STATE'S ATTORNEY OBJECTS PREFERS PRIZE RING CASE SHALL GO TO GRAND JURY.

Results of Raid by Prince George County Officials at Sut-land Park.

Three ejected individuals were led from the county jail at Upper Marlboro, Md., to the office of Magistrate Ridgely yesterday to be given a trial. They were W. P. Whip, better known as "Kid" Whip, and L. K. Foley, whose friends also know him as "Kid" Foley, wrestlers, and Jim Janey, the referee, representing the gathering at Sutland Park Thursday night. Sheriff Hurd, Deputies A. B. Suit, William Boone, Charles Lusby, Lemuel Allen, E. E. Pumpfrey and others were on hand to testify regarding the raid and round-up.

State's Attorney N. Hampton Magruder objected to the trial of the case before the magistrate. He asked for a jury trial and had the three defendants bound over to the April term of the court.
Bond was fixed at $400 in the cases of the principals and of the referee at $300.
The charges against the three parties will come before the grand jury next week, and should an indictment be returned against them, which is probable, the trials will be before Judge Merrick.

Sheriff's First Raid.
The raid Thursday night was the first of the kind that Sheriff Hurd has made, and it was the first time he had come in contact with alleged lawbreakers from this city. The sheriff went to Sutland for the purpose of getting Buck Talbert and Edward Crowley, who were scheduled for a contest, but they were not willing to enter the ring unless they were given the assurance that there would be no interference on the part of the sheriff.

While in this city Thursday afternoon Sheriff Hurd heard rumors afloat that he had been "fixed" and he made up his mind that he would show his hand in such a way that there could be no mistake about his attitude. He gave it out that he was on his way to Baltimore to attend a sparring match that night, and his statement was communicated to some of those who were interested in the affair at Sutland. Buck Talbert appeared at the building and was in a position to participate in the bout unless the sheriff would not interfere.

"Unfortunately for him and his friends Sheriff Hurd and his deputies had gained advance notice of the gathering and were in a position to hear what was said.
"Janey is the man we must get," the sheriff told his deputies when he heard the remarks evidently meant to reflect upon him.

When the sheriff gave the signal for the raid to be made the several deputies closed in upon the gathering, causing a stampede. Chairs and benches were overturned, some of the heavier weights becoming entangled in the furniture in a way to exhibit several pairs of legs above the seats and present an amusing, not to say amazing, spectacle. One of the climbed upon a chair and went through the transom, while others went out the windows, taking sash and glass with them.
Revolvers were drawn by some of the deputies, and most of those who were in the audience became frightened.

"No Marlboro jail for me," several of them said, and they lost no time returning to the city.

Brisk Move Toward Washington.
Automobile horns were heard tooting along the road and drivers were heard urging their horses along, all anxious to cross the District line before they could be overtaken by the county officers. In their hurry to get away, it is stated, several of the drivers neglected to take their weights from their horses, and several weights and straps were picked up on the road by the sheriff and his deputies.

One party met with a mishap in the early hours of the morning while passing through Anacostia. There were sixteen men seated in a small wagon, which was drawn by one horse. The driver was urging his horse at a fast gait along Harrison street, when one of the rear wheels collapsed and the entire party was thrown into the street. Policeman J. H.
Reagan, who was near at hand, proffered aid, but none was needed, as no one was injured. The men were forced to proceed on their journey to town on foot.

"I guess those fellows understand about the fixing," the sheriff remarked after he had made his successful raid.
Sheriff Hurd told a Star reporter that he was offered $100 to let the meeting be held without interference, but so long as he is sheriff of the county he says, he will raid every such crowd. It was reported this morning that friends of the three prisoners were making an effort to furnish bond for their release.

SURVIVOR AS WITNESS.
Chief Justice Clabaugh's Opinion of Relation of Husband and Wife.

Chief Justice Clabaugh yesterday delivered an opinion in the case of George W. Bowles against George Ockstadt, involving several propositions of law bearing upon the relation of husband and wife and the surviving party to testify to a transaction with the deceased. Complainant by his bill filed through Attorney Leon Tobriner alleged that he was married to Catherine Ockstadt, the mother of the defendant, June 25, 1892; that at the time of such marriage the wife was possessed of certain unimproved property in the city, which she owned absolutely, and also her dower interest in another lot adjoining; that being desirous to improve the property it was agreed between husband and wife that the money for the erection of three brick houses should be obtained by a loan secured by mortgage on the premises, and that the husband should contribute toward the payment of this loan as best he could, what that in consideration thereof the wife, at her death, would devise two houses to the husband in case he survived her.

The houses were erected with the proceeds of money obtained by mortgaging the property, which subsequently was paid off by the united efforts of the husband and wife, he contributing the sum of $6,000 toward the same. The wife died suddenly about March, 1902, without leaving a will, and the defendant, a son by her former marriage, claimed title to the property and had taken possession of it as heir-at-law of his mother.

