Depend Upon Contributions. The usual time for opening the playgrounds has arrived. The hundreds of children in need of the opportunities and good influences afforded by the twenty-five playgrounds depend upon the generosity of the citizens of Washington. The grounds require an attendance of hundreds of children a day, and in order to insure their safety and their instruction directors have to be put in charge. The finance committee of the Playground Association acknowledges the following contributions: M. Goldenburg, $10; George F. Stone, $1; Miss Isabel T.
