Sprung a Surprise.

Thaw sprung the first great surprise of the second trial today by announcing avenue to the navy yard." that it had issued subpoenas for several of the expert witnesses who testified for the prosecution at the first hearing a year ago, and who, when District Attorney Jerome applied for a lunacy commission, made afficult that in their opinion Thaw. the those of the inquiry, was suffering incurable form of insanity. Thes Mr. Jerome's famous hypothetical estion, that they believed Thaw knew at he was about when he shot and led Stanford White on the Madison roof garden. This move is inlended by the defense as a block to the osecution in putting these same doctors on the stand, and is taken by some as showing a determination that Thaw shall be convicted, even with the danger of a stay in the asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan as the alternative.

Mare Jurors Summoned.

Predictions were freely made at the be ginning of this the third day of the tria that a jury will not be secured before the middle or latter part of next week. There were but three sworn jurors in the box when court convened at 10:45 a.m. and they represented the net proceeds of two panels of 100 talesmen each. third and last panel of the 300 origi-summoned reported today, and there was no thought that it would furnish al! material needed to complete the trial-twelve.

As a result the court ordered that 200 additional talesmen be summoned to re-port temorrow and Filday. At the first trial some 370 talesmen were examined before a satisfactory jury was empaneled

One Fine Remitted.

The first batch of talesmen called to the witness chair were quickly disposed of as every man had too fixed an opinion to serve as a fair juror, until John H. Holbert, an elderly man, and president of a spring water company, was reached. Mr. Holbert said he had formed something of opinion, but he was sure he could lay He was closely questioned District Attorney Jerome and Mr. Littleton and was finally accepted.

Philip J. Goodhart, a stockbroker, who was absent yesterday when his name was called, appeared today and made his excuses. The fine of $250 imposed upon him was remitted by Justice Dowling. Goodhart was then examined for jury duty, and when he declared he held which could not be changed he got a lecture from the court, ending the order that his name be stricken from the special list, and put upon the ordinary Surv panel. Similar action has been taken

The clubs included in the list are the Bartenders' Union, Brightwood Driving. Chamberlain, Home, Jolly Fat Men's, Sparta, South Washington Business Men's Bowling, Villa Flora, Washington Jockey and the Wine View Pleasure.

The clubs which were granted liquor icenses today are the Army and Navy. Metropolitan, Eagle, Century, Cosmos, Garrick, University and the Washington aengerbund.

Regarding the licenses "held up" the members of the board say that there were no protests or complaints from citizens or religious or temperance organiza-tions as to them, but in nearly every case the police captains of the precincts in which the respective clubs are located alled attention to the low membership fee, and suggested that a ruling be made by the board curtailing the selling of liquor Sunday by such clubs.

TAKAHIRA IS NAMED.

Japanese Government Announces His Nomination.

TOKIO, January 8 .- In connection with the successor of Viscount Aoki as Jananese ambassador at Washington the Associated Press has been informed that the he clubs in question charge too small Japanese embassy at Washington was instructed a week ago to formally notify the State Department of the selection of Baron Takahira, at present Japanese ambassador to Italy, and to ask if he would be acceptable.

No reply has yet been received, and the foreign office attributes the delay to the pressure of business at Washington. It does not believe there will be the slightest hesitation on the part of the American government in accepting Baron Takahira.

While nothing official has been heard at the Japanese embassy of the decision of the Japanese government to appoint Baron Takahira as ambassador to Washington, still no doubt seems to be entertained by those on duty at the embassy that such an appointment will soon be announced. Logically he seems to be the proper man for the place, because of his previous services in Washington and his intimate acquaintance with American institutions and politics. The Japanese government is anxious to send one of her number of persons available for the position is limited. It has been repeatedly stated at the em-bassy that it was not likely that the sucof Viscount Aoki will be announced until he arrives in Japan.
