THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS SOWERS AND MAJOR FAISON.

Wedding Invitations Out for Several Events Here and Elsewhere—Personal Notes.

One of the most interesting of the matrimonial announcements of the autumn is that made today by Dr. and Mrs. Sowers in the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor Kerfoot, and Maj. Samson Lane Faison, U. S. A. The wedding will, it is understood, take place in the near future.

The bride-elect has charming manners, with unusual personal attractions, and is a very great favorite socially. She has identified herself with both public and private charities most successfully in this city, where she enjoys a wide acquaintance.

Many Washington friends of the family have received invitations from Mrs. A. B. Doyle of Asheville, formerly of this city, to the marriage of her daughter, Helen. Mr. Joseph Bennett. The ceremony will occur October 20, at the Doyle residence on Cumberland avenue and will be witnessed by only the close friends of the young couple, to whom a breakfast will be served immediately before the ceremony. Miss Doyle is a sister of Mrs. Beekman Lorillard.

The marriage of Miss Zoe Davis to Mr. Richard C. M. Calvert will take place very quietly October 18, at the family apartment at the Connecticut. Both families are in mourning.

William J. Bryan made his first Kansas speech in this campaign at Fort Scott, Kan., yesterday. He said, in part: "President Roosevelt has done a good deal to convince the public that there is something good in the democratic platform. He had the courage to take up some of the reforms the democrats advocated before his party had advocated them."
