbitration, the court to be presided over by a lord justice, and to be constituted by an equal number of workmen and employers' representatives, who shall take evidence from the parties appealed to and their representatives. Legal experts to be in all cases deputed from outside the supreme court."

"In all cases workmen's representatives to be selected by trades unions as commissioners or members of the supreme court. For the effective dealing with dispute, commissioners to be constituted for the great staple trades, viz., mining, textile, transport, engineering, and so on, with a crown judge over each. The courts failing to settle disputes, cases are to be submitted to the supreme court. Only unions covered by registration under an act identical with the trades union act to be eligible for consideration of courts or to be members of the supreme court."

"Many of the speakers opposed the resolution on the ground that under such a system the trades union would not only lose many of the advantages they had won but would be reduced to a mere tool of the state, since the need for their survival would no longer exist."

At 8:30 ten boat loads of marines are reported as having landed at Montauk Point signal station from two cutters, about to attack signal station there.
