

THE PRESIDENT'S EXERCISES

Exercises in Commemoration of 172d Anniversary.

HONOR TO HIS MEMORY

LOCAL PATRIOTIC BODIES HOLD SPECIAL SESSIONS.

General Observance in the Capital City, Which Bears His Name, and Elsewhere.

Throughout this broad land and its insular possessions patriotic Americans are today engaged in celebrating the 172d anniversary of the birth of George Washington, patriot and first President of the United States.

Locally there have come from the halls of Congress, where the Declaration of Independence was read, to the exercises by patriotic bodies. Residents of the city which proudly bears his name are doing honor to George Washington, the man, the soldier and the citizen.

THE DISTRICT BUDGET

Appropriation Bill Not Reported Today.

POLICE COURT ITEM

PLAN TO PUT THE COURT IN NEW MUNICIPAL BUILDING.

Objections to This Scheme Cause a Postponement in Committee.

The House committee on appropriations met this morning at 11 o'clock for the consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill, as prepared by the subcommittee of which Representative McCleary is chairman.

ANTI-CLEVELAND PLANS.

The anti-Cleveland democrats of New Jersey are making plans to keep Mr. Cleveland from controlling the New Jersey delegation to the democratic national convention.

Objections Raised.

When this proposed scheme was reached in the full committee this morning some lively opposition was aroused. The committee adjourned without finally agreeing on a new Police Court building.

THE PRESENT STRUCTURE CONDEMNED.

The present Police Court building has become a dilapidated, overcrowded and insanitary structure. To properly accommodate the two branches of the court, and to make provision for the offices connected with the court, would require practically an entire block of new municipal buildings.

A Full Appropriation.

The appropriations committee, it is said, has decided to make available the entire amount necessary for the construction of the new municipal building.

Counting the Money Paper.

Inventory of Printing Bureau's Stock in Progress. All day yesterday and today a force of 125 treasury clerks has been engaged in making an inventory of the stock of valuable paper in the bureau of engraving and printing.

Russia Will Not Participate.

The possibility of a Russian government exhibit at the St. Louis exposition is finally dismissed. Ambassador McCormick has stated the State Department has been officially of Russia's intention to withdraw from participation in the St. Louis exposition.
