THE WORLD OF SOCIETY. RECEPTION YESTERDAY TO THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS. Beautiful Ceremony Unites Miss Edson and Mr. Eichelberger—Other Weddings—Personal Notes.

The members of the diplomatic corps were received by Mrs. Roosevelt in the blue room of the White House yesterday at 5 o'clock. Major Charles L. McCallum making the presentations. After the reception tea was served in the dining room. Mr. Douglas Robinson and Miss Robinson of New York have joined Mrs. Robinson and are spending today at the White House. The marriage last night at the New Church, 16th and Corcoran streets, of Miss Elizabeth Edson and Mr. Frederick Eichelberger was witnessed by an assemblage of their relatives and friends so large that there was not left even standing room in the edifice, save down the center aisle. The guests were seated by the ushers—Messrs. Miss Elizabeth Edson. John Joy Edson, Jr., Frank and Robert Eichelberger of Urbana, Ohio, brothers of the bridegroom, Evans Brown, Harry Meem and James Harbaugh. Across the upper half of the church nearly all those present were in dress, and attended the reception afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Joy Edson on 16th street. The church was elaborately set with palms and foliage plants, and a large cluster of white chrysanthemums filled the center of the altar. Bunches of white chrysanthemums marked off the family pews. The choristers from St. Paul's Church came down from the vestry to the church door by a side aisle and preceded the bridal party up the middle aisle singing "Faithful and True." The bridal party consisted of the four bridesmaids, Miss Mary Wimer, Miss Anna Warner, Miss Elizabeth Sewall and Miss Katherine Reed, and Miss Elizabeth Don as maid of honor. The bride was escorted to the chancel by her father, Mr. George Eichelberger of Cleveland was best man. The choristers were grouped outside the church and the bridesmaids and ushers within its pale for the ceremony, which Rev. Frank Sewall performed. Before the benediction the chorists sang the anthem "In His Presence" and intoned the "Amen" at the close of each prayer and of the entire service. The smiling bridegroom and his radiant bride passed down the aisle to the "Lohengrin" wedding march. The bride never looked handsomer than in her wedding finery. Her dress of white satin had a V-shaped yoke of tulle and a berth of point lace. Her tulle veil fell from under a wreath of orange blossoms and her shower bouquet was of lilacs of the valley. In pretty contrast was the delicate effect of the dresses of the maid of honor, the bridesmaids and ushers in pink silk, and of the bridesmaids, who wore pink liberty gause with lace yokes and pink girdles. All carried pink roses and ferns. Mrs. Edson, mother of the bride, was handsomely gowned in mauve velvet and pearl lace, with diamond and pearl ornaments. At the Edson home the newly married couple received in the bay window bowler of palms and chrysanthemums.

Mr. Frederick Eichelberger. mums, the guests coming a few minutes after the first arrivals in a steady stream. Among the relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Eichelberger, the parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. Emma Eichelberger, Mr. Jerome B. Zerbe, all of Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Bertrams of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bennett, Miss Bennett and Miss Jane Bennett of Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Edson and Miss Edson of this city, and Mrs. Schull of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Eichelberger left late last night for their honeymoon journey, and will be away several weeks. The bride is presented by numerous and valuable. Miss Ethel Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hughes, and Mr. Paul Martin Bryan were married last night in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends at the residence of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George F. Dudley, pastor of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, of which the bride is a member. At the commencement of the wedding march, played by Miss Helen Stone, the bride, escorted by her father, came down the stairs, preceded by her little niece, Miss Helen Bertrams. The ushers were Mr. Helen Strayer, who acted as ribbon bearer. The bride wore a becoming gown of soft white silk and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bryan left for a trip to New York. On their return to this city they will reside at 1416 Kenesaw avenue. A pretty chrysanthemum wedding took place last night at 8 o'clock at Foundry M. E. Church, 16th and Church streets, when Miss Lucy Catherine Oyster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Oyster, and Mr. George Harner Ward were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert M. Moore, pastor of the church. The altar was artistically decorated with palms and chrysanthemums and presented a most attractive appearance. The ushers were Mr. Edward Wilver, Mr. Frank E. Oyster, brother of the bride, Mr. Arthur Clark and Mr. Philip Ward, brother of the groom, all of this city. As the bridal party wended its way to the altar Dr. J. W. Bischoff rendered the wedding march from Lohengrin. The four ushers who headed the procession were followed by Miss Myra G. Stewart of Baltimore as maid of honor, preceding the bride, who entered the church with her father, Mr. Gratton L. McGill of New York City was best man. The handsome bride wore white tulle and silk, trimmed with

MR. CLAYTON'S VIEWS. Doesn't Expect Action on Much Besides the Appropriations. "If I were a republican I feel sure I would not think I was called on to revise the tariff," remarked Representative Clayton of Alabama to a Star reporter today. "The republicans were victorious in the November elections on the policy of 'stand pat,' and, that being the case, I cannot see why they feel called upon to change the tariff. So far as the coming session is concerned I do not expect that anything beside the appropriation bills will be passed. I do not believe anything will be done about any re-appointment of the southern representation in Congress beyond the possible appointment of a committee to inquire into conditions. I have no fear of the republican majority undertaking any reappointment if they have a reappointment in mind. If they have a reappointment in mind they will have to have it in the north and west. In Massachusetts, where there are very few republican members, and in California, where the large Chinese population is without vote by federal restriction, the republican representation would mean giving the approval of Congress to an elimination of the vote of the colored people. I have no fear of the republican majority restricting the tariff. I do not think the majority is likely to bear talk restricting the representation of the southern states."
