THE MIDNIGHT GUEST.

A DETECTIVE STORY BY FRED M. WHITE, Author of "The Crimson Blind," "The Corner House," etc.

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. It was such an unusual thing for Lord Ravenspur to show his feelings so plainly.

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. The center of the floor rose a fine acacia tree, the vivid green foliage of which seemed to suffer nothing from being cut off from the outer light and air.

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "You will have to leave these to the nation," a guest laughed. "What a cosmopolitan! He is a prince on the one side, and a prominent socialist on the other!"

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "Where did you get that from?" Ravenspur asked. "The police would have upset me so much. But perhaps, coming on the horrors of this morning, it had been a little too much for me."

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "Oh, nonsense," he said. "A canful of hot water will repair all the damage. Tell me, you worry about me, you go in to dinner and leave me to you. Waiter here!"

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "I am annoyed, just for the moment, to think that that portrait should have been taken when I was looking at it. I had looked at it carefully away in a safe."

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "The speaker broke off abruptly. He slammed the door behind him, and returned to his guests. But the light had gone out of his eyes; he seemed to have suddenly aged."

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "It shall be just as you please, my friends," Ravenspur said. "Now let us go and have a coffee in the study. It is much cooler there, and there is more space for us."

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "I had no bridge," Sir James said emphatically. "I thought you should make some suggestion. Ravenspur, seeing how you detest the company, but, at any rate, I will have an extra coffee of those excellent cigarettes of yours."

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "I think I can remember it," Ravenspur said. "It was a superb piece of work, the first speaker went on; 'Anything more fascinating than the woman's face I don't recollect seeing. I don't know who your model was, Ravenspur, but you had a rare find here!'"

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "I remember the picture perfectly well," one of the guests remarked. "It was the study of a woman. Do you recollect my coming in one night and you asked me my opinion of it?"

CHAPTER IV. A Woman's Face. "I had no bridge," Sir James said emphatically. "I thought you should make some suggestion. Ravenspur, seeing how you detest the company, but, at any rate, I will have an extra coffee of those excellent cigarettes of yours."

POLITICS IN MARYLAND

Democratic Pow-Stows Fail to Heal the Breaches. MACHINE VS. WARFIELD. Situation Reported to Be Worse Than the Surface Shows.

SMITH'S SENATORIAL CHANCES. Comment Over the Nullification Act. Big Plans for the Home-Coming Week Celebration.

Special Correspondence of The Star. BALTIMORE, September 16, 1907. The get-together meeting held by the democratic leaders during last week to fix upon a plan for holding the senatorial primary seems to have had the effect of only widening the breach between the organization and anti-organization forces.

Reverend Sam Jones's Widow Gets $1,000 per Year for Life. The name and the fame of Rev. Sam P. Jones have gone over the nation. While the noted evangelist preached the Gospel with great power, it now transpires that he provided for his wife with good good sense. As a result of this foresight and self-denial

The Mutual Life Insurance Company. is now paying Mrs. Jones $1,000 per year, and will continue to do so during her life. In a recent letter Mrs. Jones thanks the Company for the way in which this matter has been handled. This is all good for Mrs. Jones, but how about the woman yet unprotected and the man yet uninsured? The need is great and certain. The Company is strong and ready. Write and learn more about how such protection can be secured.

The Time to Act is NOW. For the new forms of policies write to The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, N. Y. Or THOS. P. MORGAN, Manager, 1333-1335 F St. N. W., Washington, D. C.

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT. Two Maryland Peace Officers Threatened With Arrest. Special Correspondence of The Star. HYATTSVILLE, September 16, 1907. Warrants will probably be served upon Constables George Markward and Robert L. Payne of Brentwood this evening, charging them with assault. The warrants result from an attempt on the part of the officers to stop an automobile driven by Harvey G. Machen of Hyattsville, Saturday evening.