The court, in delivering its opinion, finds that from the evidence adduced he is satisfied that there was such an understanding and agreement as is insisted upon by the complainant between the husband and wife; that the evidence that such an agreement existed is clearly indicated by the declarations of the wife and proved by the witnesses, and that under the circumstances of the case the testimony of the husband as to the details of the transaction and what the contract actually was should be adopted under the provisions of the code of laws as if the husband had been called by the court as a witness to testify in accordance with the provisions of the law, and that the husband is entitled to be reimbursed for the purpose of paying off the incumbrances upon the property, and directed that an order be prepared referring the cause to the auditor to ascertain what amount to be decreed to the complainant.

PLANS FOR FUNERAL SERVICES MONDAY OVER RE-MAINS OF DR. HAMMETT.

Funeral services over the remains of Dr. Whit Hammett, for many years a dental practitioner in this city, who died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home, 59 Q street northeast, will be held in St. Martin's Catholic Church at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Rev. Father Raley will officiate. The pallbearers will be selected from the membership of Washington Council, Knights of Columbus. Interment will be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

The deceased was sixty-five years of age. He was born at Charlotte Hall, St.
Mary county, Md., and at the outbreak of the civil war enlisted in the Confederate army. After the close of the war he studied dentistry and came to this city thirty-one years ago and entered upon the practice of his profession. Dr. Hammett, although ill for several months of stomach trouble, was not compelled to remain in bed until several days ago. He gradually sank until the end occurred.
In addition to his wife, who was formerly Miss Mary J. Cogan of this city, three sons and two sisters—Messrs. William, Whit, Jr., and Cogan Hammett of this city, and Mrs. A. B. Raley and Mrs. C.
Posey of Baltimore—survive the deceased.

Mrs. Roosevelt at Vicksburg.

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 28.—Mrs.
Roosevelt and party arrived over the Alabama and Vicksburg railroad this morning and at once started for a drive in the National Military Park. The Mayflower is expected to leave with the party for New Orleans during the afternoon.

Mistaking a cup of gasoline for water, and pouring it over her apron to extinguish flames that had caught in the garment, Mrs. George Yanning of Millersburg, Iowa, was burned to death Thursday. Members of the family succeeded in smothering the fire, but not until the woman had been fatally burned and had breathed the flames.

PARDON FOR ORCHARD
STATE BOARD WILL ACT NEXT WEDNESDAY.

BOISE, Idaho, March 28.—The state pardon board will meet in regular session next Wednesday, and in order to take up for consideration the matter of remitting the sentence of death imposed upon Harry Orchard, the self-confessed murderer of Frank Steunberger, it will be necessary that an application for such clemency be filed with the board.

In sentencing Orchard, Judge Wood recommended to the board that the death sentence of Orchard be remitted. The attorney general has given an opinion that under the laws of Idaho the pardon board cannot act upon Judge Wood's recommendation alone; that an application must be made to it in Orchard's behalf.

Refused to Ask Mercy.

Yesterday Frank Wyman, Orchard's attorney by virtue of an appointment by the court, visited Orchard in the penitentiary, explained the situation to him and urged him to make such application and to agree to go before the pardon board in person. Orchard emphatically refused to do so. He said that he had committed the crime and felt that he should pay the full penalty.

FINAL SERVICES HELD.
Funeral of Prof. James P. Caulfield
This Afternoon.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Prof. James P. Caulfield at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Father Mackin, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic Church, officiating. The funeral was private and the interment was at Mount Olivet cemetery.

Prof. Caulfield was seventy-seven years of age and an organist of note. Owing to his wonderful performances on the big organs of some of the most prominent churches in the United States, he was given the sobriquet of "the inspired organist." The New York Herald in describing one of his notable performances at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, said:

"Mr. Caulfield's capabilities and his peculiar range as an organist were pretly fairly indicated by his program which was nearly wholly in the direction of the classical. He is a skillful player in what may be termed the more severe school.
His mastery of the technical difficulties of the instrument seems to be complete and his playing is that of an experienced and careful artist and cultivated musician, smooth, steady, 'clean,' and at times brilliant."

He was director of many musical events, some of them attended by prominent men of this and other countries.
During his long career as an "inspired organist," he received many flattering testimonials from individuals, societies and newspapers.

STRAW HAT APPEARS
WARM TEMPERATURE BRINGS FORTH NEW TOP PIECE.

A local haberdasher is responsible for the statement that because of the summery conditions yesterday "many a Washington man nearly bought a straw hat."
The first straw hat of the season, so far as learned, was seen about noon yesterday at 7th and G streets. Walter J. Costello, who claims the credit of first discovering it, says the hat was a Panama of uncertain age, and was worn by an elderly colored man, whose clothing was of the heavy midwinter variety and not at all in keeping with the light top piece.
Some of the local hatbers are already showing new styles in straws for 1908, and it is said beginning next Wednesday, All Fools' Day, it will be the proper caper for men and boys to wear straw hats.

The mercury in the thermometers at the weather bureau got a good start yesterday morning, and by afternoon the record reading of the year—80 degrees—was reached. With this summertime temperature and one heat prostration, Prof. Garriott said conditions were unusual, although in last March there were three days when the temperature reached above the 90 mark, the maximum being 91 degrees. The minimum temperature, as shown at the weather bureau this morning, was 60 degrees.

