

THE EVENING STAR.

WASHINGTON. THURSDAY, June 18, 1903.

CROSBY S. NOYES, Editor.

THE EVENING STAR has a regular and permanent Family Circulation much more than the combined circulation of the other Washington dailies.

In order to avoid delays on account of personal absences, orders for advertising should be addressed to an individual connected with the office, but simply to THE STAR, or to the Editorial or Business Departments, according to tenor or purpose.

Mr. Tulloch's Final Vindication.

If further proof were needed of the injustice to the District of the close connection between the city post office and the Post Office Department, it is furnished by the report of General Bristow and the appended exhibits comprising the reports of the inspectors who, at his direction, conducted an investigation of the local office.

The Washington office is in a peculiar position in any event, being entrusted with the handling of the great bulk of the governmental mails, which being carried free bring no revenue to the receiving office.

But the very reverse has been true for a long time, more conspicuously, however, since the local office was given house room in the building occupied by the department.

Mr. Tulloch's allegations have now been amply justified, first by the Civil Service Commission, and now by the inspection force of the postal department itself.

Mr. Jones of Toledo says that he was cured of catarrh, rheumatism and numerous other things by sleeping in the open air all night.

There are so many unions in Chicago that some strikers are indignant because of the inconvenience they are suffering through the failure of other discontented workmen to perform their ordinary duties.

King Karageorgevitch will probably be prudent enough to get a military O. K. before he attempts the establishment of any radical policy.

A witness in a Kentucky trial may at least congratulate himself on the fact that he is not taking as many chances as a Serbian monarch.

The Post Office Department is now engaged in the occupation of carrying the news of its own embarrassment to all parts of the country.

It is unfortunate that a monarch's mental capacity cannot be measured before his accession instead of after his death.

Reports of unfriendliness of trusts to President Roosevelt may prove valuable assets during campaign time.

ers have often traversed half the continent in order to lend vocal encouragement to the delegates favoring their candidates.

The President who would seek to influence a convention in his own interest by the extension of special attentions would injure rather than help his chances for renomination.

Under these circumstances Washington has become the ideal meeting place for the delegates. To give further heed to the old prejudice against it is to demonstrate a lack of appreciation by the managers of the parties that the passing of time has brought changes.

A Great Loss to the Community. The declination by Gen. Harries of reappointment as a member of the board of education means a great loss to the city.

Of course, it would be unfair to let Mr. Machen have a monopoly of the indictments.

SHOOTING STARS. A Difficult Position. "Is it hard to be a detective?" asked the young woman admiringly.

Envy Modified. I'd really like to be a king. While people praise and poets sing.

Self-Approval. "You mean to say you don't see anything wrong in the behavior of the trust?"

A Subterfuge. "Don't you know that it is wrong to gamble?"

Superiority. When the public draws near to see Margaret May And the rest of the lassies in dainty array

The Panama Hold-Up. Colombia is playing a dangerous game in the isthmian canal matter—a game that glaringly illustrates the danger of ignorance in international affairs.

Coal Trust Stupidity. From the Philadelphia North American. Mr. Baer's latest encounter with John Mitchell leaves the coal trust president in his usual uncomfortable position and incurring public contempt.

conditions favoring the coal-mining industry than ever before.

The President's victory in the interest of industrial peace is completed by the action of the Senate.

Some eminent divines have been shocked because of reports that gambling is frequent among women.

Honesty in Politics. From the Kansas City Star. Such men as Theodore Roosevelt and Joseph W. Folk prove that honesty is the best policy in politics, as well as in every other activity.

Some Rich Men Are Fools. From the Portland Telegram. A great—or at least a greatly paid—corporation lawyer is reported to have said the other day: "If there is any bigger fool than a millionaire, it is a multimillionaire."

Culmbacher, A Perfect BEER. THE quality of CULMBACHER BEER is the natural result of the quality of the hops—skill of the brewer and the perfect equipment of the brewery are considered.
