

SKANNSONS' CO. 8th St. & Pa. Ave. THE BUSY CORNER

Ruchings and pleatings a feature of the smart new frocks.

Notice in the fashion books how all the ultra-stylish gowns have these "frills" around the sleeves, down the front of a waist, and some are used on the skirts. Assortments are complete here and prices least.

NARROW SILK PLEATINGS in white, black and combinations of black with white and white with black; also of narrow lace and mull— 15c. and 25c. yd. PLEATING of mull, chiffon or net in white, ecru or cream and one, two or three rows— 50c., 75c., 98c. yd. PLEATINGS of Val. or Mechlin lace with pleated chiffon foundation that forms a very full, fluffy pleating— 50c., 75c. to $1.25 yd.

Guimpes for women for 75c.

DON'T bother with making or having made a guimpe for your summer suit. It won't pay when a ready-made one can be had so low in price. These are made of white nainsook with six rows narrow tucks and fagoting in between; three-quarter sleeves. First Floor—Neckwear.

Buttons—More than a dozen kinds—at 48c.

For wraps—for dresses—these buttons are most appropriate to use, and there is such a range of colors that any shade trimming or cloth can be matched. ENAMELED BUTTONS, in flange effect. We've the smaller Buttons to match these at 25c. a dozen. First Floor—Trimming Section.

RIBBONS.

We've the novelties as well as staple weaves.

It's to be a season of "plenty" of ribbons. If you follow fashion closely you will have ribbons galore on your new hats, with long ends in back; a ribbon girle to match each gown, and often the new pattern calls for ribbons as trimmings. The new flowered ribbons will play an important part, with the light plaids, checks and Roman stripes not far behind. A novelty this season is the broadcote ribbon in self or contrasting colors, and some new effects are displayed in Persians. The flowered ribbons at $1.75 and $2.25 yard are very wide, varying 9 to 10 inches, and the flowers look as though hand-painted. The flowers are all printed in colors true to nature, and you are offered choice of roses, pansies, violets, passion flowers and others.

We've Flowered Ribbons at 30c. yard to $2.25. We've Plaid and Roman-stripe Ribbons, 3c. to 75c. yard. We've Check Ribbons at 20c. to 50c. yard.