MARLBORO FAIR SOON. THERE'LL BE BIG POLITICAL DOINGS TOO, OF COURSE. Special Correspondence of The Star. HYATTSVILLE, September 16, 1907. Preparations are being made for the annual fair to be held at Upper Marlboro October 1, 2 and 3 under the auspices of the Southern Maryland Fair Association.

Act of Nullification. The action taken by the democratic state central committee last Tuesday practically nullifies the resolution introduced by Gov. Warfield and adopted by the democratic state convention providing for a direct vote for the United States Senate. Gov. Warfield, State Senator Blair, Lee and former Representative Miles made a strong fight for the adoption of a resolution providing that the candidates receiving the highest number of votes should be elected.

Warfield May Withdraw. Among the close friends of Gov. Warfield the impression prevails that he will withdraw from the race. The governor fully realizes that he enjoys the cordial and unqualified support of the majority of the Gorman-Basin machine, and that these men will bring into play every trick that their political cunning can devise to defeat any ambition which Gov. Warfield may cherish.

Mrs. Blair Convicted at Columbia. COLUMBIA, S. C., September 16.—Mrs. Ethel W. Blair, charged with the murder of her husband, W. M. Blair, a conductor on the Columbia, Newberry and Laurens railroad, in January last, was convicted yesterday of manslaughter, with a recommendation to mercy. Sentences will be imposed tomorrow. Mrs. Blair is thirty years old and has two children. She is an unusually handsome woman and stood well in this community.

Leesburg and Vicinity. Special Correspondence of The Star. LEESBURG, Va., September 16, 1907. A meeting of the town council last Saturday night Mayor Garrett appointed the following committees: Finance, Messrs. William H. Martin, J. R. H. Alexander and George N. Casey; board of health or sanitary committee, Dr. John A. Gibson and Councilman Oden N. Casey north of Market street; water works and sewers committee, Samuel W. Norris, W. C. Orr and Louis C. Rollins; town hall committee, W. C. Orr, W. H. Martin and Samuel W. Norris; building committee, J. N. Sampelle and Oden N. Casey; board assessors, J. R. H. Alexander, C. A. English, Jr., and P. C. Saunders; committee on property, Louis C. Rollins, J. N. Sampelle and Edgar Littleton; commissioners on streets, King street, L. C. Rollins and Edgar Littleton; Union street, C. D. Hammett; Ayre street, Oden N. Casey; Cornwall street, Anthony Dibble; Market and Fayette streets, W. C. Orr and W. H. Martin; Loudoun street, J. R. H. Alexander and J. N. Sampelle; Royal and South streets, P. C. Saunders; Liberty street, Samuel W. Norris, and Church street, Anthony Dibble.

Home Week Plans. There is every indication that the greatest crowd of former Marylanders will come from Washington during the old home week celebration next month. For the past week a corps of clerks have been kept busy sending out invitations from the Governor of Maryland to former residents of this state now residing in the District of Columbia. Thousands of names have been sent into headquarters from Washington and each person named has received or will receive an invitation to come to Baltimore on the big features of the week will be fraternal day October 16, and a number of fraternal dinners will be given. The first part in the great parade, which is assured, will be the largest and most spectacular procession ever witnessed in the harbor. There will be over fifty bands in line and twice as many floats. From reports received from the forty orders that will participate in the grand march, estimates that there will be not less than 25,000 marchers in line. This parade will be 2,000 feet long and will be followed by an invitation ball at the Fifth Regiment armory, to which 15,000 invitations have been issued. This ball will be attended by the state and city officials, and the electrical effects in the ballroom will be a gorgeous show.

Sunday Service at Miles Church. Services were held at Miles Church yesterday at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. J. H. Dawson of Tennessee preached. Rev. J. E. Smith of Humboldt, Tenn., preached at the evening service. Rev. D. W. Harlin of Shreveport, La., made an address. Rev. E. B. Rosser, the pastor, has returned from a vacation.

The Universal Staple. Strengthening food for the weakest digestion. Nourishing food for the strongest digestion. Good for the babies—good for all ages—the most nutritious of all the wheat foods.

Uneda Biscuit. In moisture and dust proof packages. NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY
