

MUTEERS GIVE UP

Surrendered Ship to Roumanian Officials Today

AT PORT OF KUSTENJI

CREW SENT IN SMALL PARTIES TO POINTS IN COUNTRY.

They Were Treated as Foreign Deserters—Particulars of the Terms of Surrender.

KUSTENJI, Roumania, July 8.—The flag of St. Andrew once again floats over the battleship Kniaz Potemkine and the torpedo boat, which have proved such terrors to the Black sea communities for a couple of weeks past.

The formal surrender of the mutinous crews actually occurred at 1 o'clock this afternoon after a series of discussions and negotiations between the Roumanian authorities and the leaders of the mutineers.

The Roumanian officers who boarded the battleship on her arrival here called upon the crew to surrender, in which case they would be treated as foreign deserters, or else leave the port forthwith.

It suddenly became apparent that the Russian vessels returning to this port with the intention of giving themselves up to a foreign government and the crews soon announced their acceptance of the Roumanian terms.

The mutineers wanted to be permitted to take off the treasure which was on board the Kniaz Potemkine, but the Roumanian authorities declined to acquiesce.

The Russians will gradually be conveyed to any frontier they may select and will then be liberated through officials having given an undertaking to this effect. The Roumanian flag has been hoisted over the Russian war vessels as well as the Kniaz Potemkine and the crews of the Russian squadron which are reported to be in pursuit of the mutineers.

Offered to Surrender.

The mutineers on the Kniaz Potemkine offered to surrender as deserters, and the Roumanian authorities demanded that the breach-blocks of the battleship's guns as a pledge of good faith.

The Kniaz Potemkine arrived here today, accompanied by a torpedo boat, and now lies in the outer harbor, near the Russian guardship Psezoape.

The Roumanian cruiser Elisabeta and the training ship Mircea are in close proximity. Gen. Angelesco, commanding the Dobruza division, and the port commander proceeded to the mutineers' battleship to demand an explanation of the reasons for their reappearance in Roumanian waters.

The Roumanian authorities demanded that the Kniaz Potemkine begin exchanging signals with the royal guardship Psezoape, and it was the belief ashore that the mutineers contemplated a landing in accordance with the terms offered by the Roumanian government when the battleship last visited this port.

Roumanians Excited.

The appearance of the Kniaz Potemkine and the rumors concerning her intentions of her crew caused the greatest excitement in Kustenji and attracted large crowds to the sea front. The excitement was increased later in the day when it became known that the mutineers had offered to surrender to the Roumanian authorities as deserters, and that Roumanian officials had demanded the breach-blocks of the guns of the battleship as a pledge of the mutineers' good faith.

The mutineers, it is reported further, offered to present the battleship to the Roumanian government, as they declare they are anxious that she should not be handed over to Russia.

The mutineers asked the Roumanian authorities to guarantee that they would furnish the sailors with arrears of their Roumanian passports, and also to guarantee that they shall not be extradited to Russia.

The mutinous crews of the Kniaz Potemkine and her consort, the rebel torpedo boat, were landed and are now being dispatched in small parties to different places in Roumania.

TURKEY ASKED TO SINK SHIP.

Request Filed by Russian Embassy at Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 8.—The Russian embassy has authorized Turkey to sink the Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkine if she appears at the entrance of the Bosphorus. The ports called the attention of the embassy to the possibility of the battleship attempting to force a passage of the Bosphorus, and asked what ought to be done under such circumstances. "Sink her without hesitation," was the reply. The Turkish dispatch boat Izmedin, consequently, was sent to try to communicate with the Kniaz Potemkine, and warn her not to go to Anadolu-Kavak, at the entrance of the Bosphorus, as she will be sunk if she appears.

St. Petersburg Advised.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 8.—The admiralty has been advised of the arrival of the Kniaz Potemkine at Kustenji, and is now endeavoring to get in touch with Rear Admiral Kruger's squadron and turn it westward. Dispatches have been sent to all the Caucasian ports.

The return of the rebel battleship to Kustenji has been a complete surprise to the admiralty, as they were convinced that the mutineers were heading for Batoum or Port. The naval authorities conjecture that a large part of the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine would rather take advantage of Roumanian offer of treatment as deserters, and thereby escape punishment for their conduct, than cast in their lot with the revolutionists in the Caucasus.

ODESSA, July 8.—Advices received here today say that the Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkine arrived at Kustenji at 2 o'clock this morning.

PEACE ENVOYS SAILED

Departure From Yokohama on the Minnesota Today.

A PATRIOTIC PARTING

EVENT MADE OCCASION FOR GREAT DEMONSTRATION.

Enthusiasm at Tokyo and Yokohama—Enormous Crowds of Japanese and Foreigners—Collation Served.

YOKOHAMA, Japan, July 8.—The steamer Minnesota of the Great Northern Line, with the Japanese peace plenipotentiaries, sailed from this port for Seattle at 4:30 this afternoon. The governor of Yokohama and the civic bodies escorted the plenipotentiaries to the pier, where they were received by a military guard. At the pier the plenipotentiaries and their suites entered launches and were conveyed to the Minnesota, which was dressed with flags as were all the other ships in the harbor.

The Marquis Ito, Premier Katsura, the other members of the cabinet, Mr. Griscum, the American minister, and the staff of the legation were among those who accompanied Baron Komura and his party to the Minnesota. An enormous crowd of Japanese and foreigners with bands of music assembled at the water front and general enthusiasm was manifested, the bands playing patriotic airs and the crowds discharging fireworks.

On arriving on board the Minnesota Baron Komura and those who accompanied him partook of a collation, after which the ship sailed amidst a storm of banzais. The Japanese guardship Takao fired a salute of nineteen guns, and the Minnesota put to sea, escorted by a torpedo boat and a naval steamer specially detailed to convey her out of Tokyo bay.

IMPRESSIVE FUNCTION

FINAL CEREMONY IN TRANSFER OF PAUL JONES' BODY.

CHERBOURG, July 8.—The final ceremony of the transfer of the body of Admiral Paul Jones on board the United States flagship Brooklyn took place at noon today, and was the occasion for another impressive function, in which the entire force of the American squadron, large detachments of French soldiers and sailors and an enormous crowd of townspeople participated. The body was first placed on board the torpedo boat Zouave, and thence was transferred to the Brooklyn, while the batteries of the two squadrons fired minute guns.

WALLER'S DEATH MYSTERY.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Gus Waller and Yellmar Leopold, Swedes, who came to America six years ago to make their fortunes, are both dead by the act of Waller.

Two pistol shots awakened other lodgers in the house today, and when they reached the room Leopold and Waller were stretched out on the bed, dead.

Leopold was a man of splendid physique, but Waller was sickly. It is thought that Waller, believing he would die soon, let the belief so prey on his mind that today's tragedy followed.

No letters were found which would account for the deed, and it is known that the men had been on friendly terms.