Conditions Tomorrow Uncertain.
Prof. Garriott said this afternoon that the weather tomorrow will be uncertain and no warmer than today, and there may be occasional showers.

Reports received from Baltimore today are that in addition to the high temperature there, a harbinger of spring—the aurora borealis, or "northern lights"—was plainly visible in that city and vicinity.
The glare in the northern skies deceived many persons, who believed it was the reflection of a big conflagration somewhere.
Word comes from New York that with a temperature of seventy-one degrees in the office of the weather bureau and several degrees warmer in the pavement, New York experienced ideal June weather yesterday. A warm southwest wind afforded little relief to business men and shoppers who were wearing heavy winter clothing. It was the warmest March 27 ever recorded at the local weather bureau by six degrees. The previous high record of seventy-five degrees for any March day was established March 23, 1907.

One Celebrated Webster Player-Piano, VALUED AT $675.
One Peerless Apollo-Player, VALUED AT $250.
One Renowned New Century Music Box, VALUED AT $100.
And Other Prizes Amounting in Value to $3,975 in Order of Merit—Making a Grand Total of $5,000.

Remember it costs nothing to try for a prize in this contest. Simply use your brains and exercise a little care. Our reason for distributing these valuable prizes is this:
We wish to impress the name

F. G. Smith Piano Company
so thoroughly and so favorably upon the minds of the people of Washington and throughout the neighboring states that every one who intends to purchase a Piano will call at our warerooms, 1225 Pennsylvania avenue, and examine our stock of celebrated BRADBURY, WEBSTER and other high-grade Pianos and Player-Pianos.

The conditions under which this Great Counting Contest will be held are as follows:

It's Easy—Use your brains. Just count the number of dots which appear in and around the outlined Webster Piano.

The correct number of dots is known only to the manufacturers of the WEBSTER PIANO. They have forwarded this number in a sealed envelope to the four judges of the contest, who are representatives of the four newspapers of the city of Washington—Mr. J. Whit Herron, the Evening Star; Mr. Edgar D. Shaw, the Times; Mr. Arthur D. Marks, the Post, and Mr. S. W. Meek, the Herald. We do not know the number, and the judges will not know it until they open the envelope on the day the contest is decided.

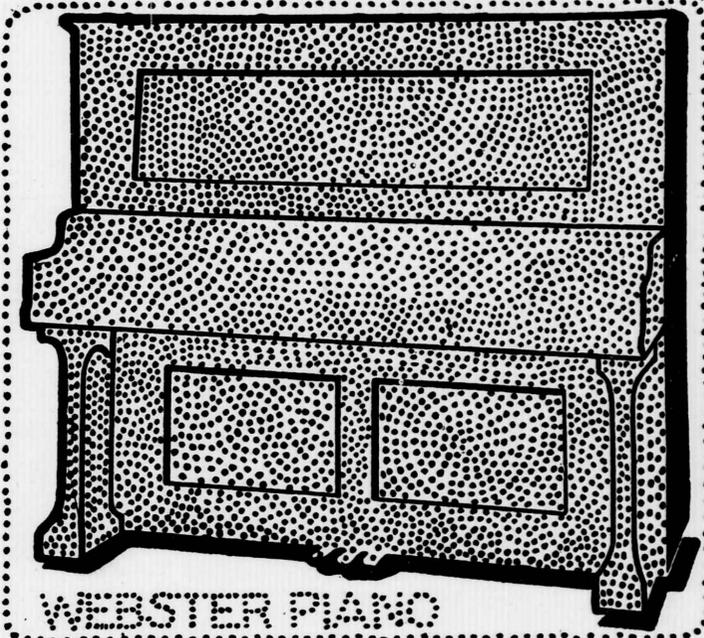

Each coupon will be numbered as soon as received. The decision as to the winners in this contest will be left entirely to the judges, and in event of a tie between the contestants, prizes identical in value will be given to each.

Any one residing in the United States is entitled to send in one coupon. Where more than one coupon is received from the same family all but the first will be discarded. Music dealers, their employes, winners of previous contests and members of their families are barred.

All answers must be written plainly and the coupon filled in, giving name and address. Also state whether you have an Organ, Square or Upright Piano, giving name of make.

This contest closes Friday, April 10th, 1908, and all answers must be received prior to 6 p. m. of that date.

It is a recognized fact that the great success of this house is due entirely to its fair and honest dealings, and our best recommendations come from THOUSANDS of people in this vicinity who have purchased pianos from us. This establishment is the southern distributing point for two of the largest piano factories in the country—one at Brooklyn, N. Y., the other at Leominster, Mass., where the famous BRADBURY and celebrated WEBSTER Pianos and Player-Pianos are made. Our position as manufacturers enables us to carry an immense stock of all the latest models in these high-grade instruments and permits us to sell at FACTORY PRICES and on terms that only unlimited capital permits.
