Purchase if 1,700 fur pieces to be sold 1-3 to 1=2 below their worth.

The weather that has kept you from buying caused one of our big supply houses to become anxious. They had immense stocks which because of the continued warm weather were not selling. We took all we could get at the prices named, and would take as many more could we get them.

You'll find here bargains that beat everything heretofore offered—even our summer sale bargains.

The news below is little more than a bulletin. You can count on the values as stated, and when you examine the pieces they'll corroborate every claim. You know cold weather—bitterly cold weather—is near. Be wise to opportunity and conditions of weather and market.
